

The many people who cannot get away this winter for winter sports, can all have a chance to practise long jumping to get out of the way of the automobiles.

Fresh as the Dawn, Every Morn

FALLING LEAVES

Whether they're from your calendar, or from the trees — you know that winter's on the way. Build up your winter strength with plenty of our delicious milk and dairy products.

Our E. Z. Plan of dignified credit solves your furniture problem. This pay-out-of-your-income way has brought joy to the hearts of many home lovers. Our furniture is dependable and brings comfort to your home.

DUFFY FURNITURE CO. FURNITURE ON CREDIT

FOR THAT PAIN IN THE BACK — OUR SWEET AND CLEAN SYSTEM

ADDITIONAL DEERFIELD

Continued from page 1, part 2) Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton changed their plans and left Saturday evening for Los Angeles, Cal., instead of St. Petersburg, Fla.

A swimming and gymnasium class will open at the Deerfield-Shields high school Thursday evening at 7:30. The fee for the season is three dollars and if there are less than forty women it will be less and more than forty the fee will be more.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rommel and two daughters, Janet and Ruth of La Grange were the guests of Mrs. Josephine Rommel Sunday.

Mrs. Irvin Stryker had as her guests Sunday, Misses Alice Lager-schultz, Lillian Keating, Emily Urbanski, Dora Loewenson of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Galloway had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carnell and son and daughter, John and Charlotte and Miss Ruth Hammersmith of Elmhurst, Ill.

The Galloway girls were hostesses at a Hallowe'en party to twenty-eight of their friends at their home Friday evening from 8 to 9:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Childs of Kietburg, Ill., have come to spend the winter with their two daughters, Mrs. William Williams and Miss Mildred Childs in Highland Park. Mrs. Williams and Miss Childs are teachers in the Northbrook school.

Mr. E. P. Osterman has quinsy sore throat and Mr. Edgar Scully is doing the janitor work at the Deerfield grammar school.

Mrs. E. H. Willman and Mr. Alex Willman were the guests of Henry and Albert Osterman of Chicago, Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Rommel had as her guests last week her brother, Mr. Henry Allardt and nephew, Mr. George Wurz of Chicago.

An Episcopal church is being organized in Deerfield. A communion service was held in the Masonic Temple Sunday, Nov. 1st, "All Saints Day" with the Rev. Edwin Randall, sec'y to the Bishop of the diocese of Chicago officiating. Some of the Episcopal families of Deerfield are: Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gooder, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Timson, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Pettis, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Truite, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Knaak, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Greer, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Weigle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page, Mr. and Mrs. K. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Danforth, Mrs. George Shropshire, Mrs. A. R. Warner. A finance committee was appointed Sunday consisting of Mr. Lincoln Pettis, Mrs. G. D. Richards, Mr. G. L. Truite, Mrs. Alvin Knaak and Mr. Danforth. The next service will be announced later and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Mrs. Rose Welch of Minneapolis, Minnesota, who has been the guest of Mrs. B. H. Kress for the past three weeks, joined her daughter, Miss Genevieve Welch of New York City in Chicago Thursday and they left for their winter home in Miami, Florida.

Mrs. J. Howard Gibbs and son Jack of Ravinia spent Friday with Mrs. Gibbs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Biederstadt.

The Krazy Cat orchestra of Deerfield furnished the music for the dance given at the Deerfield Masonic Temple Saturday evening.

Miss Loretta Heman had as her guests Sunday, Dr. Preston Bradley of the People's church and Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. K. H. Griffin and son and daughter, James and Catherine, of Chicago.

Alvin W. Knaak Jr., was host to ten of his little friends at a Hallowe'en dinner Friday evening, Oct. 30.

Mrs. Harry Olenford, Misses Mae and Ethel Titus, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr., Mrs. William Hagge, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pettis and daughter, Jean, Miss Hansen, Mr. Arthur M. Kiest and two children, Mary Jane and Roger of Deerfield, Mrs. Wilma Williams, Mrs. Childs, Miss Mildred Childs and Mrs. Jennings and three children of Highland Park attended the entertainment given at the Northbrook grammar school Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beckley Jr., entertained at a hard times party at their home Tuesday evening. The spirit of Hallowe'en was carried out in the decorations.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr., attended the Club Women's Institute at the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, last week.

Mrs. George Truite attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Adams of Wilmette Wednesday and attended a bridge party at the Wilmette Womans club in the afternoon.

Plans are being formulated by the Progressive club for a bazaar, chicken dinner, card party and dance to be given at the Wilmot school Saturday, November 14. The proceeds are for a kitchen in the new school which will be built in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huehl and daughter, Barbara, Mesdames Piepenbrock, E. H. Willman, Fred Labahn, Fred Horenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clavey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pettis attended the opening of St. Peter's Evangelical Community House of Northbrook Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Cooks was given a surprise party at her home last Monday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Benz of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cooks of Northbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Fred and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooks, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Juhrend of Deerfield.

