

maturing April 1 and October 1, 1924, and April 1, 1927, and $500 for interest due October 1, 1927, $10,000 for principal due October 1, 1927.

For the year 1927, a tax sufficient to raise the sum of $10,500, being $500 for interest due April 1 and October 1, 1928, and $10,000 for principal due October 1, 1928.

And said sums are hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying interest upon said bonds and creating sinking fund to pay principal thereon at maturity.

That principal or interest maturing at any time when there are not sufficient funds on hand from the foregoing tax levy to pay the same, shall be paid from the current funds of said Park District and reimbursements made thereto from the proceeds of taxes hereby levied when the same shall have been collected.

Section 5. That forthwith upon the enactment of this ordinance and recording of same in the record of proceedings of this Board, a copy thereof certified by the Secretary of this Board, which Secretary, in and with this certificate certifying said copy, shall certify to the enactment and recording hereof, shall be filed with the County Clerk of the County of Cook, who shall, in and for each of the years 1926 and 1927, inclusive, ascertain the rate per cent required to produce the aggregate tax herebefore levied for each of said years, respectively, and extend the same for collection on the tax books in connection with other taxes levied in each of said years, respectively, in said Park District for general corporate purposes of said Park District, and in each of said years, such annual tax shall be levied and collected by said Park District in like manner as taxes for general purposes for each of said years are levied and collected, and when collected, such taxes shall be used for the purpose of paying principal and interest upon the bonds, herebefore described as the same shall mature.

Section 6. That said bonds be executed as above provided and thereon deposited with the Treasurer of this Board, and by him delivered to the purchaser thereof, upon receipt of the purchase price, the same to be not less than the par value of said bonds.

Section 7. That all ordinances, resolutions and orders, or parts thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Adopted September 14, 1925.
Ayes, All.
Nays, None.

EVERETT L. MILLARD
President of the Board of Commissioners of the Highland Park District.

TEST:
E. A. WARREN,
Secretary of the Board of Commissioners of the Highland Park District.

Adopted Sept. 14, A. D. 1925.
Approved Sept. 14, A. D. 1925.

HALLOWEEN HERE, POLICE S

Highland Park police report that the best Halloween this year in the district. Practically no mischief done, and the only property reported missing was a brass sign from Special Chemicals company plant or two fences were torn down a few other minor instances of mischief were reported, but in all it was the quietest All-Saint's on record here. It is believed this is due largely to the fact that adequate provision was made by the district organizations for the entertainment of the youth of the district on that evening.

File Merchant's Spotless Cab

This is the Cab of Spotless Mien that's always spic and span and clean; the Spotless Cab of great renown, designed to serve this bustling town. With soap and brush, inside and out, we put the germs and dust to rout.

Yellow Cab Co. Highland Park 2000

PART 3

The Highland Park Press

PART 3

VOLUME XV

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1925

NUMBER 36

North Shore Society

Miss Lucille Trudel Singer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Singer of Evanston, was married to Mr. Roland W. Nicol of Winnetka, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Nicol of Gridley, Cal., last Tuesday evening in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church in Evanston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick S. Fleming of the Edgewater Church of the Atone-ment, assisted by Rev. K. O. Crosby. Attending the bride were Miss Henrietta Bush of Chicago as maid of honor, and Mrs. George Wittbold of Chicago as the matron of honor. Mr. Charles Driver of Kenilworth acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Hartman of Chicago and Mr. Charles Stewart Hawes of Oak Park. A wedding supper for the bridal party was held at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple left on a wedding trip, and will reside in Evanston upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Boyden, 806 Rosewood avenue, Winnetka, left on October 20 for Pittsburg, Mass., for the Eaton-Salisbury wedding festivities. Mr. Boyden was one of the ushers at the wedding which took place Saturday, October 24. He returned to Winnetka last Monday, but Mrs. Boyden remained in the east for a brief visit with friends.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Ann Bowles Calloway, daughter of Mrs. A. W. Calloway of 627 Eleventh street, Wilmette, to Geo. Harold Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stephens of Hubbard Woods, Saturday evening, November 7. The service will be read in the Wilmette Baptist church at 8:30 o'clock, the Rev. Francis J. Stiffler officiating.

