The marriage of Miss Nina Fitch Babcock of Meredith, N. H., and Winnetka, to Francis Louis Bailey of Winnetka, Mich., and Winnetka, took place Saturday afternoon, August 14, at 4 o'clock, in the North church of Meredith.

The bride wore a white gown with tulle veil fastened with lilies-of-the-valley, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister as maid of honor, Miss Agnes Darling Babcock, who was dressed in pale pink crepe de chine with hat to match, and carried ophelia roses and sweet peas.

The church was colorfully decorated with ferns and gladioli. Rev. Irving A. Flint performed the ceremony, the bride being given away by her father.

Mr. Bailey's brother, Fred C. Bailey, acted as best man. The ushers were Dr. Bennett T. Avery of Ann Arbor, Mich., the Rev. Julius E. Glasgow of Lynnfield, Mass., both of the Kappa Alpha fraternity brothers of the groom at the University of Michigan, Hilton Packard of Plymouth, N. H., a cousin of the bride, and William McNiff, a graduate at the University of Michigan.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the bride's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey are taking a motor trip for their honeymoon and this fall will reside at 1077 Fig street, Hubbard Woods.

The bride is a graduate of Mount Holyoke, class of 1920. She is an accomplished musician, having studied both in the United States and France. She has been head of the music department at the North Shore Country day school for the past few years.

Mr. Bailey, a graduate of the University of Michigan, received his A.B. degree in 1921, and his A.M. degree in 1924. He is head of the science department in the Winnetka public schools. During the war he served nearly two years in France and Germany.

Out of town guests included many college friends of both the bride and groom, the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Eliza Piper of Guildhall, Vt., and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Babcock of Plymouth, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmiedgen of Wilmette have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothea, to Allen C. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Collins of Philadelphia.

Miss Schmiedgen is a graduate of New Trier high school and of Wellesley college, and recently returned from a year's trip abroad with her parents. Mr. Collins was graduated from Williams in 1923 and took his master's degree at Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fox of 494 Ash street, Winnetka, were at home to members of Mrs. Fox's family last Sunday afternoon and evening, in honor of Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Muir, Mrs. Fox's mother, on the occasion of the celebration of her ninety-sixth birthday. Thirty-six members of the family attended the tea, the majority of them from Wilmette, Evanston, and Chicago, and two families from out-of-state: Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols and their family of Elrod, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Swatwout and family of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. Nichols and Mrs. Swatwout are grandson and granddaughter of Mrs. Muir.

Mrs. Muir, who makes her home with Mrs. Fox, was born in Lincolnshire, England, and came to the United States at the age of nine years. In 1861 she became the wife of William Muir, who died in 1880. The Kenilworth Union church, decorated with ferns and other greens and large bouquets of pink roses and delphinium, was the scene of the marriage of Miss Margaret Backus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Trumbull Backus of Kenilworth, to Hamilton Wilcox Howe, ensign U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Howe, also of Kenilworth, on Tuesday evening. Dr. Herbert L. Willett performed the ceremony and Francis F. Moore of Winnetka, was the organist. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Backus home, 245 Cumnor road, Kenilworth.

The bride and her attendants wore dresses of period style, the bridal gown being of white satin and duchesse lace trimmed with pearls. Miss Teresa Backus, the bride's sister, who was maid of honor, wore a dress of blue, and the bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Waterbury of Waterloo, Iowa, and Miss Jeanette Cherry of Kenilworth, wore dresses of pink taffeta trimmed in a darker shade. Betty Backus, sister of the bride who, with Jack Howe, the bridegroom's brother, stretched the ribbons was also in pink. Little Virginia Hower, flower girl, wore white over a pale green.

The bride's cap was trimmed with clusters of orange blossoms, and her veil was of duchesse lace. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, white sweet peas and roses. The bridesmaids' bouquets were of pink roses and larkspur, and the maid of honor also carried pink flowers.

The fact that the bridegroom and his attendants were all of the army and navy made the wedding a social event of prominence in military circles. The best man was Ensign William C.
