 the Shepherd Psalm: "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." May we be given the leadership that the green pastures and the living waters may refresh and strengthen for whatever the New Year may bring forth.

 The Deerfield boy scouts extend their thanks and appreciation to all

PLAN NEW TRAFFIC RULES AT WILMETTE

Committee Recommends Several Changes Which are Planned to Relieve Jam

Wilmette's parking problem, which has been a source of trouble to village authorities for some time, is to be solved by a new traffic ordinance. A general revision of the traffic regulations and parking rules in the village has been recommended by Clarence E. Drayer, chairman of the public service committee in his annual report.

Mr. Drayer recommended that Village Attorney Jackson be authorized to draw up the new ordinance, which would incorporate the suggestions made in his report.

Solution of the parking problem through the widening of the streets of the village was discouraged by Mr.
 Drayer, who declared the cost would not only prohibit the work but that it would also mar the beauty of the village. Instead, he recommended that the wide parkways be paved at different locations, which would only sacrifice little.

Mr. Drayer's report in part is as follows:

"The assertion is occasionally heard in Wilmette that the pavements of all our resident streets must be widened to provide parking space. Not only would such widening cost a prohibitive sum of money and result in patchwork appearance, but much of the beauty of Wilmette would be forever destroyed by cutting down our trees. If parking space must be provided between street lines, let it be between the curb and the walk, at the sacrifice of grass only and at a very low cost.

"Revision of the building code ordinance might be made so that in granting building permits for the future consideration be given parking, where such permits are for public and other buildings where large numbers congregate. The overflow of parking in all directions means the appropriation of the rights of others and should be curbed."

PLAN MACHINE GUN
 SQUAD ON N. SHORE

Wilmette and Winnetka to Have Troop In Sixty-Fifth Cavalry Division

Organization of a Machine Gun Squadron comprising troops in Evanston, Wilmette and Winnetka, has been announced at headquarters of the 65th sioned officers and enlisted personnel.

 Division headquarters are maintained at 405-409 W. Van Buren street, Chicago.

The 159th Cavalry Brigade Machine Gun Squadron, has been "allocated" for mobilization and procurement of men to fill its ranks from the north shore district, comprising Evanston, Wilmette and Winnetka. Squadron ston; Troop "B" at Wilmette; and Troop "C" at Winnetka. The Machine Gun Squadron consists of 21 officers, 371 enlisted men, 562 animals, and 18 heavy machine guns. It is a unit of the 159 Brigade of the 65th Cavalry division allocated to Chicago and vicinity.

Maj. Charles A. Ellis, a resident of Wilmette, has been assigned to command this machine gun squadron.
 Captain Ellis served several years in

WINNETKA FIREMEN'S MASQUERADE JAN. 16

Will Be Held Saturday Night In Community House, As In Former Years

Chief G. M. Houren of the Winnetka Fire department last week announced the date of the annual Firemen's Masquerade dance as Saturday evening, January 16, beginning at 8 o'clock. As usual, prizes for the best costumes will be given, although the exact number of prizes has not yet been decided upon.

The music this year will be furnished by the Night Owls, an eight-piece orchestra composed mostly of New Trier high school students. This organization has been playing together for the past several months and is said to play a particularly excellent quality of dance music.

The event will be held at the Community House as in former years.
