

ern Idea Store!

reflecting the changes that ore of today has a profession department and also

PTIONS

lea. Prescriptions of the
the most careful way, conducts, just as your doctor
me from our Prescription of goods carried for sale is a reasonable price.

at Our Fountain

SELL & CO.

ACISTS
D Ravinia
ES Phone 2300

Electric Shop

LLY Telephone H. P. 313

Irons $4.50

leaners $49.50

ttachments

ine of ACHINES and EANERS

ted Time Only

LOOR LAMP

EE with each Thor

ered

ST—

Rug Cleaner

usiness"

domestic Rugs

ing—Storage

Camel on the Porch

Plant Office & Res.
y Rd. 387 Vine Ave.
H. P. 2687

Supplies

LARSON

er

BRING RESULTS

Travelers'
Cheques

Foreign Exchange

The new Mosler Safety Deposit Boxes in our new 18 inch, solid reinforced concrete and steel, electrically protected vault, guarded by a 7½ ton Mosler Safe Company door is a safe place in which to deposit your valuables.

It will be a pleasure to show you through.

North Shore Trust Company

UNDER STATE SUPERVISION

Northwest Corner Sheridan Road and Central Avenue

Safety—Protection

AT HIGHWOOD'S COMMUNITY BANK

—You can with Confidence—

Safely Place Your Financial Problems With Us

If you have funds to invest "SEE US" Want insurance of any kind "SEE US"
A safety box for your valuables "SEE US" A handy checking account "SEE US"

That faithful friend—"A Savings Account" "SEE US"

Our Aim Is To Serve This Community
Make This Your Banking House

Highwood State Bank

HIGHWOOD "The Community Bank" ILLINOIS
Phone 251 Open Saturday 6 to 8 p. m.

A Dress in Two Colors

IT'S one of the most recent arrivals in our Dress Department—this Golflex Frock you'll see advertised in "Vogue" for September 15th.

Note the effective use of belting ribbon on collar, cuffs, and slashed front. The unusual little bow is also of the ribbon. The fabric is that wonderful Golflex worsted jersey—which does not stretch or wrinkle!

You have choice of the new Autumn colors . . . in several very charming and unusual combinations!

Just one of the many smart Golflex styles you'll see in our new stocks!

The Wincanton Shop

160 Hazel Avenue
Highland Park, Illinois
Phone 226 Hours 10 to 5

SNAPPY MEETING OF LEGION ANNOUNCED

The following notice has been issued by the local Legion post regarding a special session next Thursday: A big meeting for ex-service men will be held Thursday, Sept. 23. Post Commander Fred Gallagher and Comrad Barney Tashjian have returned from the state convention where a very interesting session was staged. Many important subjects were brought to their attention including discussion of the national convention in Paris in 1927 and other matters.

Reports will be read. The post has been fortunate in securing for the meeting Thursday, C. W. Brooks of Marine Post, Chicago, who made an eloquent address at the convention in nominating the next state commander, Fene Watkins. A very interesting talk will be enjoyed by everyone attending. Don't miss this meeting—it is quite an honor for this post to have Mr. Brooks present. The 10th Congressional District quartet will give some numbers; U. S. Marshal Leon Tashjian will be at the meeting.

Every ex-service man who is not a member of this local post should attend this meeting. The Ladies Auxiliary will take great care of the boys in the way of refreshments, so make this the largest meeting the post has had. Come.

It is expected that the auxiliary will turn out 100 per cent.

