

Local and Personal

Mr. Robert M. Cobb, Chicago, manager of the General Motors Acceptance corporation, left Tuesday night for a three weeks' trip to the coast, to attend the Bankers convention which is to be held in Los Angeles October 4-8.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Steele who have been confined to their home by illness for the past three weeks are very much improved.

John W. Nason left Monday for New Haven, Conn., where he will do post graduate work at Yale university.

Mr. Harry Friebele and Mr. Raymond Roth are attending the Knights of Pythias convention being held in Rockford this week.

Mrs. R. Marlowe returned Sunday from Milwaukee, Wis., where she spent a week visiting her sister.

Miss Timmons of Glenview avenue who spent a week in Chicago visiting friends has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Dunscomb have returned from a two weeks fishing trip at Warhabeague, Va.

Mrs. Edwin Larson, representing the Highland Park Pythian Sisters and Mrs. Roth, representing Lake Shore Temple, Highwood, are attending the Pythian Sisters convention at Rockford being held two days.

Miss Margaret Arnswald has returned from a vacation spent in Michigan.

Mrs. Jacob Barber has returned from Le Seuer Center, Minn., where she was called two weeks ago by the death of her sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bowles of Chicago (Ruth Schendorf) are announcing the birth of an eight pound son born Saturday at St. Luke's hospital.

Mrs. F. P. Boynton will return Saturday from Wauwaukeet, Nantucket, Mass., where she spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Winters have left on a three weeks motor trip in the east and Canada.

Mrs. Frank Howe of Central avenue and Mrs. Hugo Snyder of Oakwood avenue left Monday for the Mystic Worker's convention at Madison, Wisconsin as delegates. They will be home the latter part of this week.

The Mystic Worker's lodge presented a wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. Muir. Mrs. Muir who was formerly Mabel Howe, has been pianist for three years and to show their appreciation they presented her with a lovely luncheon set. It consisted of Amber glassware, plates, cups and saucers and a lovely large serving plate. Mrs. Muir is grateful to the lodge for the nice gift.

Dorothy Reay of Hazel avenue is entertaining Friday afternoon at luncheon and bridge in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Doty who is to be married the eighth of October.

The girls' choir of the Presbyterian church resumed its work in the middle of September and can boast of a very large attendance. Under the excellent leadership of Mrs. Charles Pardee the members expect to reach heights never attained before. The choir made its first public appearance on Easter and has greatly benefitted the Church school by its singing each Sunday morning since that time. Two rehearsals are held each week, on Sundays and Thursdays, and if the members keep up their wonderful work the public can be assured of a splendid program when they make their first appearance, which will be made in vestments.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Vail of Forest avenue who were called to California on account of the illness of Mr. Vail's mother, returned last Friday night.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Wickham of S. St. John's avenue attended the dedication of the Shriner's hospital for crippled children Sunday afternoon.

You and your friends are cordially invited to attend a free lecture on Christian Science to be given in the Christian temple, 200 N. Sheridan road, Waukegan, Illinois, Sunday afternoon, October 3, at three-thirty o'clock.

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church when Miss Edith Loretta Ralph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph was married to Stanley Peter Peddle of Lake Forest. The bride was most charming in her gown of white georgette crepe trimmed with rhinestones and a veil of tulle draped gracefully and held in place with a crown of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Ralph was assisted by Miss Isabell Keeler who wore a gown of old rose georgette with slippers to match and a large picture hat of black velvet. Mr. James Peddle, brother of the groom acted as best man. The two little flower girls, Loretta June Dunkin, a niece of the bride, wore blue georgette, and Mildred Metzger of Lake Forest a niece of the groom wore peach georgette, both children wore bands of silver leaves. A wedding breakfast was served at the Four Seasons in Glenview after which the bridal couple left on their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Peddle will be at home after October 5, at 4 Juneway terrace, Lake Forest. Miss Helen Bonar, who has made her home with her sister, Mrs. George Schwalbach, on Central avenue, was married to Robert Cole of Cleveland, Ohio, at the Immaculate Conception church Saturday morning. Rev. Dr. O'Neil performed the ceremony. After a wedding breakfast at the home the couple departed on their wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Deerfield.
