ATTENTION GOLFERS! COMMUNITY CLUB OPEN Sunset Valley Golf Club Greens In Perfect Condition; Invite Players

The Sunset Valley Golf club is now open for play with the regular greens in excellent condition for this time of the year. Although the weather has been anything but agreeable, Saturday and Sunday found quite a number of golfers out on the links braving the cold winter blasts chasing the little white sphere.

For the benefit of the golfers who are planning on improving their game, Mr. Kelly is offering a special course of lessons, which he will be glad to tell you about. Now is the time to think of getting rid of last summer's slice, hook, or pull or whatever is keeping you in the duffers class. The shop is now equipped in an up-to-date manner with a club-maker to take care of your needs.

For the benefit of the members who have no club handicap and are desirous of competing in the events this summer, the handicap committee requests that every member turn in their first three scores. Co-operation on this matter will be greatly appreciated.