It's Easy to do This with

Steelcote RUBBER AUTO ENAMEL

No Experience Needed! One Coat Does the Work!
Steelcote is the new auto enamel that contains pure para rubber and imported gums. It is elastic and is not affected by the constant vibration of the car. Sun and wind, ice and snow do not dull its glossy finish. Stands up like a factory job. One quart covers small or medium sized car. Dries overnight. Comes in sixteen attractive colors.
Made by STEELCOTE MFG. CO. St. Louis

Sold by Haak's Auto Supply Co.
25 S. Second St. Tel. H. P. 391

Additional Local

The wedding of Miss Margaret Clair Kress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress of Deerfield to George Conrad Hesler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hesler of Highland Park, took place at the Kress residence on Hazel avenue, Wednesday afternoon, September 15. Shortly after 4:30 o'clock, the bridal party descended the stairway into the living room where the Rev. W. J. Ryan of the Holy Cross church read the service and where great clusters of ferns entwined with clematis together with gorgeous bouquets of hydrangeas, cosmos and zinnias were in profusion everywhere for the occasion. The bride entered with her father and wore a gown of yellow georgette with inserts of silver lace over flesh colored crepe. She carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses, blue larkspur and lilies of the valley. Miss Eva Ender, the maid of honor, wore pale green georgette over delicate pink crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Walter Hesler, brother of the groom served as best man. Most of the fifty guests who witnessed the ceremony were relatives. Following the reception the young couple departed for a trip through Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Hesler will make their home in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Shannon of Waukegan avenue, are the happy parents of a son, born Saturday evening.

Kenneth Gieser has gone to Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., where he will attend school.

Mrs. H. F. Maechtle and daughter, Mildred, have returned from Patterson, N. J. where they visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. John Woudenberg.

Dr. Ralph H. Kuhns, Moraine hotel, will speak at a meeting of the medical society of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, September 28, and at a meeting of the Woman's club of Sterling, Ill., November 6.

The Malcolm Vails and the Henry Vails have returned home from Ephraim, Wis., where they have spent the summer.

Mrs. Arthur St. Peter and daughter, Burnedette, and Marie Kendall and Mrs. John Vincent Spellman of Lake Forest have just returned from a two weeks motor trip, visiting in Negaunee, Mich., Detroit and Canada.

Mr. J. Flannigan and his daughter, Eleanor, were greatly surprised at a party given in their home Tuesday, September 14. The guests who were the elite of Highland Park were many and a sociable time was had by all attending. Mrs. Vencel Muzik was master of festivities and handled the occasion as only she can. Mr. H. Fromelt won first prize, Mr. H. L. East second prize and Mr. A. C. Gibbons the consolation. Mrs. V. Muzik won the first prize, Mrs. East the second prize, and Mrs. Jacoby the consolation in the 500 card game. The banquet was gorgeously set and the hostess, Mrs. J. Flannigan applied all her culinary art with a outlay that appealed to the most discriminate appetite. The young folks danced during the card game as you know they would.

Mr. Van Bergen of Glendower, Virginia returned home today after spending the week with his sister, Mrs. Chas. I. Mansur.

Miss Edith Vail returned on Wednesday from a three months tour of Europe and will leave the end of this month for the east where she will attend Smith college.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stratford who have spent the past two weeks in Canada returned on Wednesday to their home on N. Green Bay road.

Mrs. George Pett will entertain twenty-five guests at her home on N. Green Bay road on Monday at a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Ann Beck of Racine who will be married on September 23 to John White of this city. Five hundred will be the evening's diversion.

Mrs. John Kampe is spending four weeks in Davenport, Iowa.

A number of friends of Mr. John White and Miss Ann Beck of Racine who are to be married on Thursday, Sept. 23, gave a very lovely party for them on Tuesday evening and presented them with a chest of silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Petz of McGovern street were guests on Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. George Schaefer at their cottage at Long Lake.

The Misses Catherine and Carlene Ehle of Glencoe avenue entertained the Misses Victorine and Margaret Day of Evanston over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Eitel returned last week from a two weeks stay in northern Wisconsin.

Alfred St. Peter is leaving Saturday for Champaign where he will enter his junior year in the university.

Work is almost completed on the excavation for Mr. Jesse L. Smith's new home at the corner of Vine and St. Johns avenue.

