

Charles H. Markham

President of the Illinois Central Railroad Company

I FRANKLY admire the youthful, vigorous spirit of the Chicago Herald and Examiner—a spirit that makes for progress and that speaks for the youth and vigor of Chicago and the great Middle West.”

PART 1

VOLUME XV PUBLIC SCHOOLS OPEN

800 EXPECTED

Number of Schools
day. Balance
Forty-seven at High

The public schools of Highland Park, with the exception of district 108—Lincoln West Ridge—will open on Labor Day, Tuesday. The latter three will open on the following day. The school of Conception, both in the city and in the school, will open Tuesday.

Deerfield-Shields
With a teaching staff in addition to Principal Deerfield will enter the year expected to be a great one. It has been steadily increasing its courses of study and expanding its grounds in emergency. The work upon which has been done a number of times, at the beginning of the year, and nothing remains to be done. The seats are in, the curriculum is up, and nothing remains to be done. The stage equipment is in, and the school is ready for the year. The attendance for this year will be 785, of which number 200 were Lake Forest students. Sandwich expects a similar attendance for this year of well over 1,000.

In addition to the teachers returning, 15 of whom are on leave for the summer, a number of new teachers will come to the high school.

Miss Ruth Wilson, a graduate of Grinnell College, with high recommendations from her alma mater and at Chicago, did graduate work.

Miss Constance V. charge of the important instructor in public school and with a similar position at the school and with the reputation of Alexander Sarett, popular professor of speech at the school where she studied.

Miss Grace Campbell in the department of art. Miss Lucy B. promoted to the head of the department to fill the place by the resignation of Miss Della L. White, who will take a position in New York where her sister.

Mr. John W. Heaslip, the growth of the department as an instructor in the University of Chicago.

Mr. Blandford Jencks, of English, was promoted to the English department of the high school. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and did graduate work at the University.

Miss Whiteman, in charge of the study of the year teach zoology and science. The study of the year teach zoology and science. The study of the year teach zoology and science. The study of the year teach zoology and science.

Miss Della L. White
Continued on page 9

T. E. PIERSON UPHOLSTERER

Mr. T. E. Pierson, the furniture upholsterer here for about forty years, has moved out the business to the new location who will operate the business at its present location. Mr. Stonewall, mended by Mr. Pierson.

OAK TERRACE CARD PARTY

The Parent-Teachers Association of Oak Terrace school held an Euchre, Euchre, Euchre party at the school building, September 15. The party was a success and the proceeds were awarded and the patronage of the school.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH SPONSORING

A group of Camp Girls, organized in Highland Park, is sponsored by the Episcopal Church. The girls are of any age and are invited to join. It is hoped that many of the girls will join the camp next summer. The girls will have a good time and will be of great joy of living with the girls. The girls are at all interested in the work of the church. The girls are either Miss Waltham or Bessie Penn. 1039.