

NEBRASKA YOUTH GETS SCHOLARSHIP

Boonville, Mo.—Clifford James Anderson, son of Mrs. Alma Lillian Anderson, 1732 South 28th street, Omaha, Nebr., has been awarded the scholarship offered this year by Kemper Military school, this city, to the most proficient cadet attending a Citizens' Military Training Camp in the Seventh Corps Area during August.

Candidates for the scholarship were enrolled in the C. M. T. camps at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; Fort Des Moines, Iowa; and Fort Snelling, Minn. Anderson attended Fort Des Moines, Iowa, and won out over a large field of competitors.

Proficiency in drill, conduct, athletics, etc., formed the basis of this award. The scholarship at Kemper for young Anderson amounts to $700.

The girls can't prepare for the October weddings by learning to cook, as it takes all their time to visit the dressmaker.

And the boys are getting ready for matrimony by spending money needed for furniture on bachelor high jinks.

GLENVIEW DEFEATS ELKS; SCORE 7 TO 4

LOCALS NEARLY TIE IN 9TH

Failure to Hit in Pinches Cause of This Setback; New Line-up Next Week; Evans-ton Sept. 27

(By A. L. Fell)

The Elks last Sunday lost the second game of a five-game series to Glenview, 7 to 4. Failure to hit in pinches cost the Elks the ball game. Glenview bunched their hits and got all the breaks of the game. Next week the third game will be played at Glenview.

In the first inning the Elks scored two runs when Birkhoff hit a Texas leaguer with Glader and Werner on bases.

Glenview scored four runs in the third, on an error, walk and 3 hits. The Elks got men on bases but lacked the necessary punch to bring them in. Glenview scored three more runs on a wild throw, mixed in with an error and a hit.

Makes Big Effort

In the ninth with the score 7 to 3 against them, Duffy led off with a single. G. Rudolph and Angus struck out. Hessler got safe on an error. G. Glader got hold of one and hit the right field fence, a foot short of going over. If the ball had gone over, the score would have been tied. Duffy scored on the hit. Little after running the count to two and three popped out.

Next Game Next week the Elks will present a new lineup that will do justice to any big league club. They are out to beat Glenview and manager Green-slade has added many new faces to the lineup.

Play Evanston Sept. 27

A week from Sunday they play Evanston Progressive in the third game of their series. Each team has won one game.

A week from that game Glenview will play here in the last game of the season.

FELL'S CLOTHIERS LOSE TO ALL-STARS

Drop First Game of Series, 7-4; Second Battle To Be This Evening

A combination of mental errors cost the Fell Clothiers team a ball game last Thursday when they lost to Capos All-stars, 7 to 4. The All-stars did not hit Dick Martin hard, but errors by the outfield and the first baseman cost six runs. F. Glader hit a home run for the only solid bit that the All-stars got. The teams play again tonight in the second game of the series.

SECY. DAVIS ELECTED MAYOR OF MOOSEHEART

Founder of This Children's City Is Honored by Them in First Election Held

One of the positions of which Secretary of Labor James J. Davis is most proud, not excepting his place in the cabinet of President Coolidge, is that of mayor of the children's city of Mooseheart, owned by the Loyal Order of Moose.

At the time of the last national elections, the small citizens of Mooseheart decided to go to the polls themselves and elect a head for their city government. Mr. Davis, founder of Mooseheart and director general of the Moose order, won by an overwhelming majority, the citizens not voting the Davis ticket being the ones who were too young to know what it was all about. The first that Mr. Davis knew about the election was after he was notified that he had been elected to the office of mayor.

Mooseheart is probably the best governed city in the world. Discipline cases are handled by the children themselves in council and penalties meted out to offenders. Corporal punishment is unknown.

For minor offenses there is the "work line" corresponding somewhat to kitchen police duty in the army. Offenders placed on the line are allotted certain tasks and deprived of taking part in any of the amusements or entertainments provided for the others.

Each worker is accredited with an hourly rate of pay, but the wages divert to an amusement fund, which is used to buy motion pictures and other forms of entertainment for those who are not on the "work line."

Records for good behavior are kept, certain offenses being punished by giving demerit marks, which in turn, may be worked off. Even the babies have their chance to work for credits in the shape of daily gold stars, a certain number each week bringing reward in the form of chocolate bars and pennies deposited in the bank to their credit.