Mrs. Clarence Off of Peoria will be matron of honor, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Louise Stephens, and the bride's cousin, Miss Jean McCallum, will be bridesmaids.

Claude Stephens will serve as his brother's best man, and the usher list includes the names of Alfred McDougal of Kenilworth, Raymond Stephens of Hubbard Woods, and Dr. Charles Bailey Blake, Robert Mahan and John Mahan of Wilmette.

Mrs. A. N. McCallum gave a shower for her niece at her home in Wilmette Thursday afternoon.

Alexander Dean's scheduled lecture at the Winnetka Community House will not be given Wednesday, Nov. 4. This lecture has been postponed but the course will be resumed the following week. The course will terminate December 16 instead of December 9, as originally planned. The subject of the lecture on Nov. 11 will be "Naturalism" and Mr. Dean will illustrate his talk with a discussion of "What Price Glory?" Last Wednesday's talk was very interesting, it was said. The subject was "Modern Tragedy" and was illustrated with a discussion of "Rain."

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mollie McMurray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McMurray of Evanston, to Mr. Delbert Thorsen of Kenilworth, which took place September 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Davis of Detroit arrived in Glencoe Friday to spend the week-end with the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, 530 Longwood avenue.

Miss Marigold Langworthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Langworthy, 832 Bryant avenue, Winnetka, made her stage debut in "The Judge's Husband," William Hodges' play at the Adelphi theatre in Chicago last week. Miss Langworthy is known on the stage as Mari Worth and has been attending a school of dramatic art in New York City for some time. A large group of Miss Langworthy's friends welcomed her on opening night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keyes Ripley are now occupying their new home in Troy, N. H., after a several weeks' honeymoon. Mrs. Ripley (Phyllis Mary Ogan) was a recent Winnetka bride. Their trip included two weeks at a camp in Wisconsin, a tour of the Shenandoah valley, a trip to Washington, D. C., over the trails through Virginia and on to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Emory Albright and their two sons, formerly of Scott avenue, Winnetka, are leaving this week-end on a motor tour to Alabama. They will follow a highway through the picturesque mountains of Kentucky and Tennessee, stopping at remote places where Mr. Albright intends to make sketches of mountaineers and country children. Their studio and summer home, at Warrenville, on DuPage river, will be closed until spring.

Mrs. Frederick Scott and her daughter, Miss Isabel, of Hubbard Woods, are in the east. After a visit with Frederick Scott, who is a student at Hotchkiss, they will go on to Princeton for this week-end, where Miss Isabel will attend a prom. Upon their return they will go to the Lake Shore Drive hotel where the family plans to spend the winter.

Mrs. E. T. Bush of Glencoe has rented her house and is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur B. Olsen of Evanston.

Miss Margaret Boyden of 725 Pine street, Winnetka, is in the east with Mrs. Clyde Carr to attend opening of Mrs. Coolidge's music festival in the new Museum hall of the Congressional library at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John W. Dickson of Glencoe will sing a group of songs before the Music Study club of Chicago, Sunday afternoon, November 8, and also a group of French songs on November 14, before Le Cenacle, the French Reading club of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruess of 568 Hill terrace, Winnetka, announce the marriage of Mrs. Ruess' sister, Miss Beatrix Jordan to George W. Price of Philadelphia. Mr. Price and his bride are on their way to Europe, and after March 1, they will reside in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holmes, formerly residents of Glencoe for many years, have lately returned to their home on the corner of Grove street and Hazel avenue, after an absence of about six years.

Invitations have been received in Kenilworth for the marriage of Ann Bowles Calloway of Wilmette to George Harold Stephens of Hubbard Woods, on Saturday evening, November 7, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Wilmette Baptist church.

Mrs. John W. Gary of Hubbard Woods is spending a few days in New York City.

Mrs. Lyman Proctor, 860 Spruce street, left Thursday for Alanson, Mich., to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith of Wilmette at their summer home for a brief visit before they close it for the winter. The party will motor home the early part of next week.

Miss Lucile Tatham of Kenilworth and Miss Dorothy Campbell and Miss Virginia Thompson of Wilmette have been pledged Kappa Kappa Gamma at Northwestern.

