The demands of the individual adolescent as outlined by Dr. F. E. Williams, medical director of the national committee for mental hygiene, were reported by Mrs. H. A. Sallery, of Ravinia at the April meeting of the Deerfield-Shields High School Parent-Teacher Association.

Dr. Williams deplored the fact that parenthood was the only profession where training was not required. Any ex-service man who needs help please consult the post adjutant, Clarence Huhn, Springfield avenue, phone Deerfield 284-R, or post commander Stanley Anderson, phone Deerfield 228, East Deerfield avenue.

Parents should be on the side lines, observing, encouraging and guiding. Understanding the problems of their children is necessary, not contempt. Confidence is needed in what the child is trying to do, and differences may be then met by the parent and child.

The demands of the adolescent is opportunity to become an adult, and is expressed by his not wanting advice, less demonstration of affection, the need of money, bizarre clothing, and these are all healthy signs, not always wise. Parents may be even alarmed when they have none of these signs. Much wrong and so-called depravity is the lack of understanding by the parents.

The biological and psychological law is not settled by the legal age. A large proportion of adults are not adults, which is shown by the social restlessness, broken homes, are due in a large proportion to the fact that adults are really not adults.

The adolescent must learn to stand on their own feet with no dependence on the parents. When parents see this they are fearful and anxious and begin to demand love for the sacrifices they have made. The mother displays anger and tears, while the father losing control of a situation demands respect, both are equally ridiculous.

The whole thought is not trying to do away with home and license, but trying to conserve the home by understanding on the side of the parent, with the development of the child to an adult.

A normal adult has a great interest in the opposite sex which is developed during the years of adolescence and is emancipated emotionally from the home dominance of parents. The article in Harper's last October on "Parents Who Haven't Grown Up" is very interesting along the lines of this discussion.

There will be no more misunderstood children, and no misfits in occupations, when the institute for juvenile research can extend its work to include all schools. Miss Ethel Kavin staged a most dramatic return to her former audience when she spoke to the parents and teachers in the English club room last Thursday afternoon to a large audience in spite of the fact that two other important meetings were held in Highland Park that afternoon.

With a most attractive personality and a charming manner and speaking voice, Miss Kavin's interesting subject of the research work in the La Salle, Peru township high school, with typical type cases, held the attention of her audience, which asked for more types at the close of her address.

Intelligent, constructive, preventive work with a wide group, in a clinic survey in mental hygiene, resulted in the prevention of dependency and delinquency by solving individual problems. This test in Oglesby county was backed by the board of education of the high school, the chamber of commerce, physicians, the woman's club, and the Parent-Teacher association. It was financed for two years by an enthusiastic citizen of LaSalle. The students made a plea for its continuance in a spontaneous vote by the student body. The students consider their own vocational adjustment. Three tests are given: clerical, mechanical and musical. The children are selected in a manner so that no child is conscious of being a problem. Star athletes, honor students, and the best adjusted, are all examined in a complete personality test, that takes three hours for each student.

The nominating committee, of which Mrs. George Chapman of Ravinia, is chairman presented the following ticket for election in May:

President, Mrs. M. Eisenstaedt of Highland Park.
Vice-President, Mrs. Thomas R. Wiles of Highland Park.
Secretary Mrs. Orrin E. Keller of Ravinia.
Treasurer, Mrs. C. T. Gunn of Lake Forest.

Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb was re-elected for the third time as trustee of the Wilmot school district 110 at the annual election held Saturday afternoon, April 10. Mrs. Whitcomb received thirty-five of the fifty-nine votes cast and James Mailfold twenty-two.

Deerfield Grammar School P. T. A.

Mr. Jesse L. Smith of Highland Park in his usual pleasing manner, held the attention of his large audience when he gave a delightful illustrated talk on birds and flowers of this locality at the April meeting of the Deerfield grammar school P. T. A., which was held in the Bungalow church Friday evening.

The robin, bluebird, chick-a-dee, phoebe and other early spring birds, with their interesting nest building, feeding and caring for their young and many other characteristics of the different birds were clearly explained and beautifully illustrated by Mr. Smith.

The early spring wild flowers, some of which appear before the snow is gone, fittingly combined with the bird discussion.

The pictures of the flowers were so real one could fairly smell their fragrance and one expected the birds to fly and sing, so natural did they appear.

