Everybody should be familiar by this time that from April 25 to May 2 is children's week. The kind of Deerfield and community we will have 25 years from now will largely depend upon our present effort in the moral and religious training of our present generation. Everyone should appreciate the church's interest in this great project by coming out to the special Sunday services and mid-week meetings arranged for the furtherance of the cause of religious education.
 The men who have been invited to address the audience on this vital and all-important work, in the interest of our boys and girls, are some of the best in the field. I think we should appreciate the fact that men like Dr. Buswell, president of Wheaton college, Dr. Rafferty, member of the International Council of Religious Education and editor of the Journal of Religious Education, and Dr. Thompson, associate pastor of the First Methodist church of Evanston, have consented to come to Deerfield. Do these men justice and attend every meeting.
 Following is the program for children's week:
 Sunday morning the resident pastors will speak in their respective churches.
 Sunday evening, April 25, at eight o'clock union services at the Bungalow church. Speaker, Dr. Buswell.
 Tuesday evening, April 27, union meeting for teachers and officers of the Deerfield Sunday Schools at the Presbyterian church.
 Thursday, April 29, 8:00 p. m., union meeting of parents and teachers at the Presbyterian church. The speaker will be Dr. Rafferty.
 Sunday, May 2, 8 p. m., union services at the St. Paul's Evangelical church. Speaker, Dr. Thompson.
 The concert Sunday evening was a great success. A large and appreciative audience greeted the singers and players with hearty applause before and after each number. We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the public for the generous support given, and especially do we wish to thank the artists for the service they rendered.

PROGRAM AT ST. PAUL'S
 The remembrance of shy, tow-headed, self-conscious, smiling boy soprano who willingly appeared at all church and school affairs to the delight of his audiences, was supplanted last Sunday evening, when Ewald Winter, tenor, gave his first concert in the St. Paul's Evangelical church. With perfect poise and self-possession, in immaculate evening clothes, a fair-haired Valentino greeted his audience with smiling appreciation of their sincere applause. His voice shows the careful training that it has received since he has been a pupil of Mr. Marx Oster, of whose opera club, Mr. Winter is a member.
 Those assisting on the program were: Barbara Huehl, soprano; Victor DeLinde, violinist, and Elva Smolk Sprague, pianist.
 The program follows:

DEERFIELD LEGION NOTES
 Deerfield Post, No. 738, American Legion, held its regular meeting at the town hall Monday evening, April 19. A good turn out showed quite a bit of pep. Many items of interest were discussed.
 The total sum realized from the war film show has not yet been compiled. The Deerfield Post at this time wishes to express a hearty vote of thanks for the patronage extended and the splendid support, and to express their thanks to the film operators, Ted Frost and William Haggie, the Melody Boys and the boy scouts who helped the show to its success, and last but not least the post officers thank the members for their loyal support. The Saturday matinee was well attended and the children sure enjoyed the Charleston contest.
 The post plans memorial exercises on Sunday May 30 and 31st. The patriotic service Sunday will be held at one of the local churches. On Monday a parade will be formed consisting of war veterans dating from the Civil War to the present, assisted by boy scouts, school children, who will make the decorative wreaths for the soldiers' graves.
 Church organizations will be asked to join the forces and lend their aid. Since the formation of the national order of the American Legion, the work of taking care of veterans' graves has been done by the local Legion posts and which also take the lead in the patriotic services.
 It is hoped that the churches and organizations that have possibly taken care of this work will understand the Legion post's position, having been so ordered to perform that work by the national headquarters.
 Uniforms are requested to be worn by post members if they still retain the same.
 Further announcements regarding the plans will be made later.