Armistice Day 1925

Tribute to America's world-war dead in solemn ceremonies will mark Armistice Day — November 11 — throughout the land. Upper: Flowers the perfect tribute; center: Sec'y of War Davis, President Coolidge and Sec'y of Navy Webber at grave of unknown soldier at Arlington, W. Va. cemetery. Lower: Guard at flower-bank crypt of War-President Wilson at St. Albans Cathedral, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beadnell, who have been living at 830 Lake avenue, Wilmette, have departed for an indefinite stay in California and Arizona.

Miss Maxine Lichtenstein of Highland Park is staying with Mrs. Roy Osgood of 423 Essex road, Kenilworth, while her parents are in Europe. She is attending the Country Day school.

Delightful, as well as unique, was the dinner party Miss Elizabeth Hannah gave Friday evening at her home, for two prospective brides and their fiancés, Miss Ann Calloway and George Harold Stevens, and Miss Dorothy Weimer and James Prentiss, Jr., whose weddings will be events of the autumn and early winter.

Thirty young people sat down to dinner, every one prepared for an amusing evening, as the invitations made the guests feel that a rare treat was in store for them. The invitations were unique, for there came through the mail to each invited guest, a paper pie plate with the invitation written on one side in the form of a funny jingle.

It was a "hard times party," and the dinner was served in a large room in the basement of the Hannah residence. After dinner, instead of bridge, toys and games were produced at each table, and all the young people entered into the fun of the games with zest, enjoying the change from the more conventional type of entertainment.

Mr. Frank Compton, Jr., of Glencoe has gone to Mobile, Ala., to work on his father's pecan farm. He will be away until the holidays.

Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of "Craigie Lea", Glencoe, is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacLeish, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. W. A. Tucker of Wilmette is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. C. Belman, at Prairie, Mich.

Miss Mildred Joekel who has been living at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Edwin J. Thompson of 1067 Oak street, Winnetka, will leave the first of the week for her home in Lake Mills, Wis., where she will be married on Thanksgiving day to Harold Fischer of Lake Mills. Miss Joekel has been employed in the office of the superintendent of building and grounds of Northwestern university.

Mrs. Leslie McArthur, 200 Oxford road, Kenilworth, and Mrs. Ralph Starr entertained at luncheon and bridge at the North Shore Golf club Friday.

Mrs. Randolph Buck, has recently returned to Winnetka from a month's trip. She spent about half the time with her daughter in Connecticut and the remainder of the time motoring and visiting in the historic part of Virginia.

Miss Charlotte Eckhart of Kenilworth and Miss Marcella Vennema of Winnetka were two of the eight girls who made "Sigma" at Chicago university this fall.

Mrs. Sidney Eastman, 350 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, entertained at luncheon Thursday at Glenview Golf club for Mrs. Culbertson and her cousin, Mrs. Mengies, who leave for Pasadena Tuesday. On Saturday at 12 o'clock, Mrs. Sidney Eastman entertained at a breakfast for Mrs. d'Aix.

Mrs. Jacques Willis of Wilmette is back from a two-months visit in Portland, Ore. She was accompanied by her two children, Robert and Jacqueline, and her mother, Mrs. Alma Williams.

Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth, well known in the concert field, has won new honors, though this time in the realm of poetry. Her poem, "To a Sea Gull" recently was accorded favorable comment in the Palm Beach Post. Mrs. Rathbone is the wife of the Congressman-at-Large from this district.

SCRUBS WITH GAS; FIREMEN ARE CALLED

Winnetka Has Blaze from Unusual Cause; Three Other Alarms in Past Week

Winnetka firemen were called out on three alarms during the past week, none of which resulted in very serious fires. A blaze was started in the garage at the Robert L. Greenlee home, 555 Sheridan road, Tuesday morning when Christian Roske, the chauffeur, attempted to wash the floor with gasoline. He was burned about the face and arms while trying vainly to extinguish the blaze, but his injuries were said not to be serious. The damage was slight.

Tuesday afternoon a delivery truck belonging to Rapp Brothers caught fire at Church road and Forest avenue. The cause was an overheated exhaust pipe, the firemen said. The fire was extinguished with small loss. Louis J. Kohnweiler, 416 Maple avenue, called the fire department to his home late Wednesday night when he returned to find the house full of steam. The cause was an overheated hot water plant but no damage resulted.