Mrs. Denerline has been added to the list of Red Cross workers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Clavey entertained a few friends Saturday evening at a Hallowe'en party.

The Deerfield Pals football team was defeated by Snyder's team of Highland Park Thursday at Elks field. Next Saturday they will play the high school's third team.

Arthur Kress broke his finger playing football.

Mrs. Joseph Meurisse and daughter of Dubuque, Ia., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. H. Selig.

Mr. James Fritsch is quite ill.

Mrs. L. E. Miller of Randolph, Minn., and Mr. B. O. Fritsch of Highland Park visited their brothers, James and Ezra Fritsch of Deerfield, and John Fritsch of Northfield Saturday.

Mr. Joe Seber and family who have been living in the Koch house on Hazel ave., moved to Northbrook last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and daughter Sylvia and Mrs. George Pettis spent Sunday with Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Arthur Gathman of Itasca, Illinois.

Mrs. E. Fredericks has been quite ill with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Koch and family of Ravenswood visited Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Fritsch Sunday.

Clara Sticken had her tonsils and adenoids removed at St. Francis hospital in Evanston Saturday.

Mrs. Ed Jacobson entertained at a Hallowe'en party for her niece, Marilyn Gagne Saturday afternoon.

A special meeting of the R. N. A. was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Hagi Tuesday evening. New members were voted on.

All day meetings of the Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church will be held every Thursday except Thanksgiving day until the bazaar, Dec. 4. The bazaar will open at 2:30 and supper will be served at 5:30.

Mr. Frank Klemp and family are contemplating a trip to California by motor.

The Pennsylvania R. R. will on Friday and Saturday of this week place on exhibition at Chicago Union station an entirely new set of Pullman equipment for use on Broadway Limited, the 20 hour train between Chicago and New York. This new equipment represents the latest creation of the car builders art, with shower bath and private lounge room for the ladies, a semi-enclosed compartment for the train stenographer, porcelain washstands, larger dressing and smoking rooms, etc. Mr. C. W. Getty, who is assistant general passenger agent of the Penn. Rd., says the public is invited to inspect this new equipment which will be on exhibition between the hours of 6 and 8 p. m. and is said to represent the world's finest train.

Miss Myrtle Bonzar and Mr. Arthur Meding of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salig spent Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt spent Saturday in Chicago.

Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hammer of Highland Park.

Mr. Harry Olenford of Oberlin, Ohio spent the week-end with his family.

Mrs. D. A. Rossiter of Tacoma, Washington and daughter Miss Ruth Rossiter who is attending the Chicago University were the guests of Mrs. W. A. Carr Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olenford attended a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gaddis of Libertyville.

Misses Theresa and Anna Klemp and Margaret Hansen attended a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lama of Chicago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther and family of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Ott Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Klemp Sr., gave a farewell party at their home Monday evening in honor of their son Frank Klemp, who is leaving with his family for Pasadena, California, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley and daughter Isabel of Libertyville and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bradley of Lake Forest, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Love Sunday.

Miss Bernice Love visited her cousin, Joseph Dunn of Lake Forest and attended a Hallowe'en party at Ar-mour's rest room, Lake Forest.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church Rev. F. Piepenbrok Sunday school—9:15 a. m. German church service—10:30 a. m.

Installation service—7:30 p. m. The evening service will be conducted in the English language. Rev. Karl Roth of Highland Park will occupy the pulpit. Special music will be furnished by Mr. Ewald Winter, soloist.

Friday evening the church board will meet for its quarterly business meeting at the home of Mr. C. A. Selig.

Sunday, Nov. 15, the St. Paul's congregation will observe the 60th anniversary of the dedication of the church. There will be three services, morning, afternoon and evening with good speakers and first class music. Definite announcements will be made later.

John M. Smyth Company Madison, Conn. Established 1867 MANUFACTURERS-RETAILERS-IMPORTERS JOHN M. SMYTH, JR., President. THOS. A. SMYTH, Vice-President.

ORIENTAL ROOM 4th Floor

Exclusive Patterns A Comprehensive Stock

Table with two columns: ORIENTALS and CHINESE. Lists various rug types and prices, such as 'Beloochistan, Average 2-6x5-0 $27.50' and 'Wool Chinese, 6x9 $190.00'.

STORE OPEN MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK

Motoring is Hard On Overcoats

This year get an overcoat that will stand the hard usage of motoring.

Be sure of quality. But that doesn't mean you must pay a big price. These clothes have many features of comfort, style and wear that we want you to know about.

Overcoats that You'll Enjoy Wearing all Winter $29.50 to $57.00

Character, personality, individuality of expression — call it what you will, but you'll find it in these Adler Collegian Overcoats.

Our customers know they can get that distinguishing smartness of style by coming here. Dozens of features enter into it. They go beyond the fabric and into the entire make-up of the garment. We have made a study of these cloths and know why they satisfy men who want to keep looking their best.

Let us explain. Pay this Store a visit before you buy your new Overcoat

GARNETT'S