

The Progressive club of the Wilmet school held their regular meeting at the school Wednesday evening instead of in the afternoon on account of the club going to Northbrook where they were the guests of the Maple school club.

Mrs. J. J. Lancaster of Libertyville spent the week-end with her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Steffis.

The ninth annual roll call of the American Red Cross starts Wednesday, November 11, and continues until Thanksgiving. There are twenty-five energetic workers in Deerfield, who are expecting to put the drive over 100%. President Wilson approved the peace time program for the Red Cross, whereby Disabled veterans and their families are cared for. Disaster relief is administered instantly. Instruction in first aid, life saving and home nursing is given to men, women and children. School children are taught by service to acquire habits of intelligent, sympathetic and loyal citizenship. The Red Cross acts officially with the government in contacting the families of men in the peace time army and navy.

The Deerfield Grammar School Parent-Teacher association program committee has planned the following interesting program for Friday of this week in celebration of National Book Week in National Education Week. "Books from the view point of a librarian," Mrs. Frank Russo. "Nature Study Books," Mrs. W. W. Clark, (from a mother's view point); "Books for Girls," Mrs. A. R. Warner; "How to get the Boy to Read," Mrs. Paul L. Hunter. Miss Stella Woods' pupils will dramatize the Thanksgiving Story. Mrs. Newcomb will have lists of books suitable for children of various ages.

District 19 P. T. A., which includes all of Lake county, and all of Cook county outside of Chicago, will hold a regional conference in Memorial Hall, Roosevelt school, Thursday, November 19, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Every association in this vicinity is requested to send a delegate with report of work accomplished, also to receive inspiration.

The Camp Fire Girls, who were unable to go on their hike Saturday, met at the home of Mrs. G. H. Newcomb, assistant guardian. They discussed plans for a fancy work sale to be held soon, sang some of their songs, played games and had a candy pulling contest. The group will be in charge of Mrs. Newcomb until the return of their guardian, Mrs. Strong.

The Garden club of Deerfield will meet Wednesday, Nov. 18 at the home of Mrs. C. E. Piper, at which time the annual election of officers will take place. Every member is urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs and daughter of Grand Rapids, Mich., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haskins and three daughters of Wilmette were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woodman Todd, Sunday.

Miss Lulu Plagge of Chicago was the guest of Mrs. Floyd Stanger, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Vant are in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neal of North Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer last week.

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the Deerfield Evangelical Bungalow church, Tuesday, Nov. 17 at 2 o'clock. There will be interesting reports and important business for consideration. Come and get better acquainted with the great work of the organization. All members are urged to be present. Everybody invited.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Susie Easton, daughter of Albert Easton of Deerfield, to Frederick L. Protine of Chicago, Friday, November 6. Mr. and Mrs. Protine are making their home in Elmhurst, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bolin of North Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds had as their guests the C. W. Holmes family of Waukegan.

Mrs. Silveri and Mrs. Oscar Benz spent Wednesday in Chicago.

Mr. Richard Easton has returned from Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Benz of Highland Park spent Sunday with Mrs. Benz's mother, Mrs. Cooks.

Deerfield Presbyterian Church
 Mark J. Andrews, Minister
 Sunday, November 15:
 Church school and Adult class at 9:30. Morning service at 10:45; sermon appropriate to the celebration of the Father and Son Week. Fathers bring your sons and sons bring your fathers and worship together. No evening service. This congregation will unite with the congregation of the St. Paul's church in the celebration of their jubilee on Sunday afternoon and evening.

Church night service on Wednesday evening at 7:45.
 The Dorcas society will meet for an all day meeting on Thursday. Remember the bazaar which has been set for Friday, December 4. The Junior choir will practice on Thursday afternoon.

Cottage meeting at Everett on Thursday evening with Mrs. Connolly.

Receipts and disbursements of the Deerfield Carnival, September 26, 1925.

Receipts
Sale of tickets on Nash	$2,533.50
Sale of tickets on radio	308.05
Received for donations	210.00
Received from concessions	1,407.20
Total receipts	$4,458.75
Disbursements
Paid Nash	$1,271.25
Paid Sure & Co	187.55
Paid radio	137.50
Paid orchestra	106.00
Paid band	25.00
Paid hams and bacon	309.94
Miscellaneous	508.14
Total	$2,545.38
Total receipts	$4,458.75
Less disbursements	2,545.38
Net balance of	$1,913.37

Respectfully submitted,
 Paul M. Dietz,
 Treasurer.

Deerfield Grammar School.
 Tuesday, Nov. 10, was Junior Red Cross Day. Practically every pupil in the Deerfield Grammar school is enrolled. Each pupil enrolling received the "I Serve" pin, and each room will receive the monthly magazine. A total of $18.19 was collected.

Thrift Results

1st grade	80.2%
1 & 2A grade	100%
2nd grade	100%
3rd grade	75%
4th grade	73%
5th grade	55%
6th grade	64.7%
7th grade	58%
8th grade	100%

The 8th grade continues to set the pace; they retain the "Thrift Penant." The total deposits of the children has reached the $250 mark.