In spite of all the hot dogs being sold along the automobile road, one can occasionally hear a pup barking at the moon.

Frequent complaints that the fish are not biting, but the suckers who bite at worthless investments are still at it.

ORPHAN'S HOME AS MRS. BUDD MEMORIAL

Building Will Be Erected on 200 Acre Grounds North of Libertyville

Plans to perpetuate the memory of the late Katharine Kreigh Budd, wife of Britton I. Budd, president of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad company, through the establishment of a home for orphan children, became known today through the filing of an application with the Secretary of State at Springfield, Illinois to establish a corporation to be known as the "Katharine Kreigh Budd Memorial Home for Children."

There has already been acquired 200 acres of wooded land on the east bank of the Des Plaines river, three-fourths of a mile north of Libertyville, Illinois which will be turned over to the corporation. There, under the supervision of the Sisters of St. Mary of the Western Province of the Protestant Episcopal church, the home for orphaned children will be established.

It is proposed that work will be started immediately on a main building which will be the headquarters of the school and the dormitory for the Sisters, as well as of a chapel. By next spring it is expected that housing will be available for the accommodation of about 100 children. Cram and Ferguson, of Boston, will be the architects.

The funds for the acquiring of the land and the construction of the buildings have been provided by the estate of Mrs. Budd and by Mr. Budd. The funds for the maintenance of the home will be provided by Mrs. Budd.

During her lifetime, Mrs. Budd, who died on Jan. 18 of this year, was interested in the work of the Sisters among children and the poor. When a young girl she became a member of the Associates of the Sisters of St. Mary, and in later years served as treasurer. The associates are an organization dedicated to advancing the work of the Sisters. The Sisters of St. Mary have a home for children in Chicago at 2822 Jackson boulevard. The same order is in charge of Kemper hall, Kenosha, Wis., one of the oldest schools for girls in this part of the country, and also conducts St. Katharine's School for Girls at Dubuque, Ia.

The trustees of the "Katharine Kreigh Budd Memorial Home for Children" will be:

The Rt. Rev. Charles P. Anderson, Rev. Frederic S. Fleming, Sister Mary Sylvia, of Kenosha, Britton I. Budd, Bernard J. Fallon, Edward J. Blair, Samuel Insull, Jr., Addison L. Gardner, Jr., Charles Ward Seabury.

The application for a charter states that the object for which the home is founded is "for the spiritual, moral, intellectual and physical culture and education of: first, children orphaned of both parents; second, for children orphaned of one parent; third, for those children who, by reason of environment or inability of unfitness of parents have not had the advantage of good home life and up-building."

It states that the home is to be established under the supervision and care of the Sisters of St. Mary of the Western Province of the Protestant Episcopal church, or such other religious or charitable agency belonging to or under the supervision of the Protestant Episcopal church as the trustees may at any time select.

Some one asks why a vacation is called an "outing." Perhaps because people are usually out of cash when they get back.

Claimed that modern schools try to teach too many things, and the boys who are anxious to get out for football practise will say so.

Too many people are talking on soap boxes in this country, and not enough using the contents of the same.

STATE EDITORS TO MEET AT CHAMPAIGN

Session Called for First Three Days in October; Will See Game

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10.—Restoration of the daily newspaper's editorial page to its former prominence is one of the objects in view of an Illinois organization of newspaper editors and editorial writers, who will meet on October 1, 2 and 3 at Champaign-Urbana, Ill.

The call for the meeting has been sent out by A. L. Bowen of Springfield, editorial writer of the Illinois State Journal; John H. Harrison, editor and publisher of the Danville

Commercial News, and W. F. Hardy, editor and publisher of the Decatur Herald.

It will be in connection with the annual meeting of the Illinois Press association, the call says, and its purpose will be to form a state organization "for the benefit of the editorial side of the daily newspapers of Illinois."

Subjects pertaining to newspaper ethics, style of writing, contents of editorial pages, display of news, discrimination in the relative importance of news and other similar topics, will be discussed. Methods to be followed to make the newspaper the leading influence in the civil, social and economical affairs of its community will furnish an inexhaustive source of discussion.
