

NORTH SHORE NEWS

The marriage of Miss Effie Wesner of Valparaiso, Ind., daughter of Mrs. Hansena Wesner of South Bend, Ind., to Reuben Tempas of Valparaiso, Ind., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Tempas of Hingham, Wis., took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johannesen, 1524 Asbury avenue, Winnetka, Saturday, August 28, at 4:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Dr. George MacAdam, pastor of the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church of Glencoe.

Mrs. Russell Simms of Valparaiso, Ind., attended Miss Wesner, and Russell Simms acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Tempas will make their home in Valparaiso, Ind.

Mrs. Hansena Wesner, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Russell Simms, who attended the bride, are cousins of Mrs. Johannesen who has been entertaining the bride and groom, their parents, and the attendants this past week-end.

The marriage of Miss Catherine de Wolf Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eager Lloyd, 192 Glenwood avenue, Glencoe, to William Ward Clore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clore, 664 Cherry street, Winnetka, will take place on Saturday, September 25, at 8:30 o'clock at Christ church, Winnetka. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard will perform the ceremony.

Miss Lloyd will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Theodore Cox of Atlanta, Ga., as matron of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Miss Elizabeth Clore, sister of the groom, Miss Elizabeth Pond of Evanston, and Mrs. Martin Below of Evanston.

Mr. Clore will have Clayton Seagars of New York, as best man. The ushers will be Raymond Roth of Wilmette, Charles Shearer of Bay City, Mich., Donald McCabe of Bay City, Mich., Lauren Stokesberry of Indianapolis, Robert Seymour of Chicago, Alex Goetz of Chicago, Martin Below, Evanston, and the groom's brother, Wallace Clore, of Evanston. Immediately following the wedding a small reception for the families and intimate friends will be held at Glenwood street, Glencoe.

Miss Lloyd and Mr. Clore are both graduates of New Trier high school. Mr. Clore attended the University of Michigan, and was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. They plan to make their future home in Northbrook, Ill.

Winnetka friends of Miss Ida Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Magnus A. Martin, 694 Center street, Winnetka, will be interested in hearing of the announcement of her marriage to John Bryant of Long Beach, Calif., which took place Friday, Aug. 20.

The wedding was held at the home of Miss Martin's sister, Mr. Arthur Randall of Long Beach.

Miss Martin was well known in Winnetka, having been in the office of Dr. Edwin T. Schildberg, 545 Lincoln avenue for four years. A year ago she left Winnetka to go to California, visiting her sister, Mrs. Randall. Mr. Bryant is a resident of Long Beach, and is associated with a lumber concern. They plan to make their future home in Long Beach.

Saturday, Sept. 25, has been chosen by Miss Margaret McCue as the time of her marriage to Perry William Lieber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lieber of Winnetka. The ceremony will take place at the home of Miss McCue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCue, of Wilmette, at 8:30 o'clock, the Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd officiating.

Both Miss McCue and her fiance are graduates of New Trier high school. The bride elect attended Dana hall, Wellesley, Mass., one year, the University of California, southern branch, one year, and spent the past year at the University of Illinois, where Mr. Lieber has been a student for three years. Miss McCue is a member of the Phi Beta Phi sorority and Mr. Lieber is a Phi Kappa Sigma.

Miss Betty Marshall will become the bride of Richard Hill Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Fleming of the South Shore Country club Wednesday, Oct. 20. The studio-home of Miss Marshall's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Marshall, on the lake's edge in Wilmette, a place of indescribable beauty, charm and individuality, will be the setting for the ceremony.

The well guarded secret of the approaching marriage of congenial Robert Hoefeler, the smiling adjutant of Winnetka post, No. 10, American Legion, is no longer a secret. The young woman is Miss Mildred Freeman of Chicago. The date of the wedding, it is said, is not definitely decided upon, but will probably be in the early fall.

The Legion members are suggesting November 11, Armistice day, an occasion which might be featured with a double celebration in which all former M. P. overseas "buddies" especially, are longing to participate.

From 3 until 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. William Taylor Cresmer and her daughter, Miss Wilma, were hostesses at a reception that marks Miss Cresmer's bow to society at their home, 542 Longwood avenue, Glencoe.

Assisting at the affair were Mrs. Robert B. Leffingwell, Mrs. Alfred Washington, Mrs. James G. McMullan, Mrs. Rea K. Pinkerton, Miss Agnes Cornell, Miss Edith Bullen, Miss Dorothy Campbell, and Miss Harriet Hamill of Keokuk, Iowa, and Miss Jean Gillespie of Pittsburgh, Pa., who graduated from National Park seminary with Miss Cresmer, and who is her house guests at this time.

