NORTH SHORE NEWS

Miss Margaret Hadley and J. Anthony Humphreys were united in marriage at the Congregational church at 3 o'clock, Saturday, May 1. Rev. James Austin Richards read the service, and Raymond Allyn Smith, at the organ, played the wedding march.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, spring flowers and large bouquets of white flowers. Miss Emily Hadley, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and R. N. Tredwell of Joliet served Mr. Humphreys as best man. The ushers were Frank Bailey and Edgar Dale of Winnetka, and Allin Hugh Pierce of Wilmette. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hadley, 918 Oak street, Winnetka.

The out-of-town guests were Dr. W. F. Bohn, assistant to the president of Oberlin college, Oberlin, Ohio; Prof. and Mrs. Harold Humphreys of the University of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Emmons S. Coe, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayes, of Evanston; Mrs. Margaret Sturgeon and Mrs. Harold Halverson of Champaign, Ill.; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Winters and Miss Harriet E. Winters, Miss Pauline McKeegan and Paul Donald Snow of Chicago, and Mrs. Harold Cleveland of Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys are spending their honeymoon in the east, and will be at home at 722 Elm street, Winnetka, after June 1.

Mrs. John Kiewick, Jr., 834 Oak street, Winnetka, announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Ada Marie Happ, to Raymond J. Borre, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Borre of Rogers Park, formerly of Evanston. The wedding took place at Sacred Heart church, Hubbard Woods, on May 1. The young couple will be at their home in Rogers Park after May 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilder, who arrived in New York Monday from a three months' trip in southern Europe, will go directly to their Lake Forest home upon their return here.

Mrs. Andrew MacLeish entertained at her home, Craigie Lea, Glencoe, on the afternoon of May 3, the equipment committee, comprising members of the governing board of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, interested in completing the furnishing of Harrison hall.

Mrs. MacLeish was a member of one of the first Mothers' classes conducted by Elizabeth Harrison, founder of the college, and was recently elected a member of the board of trustees. After a visit to the rock garden and a stroll through the grounds, the committee came to order for the consideration of the urgent need of equipping the auditorium with the 800 opera chairs required before any public meeting can be held in the college. Mrs. MacLeish and the committee hope to present this need to all friends of the college within the next few weeks in order that the chairs may be in place for the commencement festivities early in June.

The north shore is represented on the committee by the following members: Mrs. Robert Stoddard, Wilmette; Mrs. Harry H. Barnum, Mrs. P. W. Bradstreet, Mrs. Towner K. Webster, Jr., Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, Mrs. Douglas Smith, and Mrs. Merritt Starr, Winnetka; Mrs. William Sutherland and Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, Glencoe.

Mrs. Richard Timberlake of Winona, Minn., announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Laird, to Henry Wallace Dunmore of 415 Maple avenue, Winnetka, Monday, May 3, in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Dunmore have gone east on their honeymoon, and will be at home after June 1, at Wisdom square, Winona, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bentley McCloud, 316 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, have bought the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shattuck, 338 Kenilworth avenue, and expect to occupy their new abode June 1. The Shattucks will go to the Orrington hotel, Evanston.

The marriage of Miss Louise Steiner, daughter of Bernard Steiner, 716 Prairie avenue, Wilmette, and Eugene Schubert of the Winnetka police force was solemnized at 9 o'clock, Wednesday morning, May 12, in St. Joseph's church at Lake and Ridge avenues. Miss Irene Steiner attended her sister as bridesmaid, and Mr. Bishop of Winnetka was the best man.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon there was a small reception at the Lake Shore terrace. The young couple are going to South Bend, Ind.

Hobart C. Chatfield-Taylor and his son, Otis Chatfield-Taylor, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chatfield-Taylor in Lake Forest.

The senior Mr. Taylor will be joined by Mrs. Taylor the middle of June, according to present plans. Otis Chatfield-Taylor plans to locate in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rathbone of Pasadena spent a few days in Kenilworth last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Rathbone, 523 Abbottsford road. They were on their way home from a trip around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Miller of 453 Adams avenue are leaving their home in Glencoe to be absent until October at least. After spending two or three weeks at the Orrington hotel, they will go to Buffalo for the remainder of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Weld of Chicago will occupy their residence.

Mrs. Eloise Whitney Wortley of Winnetka announces the engagement of her daughter, Katherine Whitney, to Charles Francis Pearce, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pearce of 748 Greenwood avenue. The wedding will take place in early June.

Werner Drewes, the German artist, gave a private exhibition of his etchings at the home of Mrs. C. W. Washburne, 505 Provident avenue, Winnetka, last Saturday evening. Mr. Drewes, accompanied by his wife, is painting his way on a five year trip around the world and has already visited Spain, Italy and South America. From here, he and his wife expect to go to the Yellowstone and California and finally to India and Japan before returning to Germany.

Among the 40 guests present were Gita Gradvos, the prominent north shore and Chicago pianist, who played a few selections, and her teacher Madame Herz.

Mrs. R. C. McNamara, 627 Ridge avenue, Winnetka, is having as her guest for a few days, Mrs. Edwin F. Walker (formerly of Evanston) who is enroute from a trip abroad to her home in Pasadena.

Miss Grace McGann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. McGann, who recently returned to their Lake Forest home from abroad, is to be one of the season's debutantes.

Thursday, Dec. 23, one of the coveted Christmas week dates, has been decided upon for this lovely daughter of that old Chicago family, the Farwells, her mother having been Miss Grace Farwell, a sister of the late Rose Chatfield-Taylor.

Miss Jeanette Cherry, 422 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, spent the last week-end in Madison, Ill., visiting her college friends.

A group of 16 friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz, 187 Ridge avenue, Winnetka, on their twenty-first wedding anniversary last Tuesday when they came in for dinner which they had prepared and brought with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster of 566 Maple avenue, Winnetka, are sailing on the Olympic for Cherbourg. They are planning to join their daughter, Miss Rachel Foster, in Paris, and will spend the summer abroad, visiting Spain and the Pyrenees, and other portions of France.