Next Sunday afternoon and evening we are uniting with the Lutheran church to celebrate their 50th anniversary. Next Sunday morning

Rev. Williams will speak on "Pentecost." This is the third of his series of sermons on "The Holy Spirit."

We are looking forward to a union Thanksgiving service in Deerfield. Let everyone keep this in mind. The time and place will be announced later. On Wednesday evening, Nov. 11, the Boy Scouts of Deerfield came to the Bungalow church in a body and joined in a brief memorial service of Armistice Day.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church
 Rev. F. Piepenbrok
 9:45—Sunday school
 10:30, 2:30 & 7:30 o'clock—Church services

There will be a change in the time of the Sunday school. It will begin at 9:45 instead of at the usual time.

St. Paul's Evangelical church will observe its fiftieth anniversary in three services, Sunday, November 15. Morning service at 1:30 a. m. will begin with a Sunday school rally. The children and young people will march from the Sunday school room to the altar platform and sing the song, "Brightly Gleams our Banner."

Rev. Paul H. Vieth, director of Research and Service of the International Council of Religious Education, will address the Sunday school and congregation. Rev. Armin Bizer, pastor of the St. Peter's Evangelical church of Northbrook, will preach the anniversary sermon. The choir of the Northbrook Evangelical church and the Beginners and Primary children of the St. Paul's Evangelical church will furnish the special music.

The afternoon services will begin at 2:30. Rev. Paul H. Vieth will deliver the anniversary address. Rev. Williams of the Evangelical Bungalow church of Deerfield and Rev. Munsterman of the St. John's Evangelical church of Evanston will give short addresses.

Special music for the afternoon service will be furnished by the St. John's Evangelical vested choir.

In the evening the service will begin at 7:30. Rev. Robert Stanger of Grace Evangelical church, Chicago, will give the anniversary sermon. Rev. Andrews of the Deerfield Presbyterian church and Rev. F. Piepenbrok will give short addresses.

Special music will be furnished by Miss Barbara Huehl and Mr. Ewald Winter, soloists.

In connection with all three services a special Jubilee offering will be taken. These offerings should be an expression of gratitude to God for the many blessings He has bestowed.

A cordial invitation is extended to the fellow churches of Deerfield and community to celebrate with us.

Out of town guests attending the services will be dinner and supper guests at the homes of the church members.

stove at her home in New Orleans, La., Wednesday, Nov. 4. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from Irving Park chapel and Mrs. Snyder was buried in the interment at Northfield cemetery. Northfield and was well known by the early settlers of this vicinity. She had many friends and relatives in Deerfield. Mrs. Snyder is survived by her husband, David G. Snyder, two children, Jesse H. Leroy and Mrs. Maud C. Hollingsworth.

Mrs. G. Kester (Mayme Wessling) of Grand Junction, Iowa is visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Stanger.

Misses Marie and Florence Gloden are visiting their uncle, John Gloden of Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Margaret Hansen and Mrs. R. E. Pettis attended a teacher's institute on Monday, Nov. 9, at the Evanston Woman's club, for divisions one, two and three of Cook county.

Mrs. Walter Metcalf and Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., attended a lecture at the Evanston Woman's club last Tuesday, on Antioch college at Yellow Springs, O., which was established in 1858 by Horace Mann and has been in continuous operation ever since, except for two years during the Civil War when it had a 100 per cent enlistment. Every man volunteered as a soldier and every girl as a nurse. The students now attend five weeks and work for the same period.

George Rockenbach, Jr., son of Almon Rockenbach of Milwaukee ave., was kicked by a horse Thursday and had both bones in his arm knocked out of joint.

Mrs. E. J. Knickerbocker had as her guest last week, Mrs. Ralph Knickerbocker of Chicago.

Mrs. Andrew Savage and son left Monday to join her husband in Excellence, Wis.

Robert Colby has been ill this past week.

Miss Lillian Carlson of Chicago was the week-end guest of Miss Margaret Kress.

Misses Clara and Eva Ender, Mrs. Catherine Ender and Mrs. Eugene

Ender attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hanselman of Chicago, Thursday.

Miss Margaret Kress was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Schoesling of Chicago, Friday.

The Johnson boys are forced to discontinue the delivery of the Sunday papers on account of the muddy roads.

Misses Dorothy and Elizabeth Rafferty of Highland Park entertained at a hard times party at the home of their sister, Mrs. John Beckley, Jr., last Tuesday instead of Mr. and Mrs. Beckley as was announced last week.

Dr. C. J. Davis was called to Chillicothe, Ohio, Friday on account of the death of his father-in-law, Mr. John Aid, who died Thursday and was buried Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Soefker announce the birth of a son at the Highland Park hospital, Friday, Nov. 6.

The Boy Scouts of Deerfield attended a vesper service at the Highland Park Presbyterian church, Sunday afternoon, in celebration of Armistice Day.

Stanley Anderson is having his confectionery store remodeled and will open a drug store and hire a registered pharmacist. A new soda fountain is being installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gunckel of Galesburg spent Sunday with Mrs. Gunckel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Love.

