NORTH SHORE NEWS

Miss Dorothy Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hartman of 1129 Elmwood avenue, Winnetka, will marry Charles Richard Goffart of Belleville, Ill., Saturday evening, June 19, at 8:30 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. George P. Magill officiating.

Miss Elizabeth Nilson of Glencoe will be maid of honor; Mrs. N. J. Lareau of Evanston, matron of honor; Miss Henri Lost of Chicago and Miss Florence Alwart of Evanston, the bridesmaids, June Webster, also of Evanston will be flower girl.

The groomsmen will be George Hartman, brother of the bride, and N. J. Lareau, Bernard Black, Robert Friedlander of Evanston, and M. Leighton Smith of Chicago.

Among the affairs being given for Miss Hartman are: luncheon for her attendants given at her home Saturday, June 22; a book shower on Wednesday, June 2, given by Miss Lost at her home in Chicago; a personal shower given by Mrs. Webster Saturday, June 12, at the North Shore hotel; a handkerchief shower given by Mrs. Lareau Tuesday, June 15, at the Illinois Athletic club, Chicago; Thursday, June 17, a trousseau tea given by Mrs. Hartman; Friday evening, June 18, the bridal dinner will be given.

Announcement has been made that Miss Ellen Stuart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart of Hubbard Woods, will be presented to society at a tea to be given early in November. Her father and mother will give a dinner-dance for her at the Casino December 11. Miss Stuart is attending Miss Porter's school at Farmington, Conn.

Of interest to a number of Winnetkans is the recent announcement of the engagement of Miss Lora Josephine Colvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Colvin of Evanston, to Gordon Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitney, also of Evanston. No definite date has been set for the wedding. Miss Colvin is the sister of William H. Colvin, Jr., formerly of Winnetka, but now a resident of London, England.

Thursday evening, May 27, was the occasion of a small home wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Gaither of 1318 Forest avenue, Winnetka, when their daughter, Miss Helen, became the bride of Harold Gruver, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gruver of Hubbard Woods. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock.

Miss Alice Faubell of Chicago was the maid of honor, and Kenneth McLain of Winnetka acted as best man. Mr. Gruver and his bride left the following day to make their home in Boston.

The bride is a graduate of New Trier high school, and has lived in Wilmette for the last five years. Mr. Gruver was a resident of the same village for many years. He also attended New Trier high school, and is an alumnus of the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Sig. C. Sorenson of 972 Ash street, Winnetka, announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrtle Adelaide, to George Holstead.

Miss Marion Montgomery was among those entertaining for Miss Katherine Wortley before her marriage to Charles Francis Pearce, Jr., of Glencoe. Miss Montgomery gave a dinner party at Indian Hill club Monday evening, May 31, for Miss Wortley, her wedding party, and a few friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vogt Stixrud have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Audrey Beatrice, to George Elias Shipman, Jr., of 432 Warwick road, Winnetka, which will take place Saturday evening, June 12, at 8:30 o'clock, at Christ church, Winnetka. The reception immediately following will be held at the bride's home, 607 Willow road, Winnetka.

Mrs. Maurice Lieber of Winnetka was the parliamentarian and a guest of honor at the annual meeting and breakfast bridge of the Entre Nous Matinee club on Wednesday at the Sovereign hotel, when over 200 members and guests were present. The luncheon tables were spring-like in their decoration of flowers of pastel shades, and balloons of many hues, bearing the club's name were sent up into the air. Mrs. Frankboner, the president, presided.

