W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE HELD LAST TUESDAY

The Deerfield and Highland Park unions of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union were hostesses to the other units of the county at the institute held on Tuesday in the Presbyterian parish house.

The morning program began at ten o'clock and was followed by a delicious luncheon served by the two local units at twelve o'clock. Speakers from the different parts of the county told something of the work in their departments both at the morning session and at the afternoon session. Mrs. J. G. Fidler gave a reading at the afternoon program, entitled "Unawares" and a ladies quartette from Highland Park sang.

RAVANIA COMMISSION TO ELECT OFFICERS

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Ravania Commission is to be held Thursday, May 29, 1926, at the Village House in Ravania. The following have been placed in nomination for directors: Mason G. Armstrong, Dr. H. E. Barackman, Edwin C. Jones, C. W. Meeker, W. R. Saul, and John S. Van Berges.

CLEAR ABOUT $200 AT PERFORMANCE FRIDAY

"The Mikado" Presented for Second Time Is Success; Is Given Here

The gay and sprightly performance of "The Mikado" given last Friday evening at Elm Place auditorium owed no small part of its success to the chorus of good Highland Park voices requisitioned practically at the last moment. The rest of the cast had presented the opera two weeks before at Ravania and their performance at that time had been hailed as a distinct success. A few in the audience then, from the more northerly parts of our community had been so entertained that they urged a repetition of that popular piece, at a more central place. These and Mr. Jesse Smith generously planned to give the Ravania cast the chance of last Friday's presentation at so little expense that the venture netted about two hundred dollars. This was turned over to a fund for building a new auditorium in Ravania.

The Highland Park friends, who so ably helped in the spirited choruses were: Mesdames Alexander, Baum, Barrett, Rigdon, Garnett, Hinn, and Stagg; also Lois Larson, Catherine Mueller, George Davis and Allen Porter.

GIVE MOTHERS' DAY PROGRAM SATURDAY

"The Friendly Road" was the theme of the committee and also acted as given at Trinity Episcopal church parish house on Saturday evening, May 8, at six o'clock by the Girls Reserve committee of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Carl Pfantstiel was chairman of the committee and also acted as toastmistress. Mrs. W. A. Alexander gave the welcome to the mothers and daughters.

"Roads that we travel together" was a talk given after dinner by Miss Wilson, dean of girls at Deerfield.

A pageant was given by the Girls' Reserve club entitled the "Spirit of Motherhood."

EXHIBIT PICTURES AT ELM PLACE SCHOOL

A special exhibit of paintings by Frank V. Dudley, the "painter of the dunes," is being held this week and until May 18 in the Hall of Pictures at the Elm Place Intermediate school. The exhibit is open each day, Sunday included from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. This exhibit which is free is open to the public and during the past few days has been attracting many local residents.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. Dudley assisted by his wife gave a delightful entertainment entitled "Art in Painting and Song." Mr. Dudley composed and finished a landscape while discussing the problems involved. Mrs. Dudley delightfully sang several songs.

HIGHWOOD CHILD STRUCK BY TRUCK

Bobbie Hanson, aged 5 years, grandson of Mrs. Bertha Hanson of Highwood, was injured Friday when struck by a truck in Waukegan avenue. David Finkelstein of Waukegan, driver of the truck, took the boy to the Highland Park hospital where his injuries, consisting of a few cuts and bruises, were attended. The accident happened, according to Chief of Police Frame of Highwood, when the child ran out from behind another car into the path of the truck. Finkelstein gave voluntary bond pending the outcome of the boy's injuries. The lad is now practically recovered from the effects, according to report from Highwood.

PLAY TUESDAY EVE AT OAK TERRACE

Next Tuesday evening, May 18, is the date of the play, "Scenes in the Union Station," which the eighth grade of the Oak Terrace school will present.

The forty or more students who are taking part are working hard to make this play, which is quite an undertaking for grammar school students, the best the graduating classes of the school have ever presented.

The situations are humorous and call forth enough laughs to make the evening most enjoyable.

The proceeds will be used to purchase some necessary equipment for the school, as each preceding class has done.

RAVANIA CIVIC CLUB TO EXHIBIT PICTURES

The Arts committee of the Ravania Civic club will hold an exhibition of pictures by the artists of Highland Park and Ravania, and of Arts and Crafts and Heirlooms from the homes of Ravania, Saturday and Sunday afternoon, May 15 and 16 at the Village House. Sunday afternoon the social committee and the arts committee will receive their friends in the exhibition room from 3 to 6 p. m.

LEGION AUXILIARY BUSY WITH MEETINGS

The American Legion Auxiliary will go on Saturday, May 15, to the United States Veterans hospital at North Chicago for the dedication of the building. The ladies completed the furnishings for their room at the hospital last Friday at the home of Mrs. Henry E. Mason. The attractive window drapes and pillows which they made will make the room very pleasant.

On Wednesday, May 19, at the Lake Forest headquarters the Eighth District meeting will be held. Mrs. C. M. Dargan, department president of Illinois, will be present. The Lake Forest unit will act as hostesses on that day.

The fourth Friday of each month the local unit has planned as a social time. So, on Friday, May 23, the meeting, which will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles Benson, 831 Lincoln avenue, will be a card party. Members are asked to try to fill a table. If they are unable to do this, they are urged to buy at least one ticket, for places will be furnished for all players.

The three meetings noted above are all important and will be very interesting. Members are urged to attend and to bring with them any one who is eligible for membership.

H. S. STUDENT HONORS AT COMMENCEMENT

Speakers Chosen for Program and Medals to Be Given at That Time

George Benson is to be valedictorian and Jack Benson salutatorian of the class of 1926 of Deerfield-Shields high school.

Jack Benson, George Benson, Allan Edgarton, George Gabbert, Marian Rosenstein, Louise Kendall, and Myra Thomas are the seven seniors whose essays have been chosen to be read in the commencement program at which there will be only student speakers.

Three medals and one cup are to be given to members of the graduating class at the commencement exercises in June.

The cup, known as the speaker's cup, but officially the Lloyd Metzel Memorial cup given by the class of 1914, is only given when there is an exceptionally good speaker in the graduating class and was not given to anyone in last year's class.

The medals to be given are the Medal of Honor and the American Legion Scholarship and the American Legion Athletic medals. The Medal of Honor has been presented to a senior annually since 1907, but this is the first year that the American Legion medals have been given.

These medals, known as the American Legion Scholarship and the American Legion Athletic medals, are presented by the Dumaresq Spencer post No. 135 of the American Legion.

The medals are of gold with the raised figures suggestive of scholarship and athletic achievement. An American Legion emblem on one side of the upper one-half of each medal identifies the donor.

Wouldn't Captain Kidd have fun with all these rum fleets sailing the Spanish Main?
