First Presbyterian Church
Mark J. Andrews, pastor
Jan. 17, 1926—
Church school at 9:30.
Adult class at 10.
Morning service at 10:45.
Vesper service at 5 in the afternoon.

Week-night service every Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.
The pastor is organizing a communion class preparatory to admittance to communion and church membership in spring. All young people are invited to attend this class and are urged to be present at every session of the class. The class was organized on Wednesday evening, Jan. 13.

In Glasgow a humble woman told her pastor how much she had profited by the service the previous Sunday. Naturally gratified, he enquired the reason. "What was it in my sermon that helped you?" "Oh, nothing," she said, with usual Scotch frankness in text of sermon. But it was like when I hang out a line o' claes; the sun shines on them and they are bleached. I dinna understand the process, but weel I ken the effect. That's the way I felt comin' oot o' the kirk last Sunday."

Come to church next Sunday.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church
F. G. Piepenbrok, pastor
Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.
Service at 10:30 a. m.
Service Sunday, January 17, will be conducted in the English language. You are cordially invited to attend this service. Our services are happy, hopeful and helpful. Come. In proportion to the seating capacity of the church the attendance at our services have been very good, but in proportion to the membership of the church and the community there is room for increase. If it is your intention to come to church next Sunday, please invite someone to come with you. Make it a partnership affair.

In connection with the service Sunday the new officers of the congregation will be installed.
Since the first Sunday of the new year our Sunday school has undergone a complete reorganization. The graded index prevails throughout; our Beginners and Primaries meet apart from other groups. We are prepared to take any child, age 4 to 8 inclusive, into that department. All children above 8 years will go into the Juniors, Intermediate or Young Peoples department. If your child has not been attending any Sunday school we invite you to send it next Sunday or some Sunday in the near future. We especially invite the young men and the young ladies to join our young peoples department in Sunday school.

The J. O. Y. class of the Sunday school will give a supper at the Deerfield temple on the evening of January 29. If you come hungry, they guarantee satisfaction. In view of your loyal support at our church suppers in the past we are counting on you for the 29th.
