Martha Washington Tea

The Martha Washington Tea given by the teachers of the Presbyterian church school for the benefit of the new chair fund on Monday afternoon was the most delightful church social affair of the winter.

The invitations, in rhyme, were accompanied by gay little miniature aprons, into the tiny pockets of which was put money to match the waist-line measure in inches of the recipients. About forty dollars was collected in the red, white and blue bunting pocket on a screen which held the gifts. Colonial maids in costume served refreshments. Those assisting were Mrs. Koebelin, Mrs. Chester Wolf, Misses Louise Huhn and Viola Rockenbach, Mrs. Friedlund and Mrs. John Peters, Mrs. Ed. Easton, Mrs. Clarence Huhn, Ethel Kreh and Lois Clark.

A program, which included several patriotic numbers, was presented as follows:

Piano solo — "Twin Butterflies." Mrs. C. W. Getty.
America—audience.
Reading—Ruth Patterson.
Soprano solo—Mrs. Frank Peterson.
Piano duet—Ethelbert Nevin's "In a Country Garden." Mesdames Engstrom and Newcomb.

Vocal solo—Mrs. Friedlund.
Reading—Mrs. Harvey Smith.
Soprano solo—Kipling's "Recession." Mrs. Mark Andrews, Rev. Mr. Andrews at the piano.
Reading—Mrs. Smith.
The Star-Spangled Banner—audience.

Patriotic colors were used in the decorations and in the refreshments. Many guests were present from other churches to enjoy the "home talent" program which frequently attracts the largest audiences.

Band Concert

The applause and delight of the two hundred school children and adults were very good evidence of the appreciation of the band concert, which was given by the Park Kostner Boys' band under the direction of Mr. Crittenden in the Masonic temple on Monday noon, Washington's birthday.

In addition to the musical selections an added feature of the program was the duet and quartet numbers given by members of the band. The Park Kostner band is composed of 35 talented young men who enjoy giving service programs. They frequently visit the tuberculosis hospital and Elgin asylum and many other places and wherever they are able to bring a bit of cheer.

On this particular day they had three other engagements scheduled: the Railroad Men's home in Highland Park, the Great Lakes hospital and in Kenosha.

The holiday program in Deerfield was through the courtesy of Rev. Ray Williams, pastor of the Bungalow church, who is a personal friend of Mr. Crittenden.

Following the program, a luncheon was served to the boys by the ladies of the Bungalow church. Another opportunity to hear this band will be given as the boys have accepted an invitation to Deerfield at another date.

Deerfield School Notes

Home Garden Seed Project.
On Friday of this week the oldest pupil of every family represented in the Deerfield grammar school will be given a box of seeds containing 20 small 5c packets. These are to be taken home for the parents to purchase, either wholly or in whatever part they may be interested in. It is hoped that the support will be general. The object of this project is to interest the boys and girls in home gardens. Previous to the distribution the children will be instructed in the general culture of the common garden plants and to recognize and care for the common garden flowers. Aside from the primary purpose of arousing interest, the school will receive a small financial reward which will be used in supplying the various rooms with equipment. It is recommended that all parents supply each child of the family with seeds and a plot of ground and let them grow their own gardens. I heartily agree with Mrs. C. Cadwallader, who said, "The very foundation of our civilization is work first, then they can play afterwards. Children need to work in the garden, out in the sun. It puts 'pep' in them and gives them health and happiness."

C. R. Otto.

Garden Club

The regular meeting of the Garden club was held on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 17, at the home of its president, Mrs. James Hood, instead of Mrs. W. B. Metcalf's, as previously announced. The business of interest for the day was the report of the program committee by its chairman, Mrs. George Truitt. The programs are both attractive and cleverly planned, and it was agreed that each member should pay a nominal price for her program.

The president then read a letter she had received from Mr. Otto, principal of the Deerfield school, seeking the co-operation of the Garden club in a project to encourage an interest in gardening among the school children. The club agreed to lend its support by buying seeds from the school children and offering a special prize for school children exhibiting at its annual flower show. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Jesse Sthong, whose paper on color in the garden was both interesting and helpful.

Tea was served by the gracious hostess. The next meeting of the club will be held March 17 at the home of Mrs. Carl A. Stadler.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church

F. G. Piepenbrok, pastor.
Sunday school—8:15 a. m.
English service—10:15 a. m.
German service—11:00 a. m.
Lenten service—7:30 p. m.
Adult confirmation class, Friday, 8:00 p. m.

Do you know that the combined attendance at the morning and evening service last Sunday at St. Paul's Evangelical church was near the 200 mark? Here's hoping that the churches of Deerfield in the near future will not afford enough seating room for all who desire to worship at divine service.

Sunday we will have three services, an English and a German service, in the morning, and our second Lenten service in the evening. Surely everyone who attended the first Lenten service does not want to miss the second and every service thereafter. Come again Sunday and invite your friends to come.

The songs by the choir were very much enjoyed. They will sing again in the near future. The special music for Sunday's Lenten service will consist of a tenor solo by Mr. Ewald Winter, a mixed quartet and a duet by Ewald Winter and F. G. Piepenbrok.

We were glad to welcome some newcomers in Sunday school last Sunday. Here's hoping that you enjoyed being in our midst and that you will come again. Only a few more and our goal has been reached.

Thirteen responded at the first adult confirmation class meeting. Since then three others have promised to join the class. If there are any others that did not have the opportunity in former years to be informed as to the teachings and principles of the Christian church, they may still join this lecture course Friday evening. Remember, no memorization required; you listen to the lecture and then a general discussion follows. Don't miss this splendid opportunity.

The Ladies' Aid will hold its monthly business and social meeting next week Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Labahn on Central avenue. Mrs. Christ Koebelin will entertain.

Deerfield Evangelical Bungalow Church

R. M. Williams, pastor.
Sunday school—9:45 a. m.
Morning worship—11:00 a. m.
Christian Endeavor—7:00 p. m.
Evening service—8:00 p. m.
We will resume the same hours for rehearsals as usual.

On Monday the Kostner Park Boys' band under the direction of Mr. Crittenden gave a fine program in the Masonic hall. All of the school was present and thoroughly enjoyed the music. After their concert they were served lunch in the church, and from there went to the Railroad Men's home at Highland Park, and rendered a program for the benefit of those at the home. We surely appreciated the boys and are looking forward to their return to Deerfield.

On Wednesday evening, Rev. Williams will open a Bible study class on Galatians. This will be given in connection with our usual prayer service. Plan to get in on the beginning of this and enjoy it all.

On Thursday evening the men of the Bible class are entertaining their men friends at a stag dinner. Oh, how we wish we were all men for that night.

On next Sunday evening the orchestra will have charge of the service. A mixed program will be given as follows:

- Congregational singing.
- Selection, orchestra.
- Scripture and prayer.
- Selection, orchestra.
- Vocal solo, Mrs. T. G. Johnson.
- Sermonette, Rev. R. M. Williams.
- Violin solo, Geo. Beckman.
- Announcements and Offering.
- Selection, orchestra.
- Congregational singing.
- Benediction.

On Tuesday, March 2nd, the W. M. S. will hold their monthly business session. We are hoping for every member out. You be there.
