GET STIFF FINES FOR DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Chicago Men Taken From Car Here Are Culprits; Other Police Court Items

Two men who gave the names of Walter Bierndt and A. L. Heiser, both from Chicago, were taken from a southbound limited by the police here, on request of North Shore line railway officials last Thursday night. They were charged with disorderly conduct on the car. In Justice of the Peace Smith's court Bierndt was fined $100 and costs, and Heiser, whose action was reported most aggravated, got a fine of $200 and costs. Both paid and left town.

A Nash roadster stolen from John Witten Nov. 1, 1925, was located in Chicago last week, abandoned by the police of the Des Plaines street station. It had been stripped of accessories.

The police report that a girl's Kanger bicycle, brown and white in color, was picked up about a week ago and is awaiting the owner at headquarters.

TAKES CHECKS FROM RELIABLE LAUNDRY

Burglar Gets Four Friday Night and Cashes One for $37.00; Discards Others

Friday evening between 5:30 and 8 o'clock a burglar entered the office of the Reliable Laundry on Green Bay road, and stole four checks which had been made out. Less than a dollar in change also was taken. One of the checks, in favor of Geo. Wick, was cashed later in the evening in Tony Lencloni's store by a stranger, who ordered several quarts of ice cream and gave the check in payment, receiving the change out of $37, the face of the check. He told a plausible story and it was not questioned, as the check was known to be good. The stranger signed the name of George Wick in endorsing the check. Two of the checks evidently were thrown away by the man, as they were found on the street. The police have a description of the man, but so far no trace of him has been obtained.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT SUNDAY EVENING CLUB

NEW TRIER CAGERS TAKE BOTH GAMES

Defeat Deerfield Teams Here on Tuesday, Lights, 23 to 14; Heavies, 23 to 6

New Trier basketball teams, leaders of the Suburban league, maintained their reputations Tuesday afternoon on the Deerfield-Shields floor by taking both games from the local cagers. The score of the lightweight game was, New Trier 23, Deerfield 14, and that of the heavyweight game, New Trier 23, Deerfield 6. The New Trier cagers are exceptionally fast and outplayed the locals, who, however, put up a stiff defensive game and have no reason to be ashamed of the defeats.
