Dorcas Society
The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church has recently planned to assign the member of this society, the church members and prospective members to circles that will meet in their own neighborhoods.

Circle No. 1 includes those living north of Deerfield avenue and east of Waukegan road. The leader of this circle is Mrs. Ed. Sell and her assistant, Mrs. W. Todd.

Circle No. 2 includes those living north of Deerfield avenue and west of Waukegan road. The leader of this circle is Mrs. C. W. Boyle, and her assistant is Miss Sadie Galloway.

Circle No. 3 for those south of Osterman avenue and east of Grand avenue. Leader, Mrs. E. B. Jordan and assistant, Mrs. C. Fredlund.

Circle No. 4 includes the territory south of Deerfield avenue, north of Osterman avenue and west of Waukegan road. Leader, Mrs. B. B. Patterson, assistant, Mrs. W. Kreh.

The purpose of these circles is to enable all the members to help with the Dorcas work, and to get new people better acquainted and help the Dorcas society financially by holding one affair for making money during the year.

The leader of each circle will report progress once a month at the regular business meeting of the Dorcas society. Each circle will have monthly meetings.

Circle No. 4 will have its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Schinleber on Chestnut street Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 24, at two o'clock. Mrs. Schinleber and Mrs. J. Strong will be hostesses.

Circle No. Three will have its first meeting at the home of Mrs. E. B. Jordan on Waukegan road Friday afternoon, Feb. 26, at two o'clock.

Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. Edward Selig Monday evening. Plans were discussed for the work of the coming summer.

Local Items
Mrs. Oscar Benz and Mrs. Cooksey spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Benz' aunt, Mrs. William Tronjo of Chicago.

Mr. Alvin Knaak Sr., is confined to his home with quinsy sore throat and Alvin Jr., is ill with pneumonia.

Miss Rose Seiffert has accepted a temporary position in Ravina.

Mrs. Cooksey was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Benz of Highland Park.

Dr. Herman J. Gastfield is taking a course in small animal practice and other studies which will help him in his veterinary work.

MR. SANDWICK WILL ATTEND CONVENTION
Going to N. E. A. Meeting at Washington Week of Feb. 20; Other Sessions

Principal R. L. Sandwick of Deerfield-Shields will attend the superintendent's meeting of the National Education association in Washington, D. C., during the week which begins February 20.

"Re-organization of Our Administrative Units" is to be the chief subject of discussion. This is the same topic on which Mr. Sandwick worked as chairman of a committee of the Illinois State Teachers association. Junior high schools will also receive attention.

Two other associations of which Mr. Sandwick is a member are to meet at the same time. These are the National Society for the Study of Education and the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Mr. Sandwick plans to arrive in Washington in time to participate in the pilgrimage to Arlington where a wreath will be placed on the tomb of the unknown soldier followed by a vesper service in Memorial Continental Hall.
