MISS FREUND APPEARS ON CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Will Sing Doll Episode From "Tales of Hoffman," August 26

One of the treats of the season will be offered at the children's concert at Ravinia on Thursday afternoon, August 26, when Miss Helen Freund of the Chicago Civic and Ravinia opera companies, will sing the music of the doll episode from the "Tales of Hoffman," with a group of children taking part in the pantomime.

There will undoubtedly be a capacity attendance at this concert which will be the ninth of the series, and consequently next to the last to be presented this season.

The great interest and enthusiasm shown by the children for the Thursday afternoon concerts has been highly gratifying to the members of the committees of the Ravinia club.

Each Thursday afternoon entertainment program this summer has been in charge of some one of the north shore towns. Today is Highland Park Day, and the children of the Eli Bates Home are the guests of the Ravinia club, and are being entertained at luncheon by the Highland Park committee. Basket lunches are served in the park after which the children attend the concert. After the musical numbers by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, conducted by Mr. DeLamarter, the program will be given by a group of child artists; Mildred Waldman, pianist; John Horn, cellist; Harry Marzur, violinist, and Saul Dorfman, pianist.

An interesting program is being arranged for the tenth and last concert on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 2, which will close a most successful children's Thursday afternoon concert season.
