LAKE FOREST YOUTHS RESCUED FROM LAKE

Highland Park Life Saving Crew Aid Them When Canoe Capsizes Sunday

Two Lake Forest young men, who gave the names of Dan Hill and William Quigley, were rescued last Sunday afternoon by the Highland Park Young Men's Life Saving crew, after the two had been cast into the lake by the capsizing of a canoe which they were sailing. Both were able to swim, but would have had difficulty in reaching shore without assistance as the canoe turned turtle some distance out. It also was salvaged. The young men were none the worse for their experience and expressed gratitude to their rescuers.

DAUGHTERS OF INDIANA GIVE BENEFIT PARTY

Funds to Help Defray Expense of Next Hoosier Salon; Is To Be Sept. 29

Tuesday, September 29, Mrs. Wm. Riach, 1022 Ridge avenue, Evanston, will open her home for a benefit card party to the Daughters of Indiana and their friends. Funds raised from the party will be used to help defray the expense of the next Hoosier Salon. Shares will be sold on an original John McCutcheon cartoon and Griffith etching. There will be an exhibit of paintings by Margarita Weaver. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. E. C. Twells, 6224 Kimbark avenue, and Mrs. C. E. Roth, 211 S. Maple avenue, Oak Park. These ladies will be assisted by the Art committee.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR AROUSES CITIZENS

Residents So. St. Johns Stirred by Report of Paving Plan; Unconfirmed

A number of residents on South St. Johns avenue, between Lincoln and Beach streets, started to hold an indignation meeting last Friday evening at the city hall, expecting to find there a session of the city fathers engaged in planning for widening of the pavement between those streets. When they arrived at the city building they found it dark and after discussing matters briefly, they dispersed. Inquiry made among city officials elicits the information that they knew nothing of the matter and had not even thought of such a pavement project. It is evident that the residents were aroused by some rumor without foundation in fact.

OLSON WINS SUNSET VALLEY GOLF TROPHY

Defeats P. Caroni in Close Match Last Sunday; Carey Defaults to Caroni

The finals of the club championship was played last Sunday and was won by Art Olson when he defeated P. Caroni 5 and 4 in a 36 hole match. They both played good golf and were even at the end of the first 18. Olson's superior golf outpointed Caroni on the last lap.

The only bad feature of the championship was that Charley Carey, last year's champion, didn't have a chance to defend his title. He lost by default to P. Caroni one of the finalists in the first round of elimination. Others that were unable to play their matches were Richard Martin, Robt. Beard, Chas. Grant, Fred Siljestrom and Mr. Eyer.

The new 18 holes are in wonderful condition and is never congested at any time. There is no trouble getting started and no waiting.

RETIRED ENGINEER DIES AT R. R. HOME

Orion Brooks, aged 55, a retired engineer of the Pennsylvania system, died Sunday at the Railroad Men's Home. Death was due to heart trouble. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the H. M. Prior Company's chapel, the Rev. P. C. Wolcott officiating. Burial was in Mooney's cemetery.

MOTORISTS COMPLAIN OF WINNETKA POLICE

Motorists along the North Shore are reported complaining vigorously at the action of Winnetka police in several instances of late wherein they are reported to have, to say the least, used little discretion in making arrests on charges of speeding and the like. Francis Woolley of Highland Park was among those halted by the police and is reported not well pleased at their manner of enforcing the law. Other motorists charge the action of the police borders on prosecution, and in at least one instance the Chicago Motor club is reported about to take up the cudgels in defense of the victim.

"HUMAN FLY" OPENING FEATURE OF PAGEANT

As the opening feature of the Pageant of Progress sponsored by the Waukegan Chamber of Commerce, Harry H. Gardiner, "the human fly," will climb from the street to the top of the flag pole on the Waukegan National Bank building, at 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening. Searchlights will play upon him as he makes the perilous ascent. The pageant promises to be a notable affair and great crowds are expected.

DEERFIELD TO PLAY DES PLAINES SATURDAY

Game Here and Local Team Badly Crippled, With Several Injured

Deerfield-Shields high school football team plays Maine township (Des-Plaines) school on the Deerfield school athletic field next Saturday. Des-Plaines has a strong team, and was winner of the Western Suburban championship last year.

The following Saturday Deerfield plays New Trier on the latter's field. In last Saturday's game Deerfield lost to Lindbloom, 25 to 7. Lindbloom had all of last year's veteran team except two while Coach Peel had to face them with several new and green players in the line. Joe Boylan, halfback, will be out of play for perhaps two weeks, because of strained ligament in the knee; Dugan, new prospect for fullback is out with turned ankle; Edgerton, a fullback prospect suffered rupture of a blood vessel, in the game Tuesday evening in practice and out of the game for two weeks; Peel hurt his groin in the game Saturday and may not be able to play Saturday. However, Coach Peel expects to have a good lineup and the battle will be a stiff one, he predicts.

