NORTH SHORE NEWS

Miss Margaret King Galloway of Winnetka wore a dress of white taffeta and duchesse lace when she became the bride of Wesley E. Bowman of Evanston Tuesday, August 3, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Galloway, in Kenia, Ohio. She wore a cap and cape veil of tulle, which formed a train, and carried a bouquet of hills-of-the-valley and shell pink roses. The reading of the service took place at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, and was followed by a reception.

Mrs. Marshall Barker of Hamilton, Ohio, who was her sister's matron of honor, wore a dress of blue georgette and lace, and carried a bouquet of Opelia roses. Dorothy Galloway, the bride's niece, acted as flower girl, and was dressed in shell pink taffeta and carried flowers of rainbow shades. Dorothy Rankin, a cousin, who was ring-bearer, wore yellow taffeta. The ribbon stretchers, a niece, Rebecca Galloway, and Dorothy Hughes, were also in yellow taffeta. John K. Cameron of Wilmette, a classmate of the bridegroom's at Wayland academy at Beaver Dam, Wis., was the best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman planned to go to their cottage in Dayton, Ohio, on their wedding trip, and will be at home after the week in an apartment they have taken at 2249 Ridge avenue, Evanston. The sister of Dr. Charles Galloway of Evanston, has been secretary to the Rev. Thomas Austin Richards and the Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin of the Winnetka Congregational church for the past year. She attended the Western College for Women for one year, and is a graduate of Denison university.