PICTURES OF THIS CITY IN DAILY NEWS

Highland Park was featured in the picture section of the Chicago Daily News last Saturday, with an entire page of pictures of prominent leaders and interesting points in the city. The pictures included those of Mayor Samuel M. Hastings and City Clerk E. A. Warren in the city hall; a drive on the Julius Rosenwald estate and a view of the Rosenwald residence, residence of George Lytton, grounds of Old Elm club, Exmore club house, residence of Curtis N. Kimball, residence of Edward V. Price, residence of Mayor Hastings, city hall, Trinity Episcopal church, Presbyterian church, Deerfield-Shields high school, view of central business district.

Well known member of police force and respected citizen who passed away at his home September 14, 1926. Picture from which this cut was made was taken about 15 years ago when Mr. Sheaheh distinguished himself in fighting bank robbers and was wounded in the battle.

J. H. SHEAHEN, ASST. POLICE CHIEF, DIES

Continued from page 1

death is a personal loss. His passing is a loss to Highland Park and there is general regret that this splendid citizen and efficient officer has reached the close of his useful career. The relatives have the deep sympathy of all the community at this time.

The Relatives
Mr. Sheaheh is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Nellie

THE SAME PROMPT, COURTEOUS, FRIENDLY SERVICE

It matters not, it makes no difference, whether you have a check to cash, a financial problem to inquire about or whether your deposit happens to be $100 or $1000—you will receive here always the same, prompt, courteous, friendly service.

It is a service, not of recent "vintage," but one developed over a period of 27 years, one calculated fully to meet the needs of our valued patrons, numbering almost ten thousand.

HIGHLAND PARK STATE BANK

The Home of Savings Depositors

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce that I have taken over the business of the Purdy Radio and Sport Shop and will continue to conduct it at the same location.

New goods and new lines will be added. Everything in sporting goods may be had here. The store will be known hereafter as

HUNTER'S RADIO AND SPORT SHOP

386 Central Ave. Highland Park, Ill.
Telephone Highland Park 28

JOHN H. SHEAHEN

BUNDLE CAMPAIGN TO BE SEPT. 22-OCT. 5

Chicago Christian Industrial League Solicits Aid for Less Fortunate

What will you do with your next lot of old clothes, shoes, furniture, etc.? A rummage sale will bring but a few cents to the article, no great or lasting good will be accomplished that money itself could not have done. At the Chicago Christian Industrial league it is repaired by those who are looking for a chance, the mother, the father, the aged, the friendless, the poor.

Rebuilt furniture brightens some home, made over clothes and shoes give protection from cold and winds and snow to children, to the mother who goes to work and to the man who is striving to come back. Send your things to the Chicago Christian Industrial league and know your articles render a service not measurable by money.

Sept. 30th is set aside as "Special Clothes Gift Day." Will you not take a bundle to your near-by station or phone 2474, and a truck will call for all discards.

ONE STEALS TOOLS ANOTHER TAKES CAR

Henry Spenser, a recent arrival from Chicago, was arrested September 11 on a charge of stealing tools valued at $50 from Mrs. Ehle's car at 320 Park avenue. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Conrad on September 13 and was fined $50 and costs.

Ernest Smith, a Chicago lad, was picked up here early Monday morning with a Wisconsin Ford car which he admitted to have stolen in Chicago. He was cruising about this city aimlessly when the police intervened. He was returned to Chicago.

Christmas Cards! Yes it's early to think of them, but at any rate it is the early bird that gets the worm. Remember you have a better chance to make a selection now. Bring in your name plate and match the type with the cards. The Highland Park Press.

Gannon, and the following children: Harry W. Sheaheh, Gregory M. Sheaheh, Mrs. Marjyn C. Hart, Sister Ann Rita, and Raymond J. Sheaheh. Other near relatives are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Wm. M. Dooley, Francis W. Sheaheh, Mrs. Jane Mills, James E. Sheaheh, and Charles N. Sheaheh.

Funeral Service
The funeral will be held on Friday leaving the residence at 8:45 o'clock and the service at the Immaculate Conception church, to be conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. D. O'Neill, will be held at nine o'clock. Burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Lake Forest.