Vision

IT WAS not adventure alone that impelled the dauntless LaSalle and other pioneer explorers to break their trails through the then wilderness of Northern Illinois.

It was quite as much a vision and a mission that led them on. A vision of the settlement and development they knew would follow.

And yet the day of visions and missions is by no means gone. Another and newer generation of pioneers is carrying on. The needs of growing populations must be filled.

ing up to thousands the opportunity and healthfulness of living in the real country yet close to work.

And ready for these developments long in advance of their preparation, Public Service Company power lines and gas mains have been extended to await the coming of the home-builders and provide them with light, power, heat and transportation.

$1000 Reward! The Skokie Valley Route of the North Shore Line, now under construction through this rapidly developing section, offers $1,000 in cash awards for the best names for new stations along its new route.

It would be gratifying to the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois were the prizes offered for new station names to be awarded to residents of the territory served by the Company.
