"WELCOME STRANGER" DRAWS FULL HOUSES

Extra Matinee Given New Years of Popular Success; "Seven Chances" Next.

The world-famous comedy "Welcome Stranger," which broke box office records for a season in both New York and Chicago, is playing to crowded and enthusiastic audiences at the Majestic theatre in Waukegan this week. The play is one of the most charming entertainments ever staged; and the majestic cast, with Oscar O'Shea in the role of Isidor Solomon, is giving the play a rich interpretation.

"Seven Chances" Coming

Starting with Sunday's matinee, the management of the theatre feel that they have an offering which is bound to please the many steady patrons of the theatre and any one else who is addicted to good plays. David Belasco is renowned for his judgment and knowledge in choosing plays that please. "Seven Chances," one of his popular New York successes, is a typical Belasco comedy, crowded with laughs and comical situation.

To accommodate their patrons, the Majestic is staging a special matinee of "Welcome Stranger" at 2:30 in the afternoon of New Year's day.

H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS NEXT TUESDAY

Educational Committee is in Charge; Mr. Crane, Miss Goddard, Mr. Smith to Speak

The program of the Highland Park Woman's club Tuesday, January 5, will be in charge of the educational committee.

All members of the Parent-Teacher associations of Highland Park, whether members of the Woman's club or not, are urged to attend this meeting, as a matter of utmost importance to our schools will be brought before the club on this afternoon.

Mr. Crane, city architect, will speak upon "The Future Highland Park," giving vital information upon the estimated development of our city.

Miss Goddard, physical director of Lincoln school, will follow with a talk on directed play, emphasizing the need of adequate provision for playground sites in our growing city.

Mr. Jesse L. Smith, well known principal of Elm Place, always alert wherever school or civic problems are involved, will conclude the program.

As the subject of the afternoon is of keen interest to our schools, both now and in the future, the band of the Ravinia school and the Deerfield-Shields Glee club have been asked to take part in the program.

CLASS IN CONTEMPORARY LITERATURE SUCCESSFUL

Attendance Ranges From 20 to 30; Will Reopen Monday Evening, Jan. 4

The class in Contemporary Literature which has been conducted in connection with the night school at Deerfield-Shields high school has been very successful thus far in enlisting the interest of its members. The attendance at the class has ranged from twenty to thirty.

Up to the present time the subjects discussed have been those which had to do with the fundamentals of criticism, such as realism, romanticism, the dramatic types, etc. A more detailed consideration of certain romantic writers, among them Cabell, Farnol, Davis, and Sabatini, followed.

During the remainder of the course it is expected that the realists will be considered, and that there will be discussions of some of the more important trends in non-fiction. The discussions are supplemented by readings of plays and stories.

New enrollments will be welcomed at the next meeting of the class which will take place in the library of the high school, Monday evening, January 4, at 7:30.

DRAMA WORKSHOP TO BE OPENED JAN. 8

Under Auspices of Ravinia Civic Club; To Study and Experiment

The arts committee of the Woman's Civic Club of Ravinia, will open their drama workshop on the evening of January 8, at the Village House. Interesting speakers are assured, including Mrs. Edwin F. Pierce, president of the Town and Gown Playshop and formerly president of the Drama Club of Evanston. Mrs. Pierce is very much interested in the Ravinia players and believes they have an exceptional opportunity to do worth-while work. The meeting will wind up with a dancing party in honor of the directors and members of the casts of the plays recently given.

The object of the workshop is to give an opportunity to study the drama and the theatre in the most interesting and practical manner, mainly through experimental work.

Registration blanks should be mailed to the registrar, Mrs. John R. Warrington, by those desiring to join.

HANS HESS TO GIVE PROGRAM IN RAVINIA

Ravinia Civic Club Announces Program for February Meeting

Few musicians have done more to elevate and aid the cause of musical art in this country than has Hans Hess, the violoncellist, who is to play a concert here on a date to be announced early in February, under the auspices of the Arts Committee of the Ravinia Civic Club.

Here is a man who carries his ideals into practice and that he has pursued the right course is shown in the ever-increasing popularity of his instrument as a recital medium.

This prominent cellist is more than fortunate for he is possessed of youth in years coupled with age in experience. He is blessed with imagination and ambition which have placed him among the foremost cellists of this generation.

LOCAL SINGER MAKES HIT ON RADIO WORK

Pietro Marehi, local warbler of high-class music, is winning name and fame in the radio studios. Recently he sang at the Coliseum during the radio show, and now he is at it regularly, appearing at WGES on Tuesdays, and Saturdays at KYW on the classical program. Pietro sings equally well all of the classic operas, including such as Pagliacci, La Tosca, La Boheme, Aida, and many others according to his publicity agent.
