OPERA STARS PREPARE FOR RAVINIA OPENING

Children's Concerts Thursday Afternoons Promise Interesting Features

If all the personal visits could be followed up and all the telephone calls made by the members of the Ravinia club of the Ravinia Opera company could be broadcasted an amazing activity would be revealed, for the North Shore towns are fairly humming with the annual campaign of the club members.

At the weekly meeting of the chairman held at the Moraine hotel last Thursday the majority of the reports showed that the work is quite well in advance of that of a year ago, and that enthusiasm is waxing apace.

Although the opening concert is a month away, the singers are making their preparations for starting to Ravinia and some of them have arranged for homes not far from the park during the season.

Giovanni Martinelli who is to be one of the Ravinia stars this summer, is here for the North Shore Festival where he will sing this evening. After his Evanston engagement he will immediately dash off for Italy where he has a lovely villa, a charming wife and several children, the youngest little Giovanni being just a tiny infant. After a brief visit he will return to Ravinia.

Lucrezia Bori who has been in Paris will sing in Baden Baden before coming to this country. Elizabeth Rethberg, Luella Melius, Florence Macbeth and Alice Gentle are now in this country and will arrive soon to take up their summer domicile. Mario Chamlee is in Milan, Edward Johnson is taking a brief rest before engaging in his summer work, Giuseppe Danise is motoring from New York, Gennaro Papi is in Havana, Mario Basiola is near by, Armando Agnini is already at work as stage director getting things in shape for the opening and Louis Hasselmanns will arrive soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Gordon and their infant son will arrive in Highland Park June 25 and will be at 337 Central avenue.

Others of the musicians, directors, as well as the stars and chorus will soon be assembling from various points of the compass and there will be a glorious opening of the season on Saturday evening, June 26.

One of the interesting features of the season's entertainment is that of the Thursday afternoon children's concerts. The first of these will be given on Thursday afternoon, July 1, when the program will be furnished by Miss Grace Hickox of Chicago with her group of children, who will present "Alice in Wonderland" set to music or "Mother Goose" rhymes.

Not only the fortune favored children who attend the concerts regularly with mothers or chaperones, but also the children of the Chicago settlements are present at these affairs and for the latter there are also hearty wholesome lunches, furnished at noon by the members of the Ravinia club.

It is promised that there will be no mosquitos at Ravinia this summer and good roads leading to the park are assured.

PLEASING PLAY AT WAUKEGAN THEATRE

Best described as a play of "gowns and giggles" next week's production "The Fashion Girl" at the Majestic theatre, Waukegan, is going to prove the most pleasing theatrical surprise of the whole season. Tommy Martelle, America's leading portrayer of feminine types, is the bright particular star of the play. Advance notices say it is the very best vehicle he has had for the exploitation of his inimitable talent. Martelle sings several exclusive song numbers which will be whistled and sung the whole town over, especially "An Old Fashion Girl in a New Fashion Gown." What will please the ladies especially is the display of sartorial gems. Mr. Martelle will wear during the play, more than $10,000 worth of gowns, laces, millinery and lingerie.

MRS. ROBERT SELLERY PASSES AWAY SATURDAY

Mother of H. A. Sellery of Ravinia. Dies in Evanston; Funeral Held Tuesday

Mrs. Robert Sellery of Evanston, mother of Mr. Harry A. Sellery of Ravinia passed away Saturday at her home in Evanston. She had celebrated her eightieth birthday only two days before when a dinner was given at her son's home in Ravinia. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock at the First Methodist church, Evanston, with burial in Memorial Park cemetery. She was the mother of Dean George C. Sellery of the faculty of letters and sciences at the University of Wisconsin, of Professor Benson Sellery of the Northwestern university dental school, of Dr. A. C. Sellery of Long Beach, Calif., of Harry A. Sellery of Ravinia and Roy A. Sellery of Chicago. She is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. T. Cooper, Clinton, Vt., and Mrs. Frank Sinclair of Saltsburg, Pa., three sisters and 17 grand children.