George E. Shipman, 432 Warwick road, left Kenilworth last week on a Chamber of Commerce trip on the Illinois river to Starved Rock and La Salle. Mrs. Shipman met her husband in Perio, where they spent last weekend with Mrs. Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Magnus of 1141 Chatfield road, Hubbard Woods, will be at home to their friends Sunday, June 6, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Magnus are leaving June 7, for a western trip which will keep them away six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fischer, 755 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, returned Sunday from the east. They spent about a week in Atlantic City, and then motored with friends to New York along the coast. During their trip they were fortunate enough to see the famous "Horsehoe Bend" at Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe, 240 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, Charles Howe, Jr., and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Waterbury of Waterloo, Iowa, are leaving tomorrow to motor to Annapolis to attend commencement at the academy from which the Howes son, Hamilton, is to graduate.

Mrs. Felix Balek announces the marriage of her daughter, Julia Dorothy, to John Thomas Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vollman of 801 Cherry street, Winnetka, Wednesday, May 26, at 5 o'clock, the Rev. William Haarth of the Sacred Heart church officiating. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 398 Rosewood avenue, which was decorated with spring flowers.

The bride wore a frock of beige georgette and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Her only attendant was her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Caroline Balek, who was in a dress of powder blue georgette, and carried pink roses.

Both the bride and her sister wore picture hats matching their dresses. William Porcher acted as the groom's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell have gone north for their honeymoon, and upon their return they will be with the bride's mother for an indefinite period.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Barnett have rented their home at 33 Hazel avenue, Glencoe, for the summer to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick K. Smart of Chicago. The Barnetts will occupy the Otto R. Barnett home at 684 Greenleaf avenue, during the absence of Mrs. Otto Barnett, who, with her son, Sherman, is leaving shortly for Europe. Miss Lula McWilliams of the Hawthorn school is to accompany them, and they will be joined later in the summer by Mr. Barnett.

The Epsilon chapter of the Phi Delta Sigma gave its annual spring dance in the Black Cat room of the Edgewater Beach hotel Saturday evening, May 22. Mrs. Walter D. Sethness of Dinsmore road and Mrs. A. G. Whittier of Locust road, were members of the sorority. A party of Winnetka residents attending was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weinstein, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sethness, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. William Modes and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Killian.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Allen of 1448 North State parkway, to Hugh Robert Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver T. Wilson of Lake Forest, took place Wednesday, May 26. Dr. Norman Hutton read the service at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in St. Chrysostom's church in the presence of a large number of friends, and a reception followed at the Casino at 5:30 o'clock.

The bridal gown of white satin was embroidered in pearls and the court train was of chiffon and satin. The veil was caught with pearls and sprays of orange blossoms.

Miss Mildred Allen, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore yellow crepe, Elizabeth, her Lanvin hat trimmed with yellow flowers. She carried yellow roses.

Mrs. Harry B. Clow, Jr., matron of honor, wore light green crepe Elizabeth and a Lanvin green hat trimmed with lavender flowers.

The bridesmaids—Mrs. Alan Humphreys of Pittsburg and the Misses Dorothy Curtis, Ruth Keeley, Emilie Hoyt, Florence Addington and Virginia Wilson—wore bois de rose Elizabeth crepe gowns and rose colored Lanvin hats. They carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Otis Hubbard served the bridegroom as best man and the ushers were George Love of St. Louis, Edwin Herman of Harrisburg, Pa.; Philip Pillsbury, William Warner and Frank Crosby, all of Minneapolis, and Dexter Cummings, Harry B. Clow, Jr., John Wilson, Phelps Kelley and Charles J. Denney of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home after July 1 in Lake Forest.

Mrs. Charles Lewis Day of 454 Sheridan road, Winnetka, is in New York as the guest of Mrs. Cornelius K. G. Billings at the Ambassador.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hardy of Hubbard Woods and Mrs. Clyde M. Carr were among the Chicagoans who attended the wedding of Miss Mary Peavey Wells of Minneapolis to Loring Mitchell Staples, June 2, at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert E. Magee of 739 North Elmwood avenue, Oak Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Helen, to Elliott David Moore of Lake Forest. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. L. Curtis, who have taken the Clifford Barnes house in Lake Forest, went out on Tuesday, June 1, for the summer.
