BEGIN OPERATIONS ON N. U. STADIUM

TO BE READY IN AUTUMN

Expected That at Least 25,000 Seats Will Be Available For Opening Game In Fall

Ground has been broken in an informal way for Northwestern university's new stadium to be located on Northwestern Field bordering on Central street, Evanston. J. B. French and Company have been awarded the contract and the first work really began April 7, when various pieces of machinery were transported to the Evanston field by the contractors. French and Company have received other contracts from Northwestern university during the last few years. They are now building the Levy Mary Hall of Law and Elbert H. Gary Law Library on the McKinlock campus in Chicago and recently completed the construction of two new fraternity buildings in Evanston.

It is agreed that seating space for 25,000 for the opening game with South Dakota on October 2 will be available and that when the first conference home game with Indiana opens two weeks from that date the seating space will accommodate 45,000. Formal dedication of the new field is planned for the game against Chicago on November 13. This will be the first football game in years played by Stagg's Maroons against the Puffins on the latter's field.

Formal corner-stone laying probably will take place on Alumni day, June 12, but details remain to be perfected. President Walter Dill Scott, with the announcement of the letting of the first section of the great concrete plant will be completed the first year. That means that there will be two complete decks and a heated, inclosed press stand on the west side of the plant and one deck on the east side of the stadium.

Ready Next Fall The former is to be designed to welcome students, alumni and the other "home folks" of Northwestern while the east side is planned for the friends and backers of the visiting team. The various rooms and special facilities for teams, coaches, faculty members and practicing students probably will be finished by next fall, as they will form an integral part of the new plant.

WALKER WHITESIDE IN "THE ARABIAN"

Modern Comedy-Romance Began Engagement Sunday at Studebaker Theatre

Walker Whiteside began a limited engagement at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, on Sunday night, May 9, in Goggin Kean's stunning story of the Egyptian desert entitled "The Arabian." This famous actor will portray the fascinating character of Abd el Rey, a businesslike bandit, whose attacks upon trade caravans cause the London War office to send an armed expedition into the desert to kill or capture him. Many exciting adventures ensue, Cairo being the scene of Abd el Rey's plot to entrap the British regiment in the waste of sand far to the south. The scene shifts to the bandit's gorgeous home in the desert. The soldiers are halted while Abd el Rey carries on negotiations with Colonel Gordon, who is in command of the regiment. After many thrilling scenes a treaty of peace is signed after which the troops are released and sent back to Cairo. A heart-throbbing love story runs through the plot of "The Arabian." Miss Sydney Shields will be seen in the dashing character of Diane, an English girl from London who follows her soldier-sweetheart into the wilds of the desert where she shares his dangers with him, and eventually saves the lives of the officers and men in a scene of supreme sacrifice. Mr. Whiteside has surrounded himself with a cast of general excellence and in prominent roles will be found such celebrities as Harold Vosburgh, Douglas Penman, J. Irving White, Paul McGrath, Miss Don Donald, Miss Alma Chester and Miss Genevieve Bertolacci.

W. F. AHRENS PASSES AWAY LAST SUNDAY

Well Known Citizen and Long-time Resident Dies; Funeral Wednesday

W. F. Ahrens, a resident of Highland Park for many years, passed away on Sunday, May 23, after a long illness. The funeral services were held Wednesday May 26, from his late home, 631 Homewood avenue, and interment was in St. Peter's cemetery, at Northbrook. The many floral pieces which were sent to the residence expressed the deep sympathy of his numerous relatives and friends. The bereaved wife, children and brother and sister mourn his departure.

It is said that a new Jersey prisoner was permitted to leave the prison and attend a cabaret every Saturday night. Perhaps this was done on the theory that it would make him better satisfied with the quiet prison life.

EAST PARK DISTRICT SPECIAL ELECTION

To Be Held June 5; Proposition to Extend Boundaries of the District

A special election of the East Park district is to be held on Saturday, June 5, for the purpose of submitting to the people of the district a proposition to extend the limits of the district to include all territory west as far as the city boundaries prior to passage of the last annexation ordinance. This means that the proposition is to take into the district the territory west according to city limits as they were following the annexation of western territory a year ago last fall, thus extending the district to cover the new tract annexed at that time.