Dr. McKenney will be the guest of her parents for ten days and will then return to New York, where she will be associated with the Division of 'Maternity, Infanry and Child Hygiene.

Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, 2236 Orrington avenue, Evanston, who is opening her home on September 11 to the freshmen girls entering Rockford college this year, expects about thirty freshmen girls to be present. Former students and graduates of Rockford are also invited to the tea, which is given in honor of the new girls.

Several north shore girls are planning to enter Rockford this year, and include Virginia L. Haight and Charlotte Waltz of Glencoe, Virginia Dickinson and Sybil B. Saxton of Kenilworth, Phoebe Tuells of Winnetka and Lydia Gray of Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Mare Newman, formerly of Winnetka, have left the North Shore hotel in Evanston, where they have been living, and have taken an apartment at 1318 Hyde Park boulevard, Chicago. Margaret Newman, their daughter, has just returned from Camp Agawak, Minocqua, Wis., where she spent the summer as a counselor. She will enter as a freshman at the Chicago Normal School of Physical Education this fall.

Mrs. J. L. Lane, 424 Greenleaf avenue, Glencoe, returned Wednesday from Maple Valley Farm, Ohio. Her sister, Mrs. Frank Snodgrass, who has been visiting here for some time, is on a motor trip through Ohio, and will return later. Mrs. Lane's granddaughter, Constance Lane Gage, returned to her home in Kansas City on Monday. Miss Constance has been spending the summer in Glencoe.

Robert Cochran, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cochran, 370 Chestnut street, Winnetka, and Jack Nason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Nason, 188 Myrtle avenue, Winnetka, took a most interesting trip as the guests of the Illinois Steel company, on one of their large ore boats plying between Illinois and northern ports in Michigan and Minnesota. They spent a week on the boat, and went as far north as Duluth.

Miss Dorothy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, 710 Bluff street, Glencoe, sailed Wednesday, September 1, for Europe. Miss Smith will study composition in Paris. She plans to remain abroad a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Cassels, 750 Bluff road, Glencoe, and daughter, Elizabeth, returned Wednesday from Estes Park, Col. Mr. Cassels left for New York to meet his daughter, Mariette, who arrives in New York today from Europe, where she has been spending the summer. Miss Cassels made the trip with several other students of Mount Holyoke.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fairman, 600 Ash street, Winnetka, have returned from a month's trip through Colorado and Montana. They included Broadmoor, Estes Park and Bear Tooth ranch, Montana, where their son, Fred, Jr., has been spending the entire summer. Miss Joy Fairman, their daughter, has returned from Camp Ketchuwa, Michigan, Mich., where she spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Glaser, Lincoln avenue, Glencoe, will have as their guests this week-end, Mrs. A. M. Williamson, an author well known in literary circles. Mrs. Williamson is going to the west coast and is stopping off in Chicago for a few days. Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Glaser are entertaining at a small dinner in honor of Mrs. Williamson. Her latest book that has been published, is a group of short stories under the name of "Black Incense."

Miss Bernice Hubsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hubsch, 1072

Spruce street, Winnetka, Miss Mary Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jarvis, 623 Lake avenue, Wilmette, and Miss Mary Edith Stahl of Chicago, have been spending three months traveling abroad. They sailed August 27 from Liverpool on the steamship, Montroual, and will arrive in Quebec, where they plan to stay for a few days before returning home.

The marriage of Miss Marion S. Vogdes, daughter of Mrs. R. Heber Vogdes, 7 Randolph street, Oak Park, to Guildford R. Windes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Windes, 873 Spruce street, Winnetka, will take place Thursday evening, September 9, at the bride's home. Dr. J. W. F. Davies will perform the ceremony.

Miss Vogdes will be attended by Miss Margery B. Windes, sister of the groom, and the best man will be Herbert W. Wilson, of Chicago and Van Wert, Ohio.

Miss Vogdes is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and Mr. Windes of Chicago Kent College of Law. They plan to make their home in Winnetka.

Stephen A. Foster of 696 Maple avenue arrived in New York from abroad on August 29, on the White Star Liner Adriatic, and will be in Winnetka September 16.

W. E. Madines of Montreal, vice president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Sir George McLaren Brown of London, England, general European manager of the company, are to be the house guests of W. A. Kittermaster of Glencoe over this week-end.

The American people don't seem very strong on abolishing evils, but they get together and pass some very good sounding resolutions about it.
