PAST NOBLE GRANDS ENTERTAINED MONDAY

Fine Musical Program Is Given; Ten Noble Grand, Guests of Honor

The following past noble grands were entertained last Monday evening by Sheridan Rebekah Lodge No. 801: Mrs. Rose Yowell, Mrs. Violet Brown, Mrs. Mary Therrien, Mrs. Cora Gates, Mrs. Ida Barber, Mrs. Emily Anderson, Mrs. Anna Lenfesty, Mrs. Clara Devendorf, Mrs. Edna Watkins and Mrs. Gladys Hopkins.

A fine musical program was given after which delicious refreshments were served in the dining room. Decorations were in pink and green. Much credit is given the committee who worked so well to make it such a wonderful success.

GLENCOE CAR SMASHED IN COLLISION SAT.

Name and Number of Damaging Autoist Prove To Be Misleading

The Chevrolet roadster owned and driven by Carl Anderson of 463 Madison avenue, Glencoe, was completely demolished when it collided with a car Saturday night at the intersection of Deerfield avenue and Deerfield road. The occupants of neither car were seriously hurt. Taking the number and name supplied by the driver of the other car, Mr. Anderson brought them to the Highland Park police, who were unable to check the license number, name and address given. Mr. Anderson's only clues, it seems, are the make of car and the fact that it bore a Highland Park city license.

ELVA JEAN HALL WINS TRIP TO WASHINGTON

The North Shore chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution sponsored an essay contest in March in the local high school. The essay on "Why Uphold the Constitution" which was chosen by the local judges as the best one submitted by the students was written by Elva Jean Hall of Lake Bluff. This essay with the best from six other suburban high schools was submitted to the following judges: Mr. Harry Atwood, Mr. Angus Roy Shannon, Mr. Ninian W. Welch and Professor F. W. Nichols, superintendent of schools in Evanston.

These judges awarded the prize to Elva Jean Hall of the Deerfield-Shields high school. The North Shore chapter is giving an additional prize of $10 in gold to Marion Rosenstein whose essay was chosen as the second best in this district.

The successful winners from various divisions in the state will leave Chicago in time to reach Washington for the opening of the Sesquicentennial on Monday, June 28, which will be celebrated all over the United States. A wonderful sight-seeing visit with every expense paid will be enjoyed by the young people. The privilege of stopping in Philadelphia for a week at their own expense but without additional railroad fare will also be given.

The North Shore chapter is very glad indeed, that Elva Jean Hall of Deerfield-Shields high school is the successful contestant in this division.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness and help shown during our recent bereavement.