Willard Sokup underwent an operation for appendicitis Tuesday at the Norwegian hospital in Chicago.

Mrs. A. W. Knaak and children, Christy and Alvin, Jr., were the dinner guests of Mrs. Knaak's mother, Mrs. E. McMahon of Rogers Park, Thursday.

The Eastern Star of Deerfield had a special meeting at the Temple, Thursday evening, Worthy Matrons' night. Many Worthy Matrons of neighboring towns were guests of the Deerfield Worthy Matron, Mrs. George Engstrom.

Misses Evelyn Schell, Ethel Titus, Stella Woods and Mrs. Wood had their visiting days during the past weeks and visited lake shore schools. A teacher's meeting was held at the school Monday afternoon. "Play-ground supervision" and "Formalities of Education" were the topics discussed by Principal Otto.

The faculty of the Deerfield-Shields high school have extended an invitation to the faculty of the Deerfield grammar school to tea next Monday afternoon.

The Junior Red Cross roll call will open in the school Wednesday, Nov. 11 and every child is working to have his (or her) room 100%.

Miss May Graves, librarian at the Chicago University was the week-end guest of Miss Loretta Heman.

Mrs. Martha Osterman of Chicago was the guest of Mrs. E. H. Willman, Monday.

Miss Eva Ender, Mesdames Alex Willman, E. B. Jordan, G. H. Newcomb, Harry Olendorf and Denerline attended a Red Cross tea at the Casino club given by Mrs. George A. McKinlock and Miss Muriel McCormick, Monday afternoon.

Miss Evelyn Schell attended the Illinois-Chicago football game at Urbana, Saturday.

Miss Jennie Nygard spent the week-end with friends in Chicago.

The Young Matrons' Bridge club will be entertained by Mrs. Herman Goldberg of Highland Park next Tuesday afternoon.

Charlotte Gastfield and Robert Bleimehl, both of the 8th grade, have returned to school after a few weeks of absence because of illness.

Athletic Club Formed

The boys in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades have formed an athletic club. The fees are ten cents for the 6th grade; ten cents for the 7th grade; and twenty cents for the 8th grade.

One purpose of the club is to help any boy who might accidentally break a window; the boy would pay $1, and the club the remainder of the amount.

The main treasurer is Mr. Otto. The class treasurer for the 6th grade is Russell Batt; for the 7th grade is Jesse Merrille; and for the 8th grade is Harold Seiler. The candidates for secretary are John Derby and John Garrity. The candidates for president are Arthur Kress and Ellsworth Stryker.

The club will buy volley balls and other things for amusement.

Parent-Teacher meeting will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At this meeting the pupils of the 6th grade will dramatize the "Thanksgiving Story."

A table has been provided for the 8th grade room which is being used as a Reading Table. The following publications are now available to the pupils: Pathfinder, Literary Digest, St. Nicholas, Compton's Pictured Newspaper, Collier's and the Youth's Companion.

The lower grades are using the following magazines in their work: Junior Home Magazine; Little Folks and Child Life.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Deerfield Grammar School Teachers was held Monday at 2:30 p. m. Regular school business was disposed of after which the teachers enjoyed reports from those members of the faculty who have recently spent a day in visiting other schools. The reports were very interesting.

The entertainment given by the Young People's Department of the Presbyterian church, under the direction of Mrs. William Tennerman, last Friday evening drew a capacity audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the little comedy, "All the World Loves a Lover," the cast of which included Louise Kersten as the preceptress, "Miss Peabody" in the boarding school; Bud Scully who gained entrance to the school in feminine garments, in order to meet his sweetheart, impersonated by Verda Varner. Other school girls were Vivian Haggie, Clarice Juhrend, Ruth Patterson, Evelyn Hoffman, Alice Ulfers and Rosetta Taylor. Preceding the play two piano solos were played by Wallace Reichelt, "Russian Dance," by Engelman and "Valse" by Brahm's. Russell Patterson's cornet solo was "Polka Myrtle" by H.

(Continued on page 11)

Copyright 1923 Hart Schaffner & Marx

FREE

A Turkey

will be given FREE with every Suit or Overcoat purchased here between Friday, Nov. 20, and Thursday, Nov. 26

These Clothes are the Famous Brand
Hart Schaffner & Marx

The Coats are All Wool, in Varied, Plaids and Styles.

SUITS
 2 Pair Pants
$25 to $50

OVERCOATS
 Hart Schaffner & Marx $35.00 to $60.00
 Michaels-Stearn's Coat $25.00 to $40.00

Specials for Thanksgiving

Wilson Brothers
 Silk and Wool
 Mufflers
 $1.50 to $4.00

Suede Jackets
 Tan and Gray
 $12.50 to $15.00

Wilson Brothers
 Silk and Wool Sox
 75c and $1.00

A high-grade tailor has been placed in charge of the tailor shop for the convenience of our trade and for all cleaning and pressing work

Telephone H. P. 307
S. FELL 13 S. St. Johns Ave.