NEW TRIER NEWS NOW PRINTED HERE

Udell Printing Co. Adds Another School Paper to its List of Publications

With the addition of another school paper to its list of publications, The Udell Printing company is now printing weekly eight newspapers of regular issue. The new one is the New Trier News, published at the New Trier high school. This is the first year The Udell Printing company has had this contract, which comes here because of the company's reputation for excellent work in this line. The publications now being issued weekly by the printing company are the Highland Park Press, The Lake Forest Forester, The Spectator of Lake Forest college, Elm Place school, Deerfield-Shields high school, Blue and White and the Glendale Grammar school Broadcaster and the New Trier News.

In addition to these papers of weekly issue The Udell Printing company prints several other regular publications, including the Classified Journal, official organ of the Classified Advertising Managers of the United States, which is a 64-page publication. An extensive general job printing business also is done by the company, which enjoys large patronage from the public and fully anticipates the same.

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS AT W. C. T. U. MEETING

County Convention Society Expresses Views Commends Official

We, the members of the Lake County W. C. T. U., assembled in our annual county convention, lift our hearts and voices in gratitude to God for his constant guidance and success achieved.

Resolved, that we emphasize the opportunity presented through our department, of work to educate public opinion to the standard of total abstinence, purity, good citizenship and respect for all law and that our pledge binds us to secure all proper means the enforcement of the 18th Amendment, and that we urge all patriotic women of our county to become members of our organization and this insures a greater power of influence and be it further resolved that we call upon patriots, men and women of all churches, all political parties and women's organizations to take part in a campaign for efficient citizenship to the end that at our coming elections they may be chosen who will be true to their duty and high privilege in law enforcement.

Resolved, that we express our appreciation and loyalty to all officials who are enforcing the law thereby demonstrating that the law can be enforced when officials are true to their oath of office.

Resolved, that we express our deep appreciation to our retiring president, Mrs. Tibbetts, for her splendid leadership and untiring, unselfish zeal for our cause and that we earnestly pray that a well deserved rest may restore her to health and strength.

Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt thanks to all who have in any way contributed to the success of this convention.

ANNUAL CONVENTION AT LAKE VILLAGE SEPT. 29

The annual convention of the Royal Neighbors of America will be held Tuesday, September 29, at Lake Villa. This will be an all day session beginning at ten o'clock in the morning.

It looks as if the anti-ite miners were going to celebrate the Prevention week, by declining to dig any fuel out of which fires can be made.

The automobile drivers should not speed up merely because they see a bunch of school children crowding out into some street.

RECREATION ROOMS OPEN AT WAUKEGAN

Next Monday evening the beautiful new Waukegan Recreation Rooms will open doors to the public, affording means of entertainment not only for Waukegan and Lake county but for the entire North Shore from Chicago to Milwaukee. A more completely appointed place of its kind is not to be found anywhere, a fact which will be realized only after inspection. Most rooms of this kind are installed by a bowling or billiard man, who slight the other department but not so here, as the sixteen special Brunswick tournament alleys, the eleven Brunswick carom and pocket tables, as well as the splendid soda fountain and fixtures are only a few of the features.

HIGH CLASS BANKING

If there is one sure barometer of a city's progressive or stagnant character it is the condition of its banks. This is particularly true of Highland Park, for the two local banks have shown remarkable gains during the last two years; in fact, one of them, the HIGHLAND PARK STATE BANK, has deposits of approximately $3,700,000, which exceeds that of any bank in Lake County.

The HIGHLAND PART STATE BANK is one of the most successful banks in Chicago's metropolitan district. Its deposits per capita of city's population are far above the average and it enjoys the full confidence of the people of the community.

This bank has served the people of Highland Park and the Skokie Valley for twenty-five years and has been a most conspicuous factor in fostering the growth of the city and the adjacent country.

INSPECTION AT FORT: REVIEWS EACH WEEK

Tuesday, Sept. 22, 1925, Major General William S. Graves, U. S. Army, commanding the Sixth Corps Area, inspected the regular army troops stationed at Fort Sheridan. This was the first inspection after the strenuous summer months at Camp Custer, Mich., and Camp Spartan, Wis., the civilian training camps. The troops and the fort were pronounced to be in excellent condition.

In the future a parade and review will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, at 4 p. m. These reviews are quite spectacular, as the post contains artillery and cavalry units, in addition to the infantry garrison. The public is invited to attend.