Mrs. Nathaniel H. Blatchford, Jr., of 844 Auburn street, Glencoe, with her father, Frederick K. Copeland of 665 Prospect avenue, is spending two weeks in New York and Boston.

Mrs. Dorothy W. Macauley, who has spent the past year traveling in Italy, France, Switzerland and England, has returned home, and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Cordts of 521 Tenth street, Wilmette. Mrs. Macauley is president of the North Shore Musical society.

Annual November sale of dresses, coats and hats.
Dresses $25 to $40; coats $47.50 to $150; and hats $8 to $15.

We are also closing out a line of silk and Jersey petticoats. All sizes $3 and $5. The Wincanton Shop, 160 Hazel avenue, Highland Park. 36

NAME COMMITTEE TO PICK NEW OFFICERS

FOR ARDEN SHORE ASS'N.

List Will Be Submitted for the Approval of Directors on Nov. 20, and Luncheon Will Be Feature

The complete nominating committee for the coming election of officers of the Arden Shore association has been announced by Mrs. J. J. Suddall, president of the association. Mrs. August C. Magnus, who sometime ago was selected as chairman of the committee, will have associated with her Mrs. William Hammond Hay and Mrs. Charles T. Mordock.

These women, all of whom live in Winnetka, will present their selections to the meeting of the board of directors to be held in the tearoom at Carson Pirie Scott's at 10 o'clock on Friday, November 20. Following the meeting will be a luncheon, which will be over early enough for the board members and their guests to attend the regular Friday afternoon concert of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

Business Session
Business to come before the meeting will be the arrangement of a budget for next year's program at Arden Shore, where hundreds of poor mothers and their children are given an outing near Lake Bluff every summer since the camp came into existence some twenty-five years ago. Nearly $40,000 is expended in this work every year, and this entire amount is secured through popular subscriptions which are encouraged by a drive for funds every year.

Representatives of the Evanston, Wilmette, Winnetka, Glencoe, Highland Park, Lake Forest, Lake Bluff and Barrington, north shore towns, will be at the meeting of the board on November 20 to pledge the support of their local organizations.

WINNETKA LEGION TO HAVE ARMISTICE FEED

Plan to Turn Out In Force for Annual Dinner Saturday, November 7

Members of the Winnetka post of the American Legion will turn out in force Saturday evening, November 7, for the annual Armistice dinner and installation of officers. The affair is to be held at Wheeling this year and a glorious time is promised all who attend.

The officers for the coming year, who were recently elected and are to be installed at the dinner are as follows: Edward R. Lewis, post commander; Robert A. Bryant, first vice-commander; Arthur C. F. Gedge, second vice-commander; A. L. McNamara, adjutant; Robert Hoffer, second adjutant; Edwin Hale, finance officer; Eugene Greco, sergeant-at-arms; Marius D. Richard, service officer; Frederick O. Mason, historian.

At this time all past commanders of the post will receive badges commemorating their service. Those who will receive these badges are R. W. Hardenburgh, Jacob M. Dickinson, Jr., Harold W. Snell and Irving Odell. Thomas J. Lynch, who has just ended two years as commander of the post, received his badge last year.

WAUKEGAN CHIEF OF POLICE FOUND GUILTY

He and Another Alleged Conspirator Fined on Charge of Obtaining Money

Julius V. Bals, Waukegan chief of police, was found guilty last week on a charge of conspiracy to defraud. The complaint, made by several merchants, was that Bals and Benjamin Barrett, a promoter, had conspired to obtain money fraudulently from business men.

More than $6,000 was collected, it is alleged, and the pension fund received only $750.

Bals was fined $500. Barrett, also found guilty, was fined $2,000 and sentenced to 135 days in jail. A motion for a new trial will be argued a week from today.

GARDEN CLUB HARVEST HOME DINNER IS HELD

Members of the Evanston Garden club were guests at a harvest home dinner on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Thomas H. Eddy, 1558 Ridge avenue. Mrs. Eddy, who is president of the garden club, was assisted in the role of hostess by Mrs. Asariah H. Eddy. Edward Benwick, husband of one of the members of the club, presented a number of autochrome slides of some well-known and beautiful gardens.