Mr. Smith deplored the coming of so many subdivisions destroying the primitive beauty of the countryside, landscaped by Mother Nature.

The nominating committee of which Mrs. Guy H. Newcomb was chairman, presented the following candidates for election as officers for the ensuing year, and who were unanimously elected: President, Mrs. H. Cazell; vice-president, Mrs. William Gallo-way; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Merner; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Koebelin.

Thirty attractive bird houses, built by the children of the school were on display. Prizes were awarded for the best.

Best houses and Edward Cazell received first prize; Robert Jordan second, Donald Clark third and Harold Seiler fourth.

Grace Varner won first girls' prize and Doris Hunter second.

The orchestra of the Bungalow church opened the program with a selection.

There will be a meeting of the committee for the entertainment of high and grade school teachers in the office of the principal of the Deerfield grammar school on Thursday afternoon.

The Deerfield village board held its regular meeting in the Masonic Temple last Monday evening. The following resolution was offered and passed.

Resolved: That the village board of Deerfield declare a clean-up week, May 1st to 8th, inclusive. That this be thoroughly advertised and posted throughout the village. The Men's club and the chamber of commerce are also asked to assist this movement.

That the Boy Scouts be awarded prizes for the best crews that are successful in accomplishing this clean up job through the assistance of the teams which are to co-operate with them.

It is further resolved that the Boy Scouts be given charge of this clean up week and they are to police and superintend the work in four crews, the northwest crew, the northeast, southeast and southwest crews. The best crew will receive a prize of $10; second $5; third $3.

All business men and residents are to accumulate in piles for quick removal all rubbish, ashes and refuse matter that it may be quickly taken from the property and disposed of. A motion was made and carried to cover the members of the Deerfield volunteer fire department with accident and compensation insurance.

After a discussion of pavements and petitions relative to the paving of Waukegan road and Deerfield avenue in the business districts the meeting adjourned.

W. C. T. U. Meeting
The W. C. T. U. will hold its monthly meeting in the Bungalow church Tuesday, April 20, at two o'clock.

All missionary societies of all the churches are invited to meet with the W. C. T. U. and hear a special message at this time.

Mrs. C. P. Tibbets of Lake Forest, state superintendent of temperance and missions, will address the meeting on the work of that department. Light refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. All members are urged to attend and visitors will always find a welcome. Everybody come.

Women intending to attend W. C. T. U. day at the Women's World's Fair, Chicago, please get in touch with Mrs. Carter by Monday, April 19th.

FINANCIAL REPORT ON H. S. BASKETBALL

Balance Shown as Result of Season; Swimming Events Leave Deficit

In a report, submitted by Mr. Taylor, chairman of the Athletic board, for the basketball and swimming seasons which have just closed, it was shown that $146.99 was cleared in basketball, while in swimming there was a deficit of $102.11.

The home basketball games which attracted the largest crowds were the Austin and New Trier games, drawing $151.75 and $142 respectively. The U. High game, which was the lowest in attendance drew only $72. The only receipts in swimming were from the Oak Park and Harrison meets, $17.00 being taken in altogether.

The disbursements in basketball were for new basketballs, suits, score books, a stop watch, officials, the Highland Park Press, letters, Illinois Bell Telephone company, Earl W. Gsell, team expenses on trips, and the entry fee for the District Basketball tournament at Evanston.

Swimming disbursements, which amounted to $114.11, included team expenses on trips, the Highland Park Press, and officials for several meets.

H. S. STUDENTS IN SCHOLARSHIP TEST

In National Competition Sponsored By Phi Beta Kappas; Eight Try Out

To win a cup for Deerfield by obtaining the highest average in the comprehensive examinations of any team entered is the object of the eight boys from the school who are competing for a team of seven to enter a national scholarship contest, sponsored by the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity of Harvard, with other high schools, academies, and private preparatory graduates.

The eight boys contending for the team are Vincent Erb, George Benson, Jack Benson, Cecil Platt, Celso Gentilini, Thales Lenington, Richard Branigan, and William Cassidy. It is not certain that Cecil Platt will compete.

To be on the team a student must be eligible for Harvard, but he does not need to desire to go there. As a matter of fact, only one or two of the team plan to go to Harvard. One intends to go to Princeton and another to Massachusetts Institute of Technology after a year of post graduation work at Deerfield.

Each person on the team will take four comprehensive examinations. The results of the contest will be based on the average grades of the teams entered.
