The latter two are Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters, who with the bride-elect, attended the University of Illinois. The ring bearer will be Thomas Keith, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keith of 310 Warwick road, Kenilworth.

An interesting announcement made in the east was that made by Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. LeMoyné of Wilkins avenue, Pittsburgh, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marcia LeMoyné, to Louis Robinson Schmortz Jr., Mr. Schmortz is a Princeton man.

Miss LeMoyné, who was graduated from Miss Shipley's school, was introduced several years ago in Pittsburg, and is a member of the Junior League. She has frequently visited in Winnetka as the guest of her uncle John B. Guthrie, of Walden road.

Instead of making it an informal affair, which has been done upon some occasions in recent years, the dance will be strictly formal. It is expected to be the largest party any senior class at New Trier ever had. The dance will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will continue until midnight.

Miss Pauline Manchester, pianist, 403 Grove ave., Glencoe, will broadcast over WJAZ on Thursday evening, June 10, from 9 to 9:30. One of the attractive society events of the season was the small tea Sunday afternoon on the occasion of the formal opening of the woman's and children's room in the stables of the Indian Hill Riding club. Tea was served at four o'clock on the lawn under the awning shading the entrance of the charming room which was designed and decorated by Arthur Duncan of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Magnus of 1141 Chatfield road, Hubbard Woods, were at home to their friends Sunday June 6, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Magnus left June 7 for a western trip that will keep them away six weeks.

Hardin of 52 East Elm street, Chicago, with her children, Virginia and Gertrude, will sail from Montreal June 30 for Paris.
