

WOMEN and TINKERERS

are, but we belong to the class. Our work is professional, not experimental, and stand back of everything that turns out. We do not ask you for any article which is up to our high standard.

FRY G. WINTER
North First Street
Phone 635

Business for girl

to be gained from the ability in the adventiveness to some boy in by authorities about it today.

by Philip W. Winter. Illustrated by Philip Schuyler. $1.75

Johanna Spri, by Philip Schuyler. Illustrated by Wright Enright. A book for girls. 2nd edition - $1.75

by Robert Louis Milo Winter in Junior Library - $1.25

Boy Stories. Carefully selected vir- will appeal to all. Illustrated by J. John. Junior Li- on - $1.25

PERSON

ING RESULTS

Gifts

Call

of ber

ods

rel-

It

ore

ASS

ood

en Away

THE story of this gloriously beautiful and gifted woman runs like living fire through the most vivid, most dramatic, most soul stirring story of modern American life that ever appeared in any American newspaper. This startling story begins Sunday, December 20, in the Chicago Herald and Examiner and will continue every week day thereafter until its dramatic conclusion.

“Hearts Aflame”