CLASSES IN ENGLISH AT ELM PLACE SCHOOL

To Be Held Tuesday and Thursday for Foreign Born; Were Held Last Year

The Elm Place school has resumed evening classes, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8:00, for those who wish to learn to read, write and speak the English language or to prepare for the examination for United States citizenship.

Last year over 80 people representing nine nationalities, were enrolled in these classes.

The five classes are graded according to the ability of the pupils to speak our language. The most advanced class prepares pupils for the responsibilities of citizenship and the school co-operates with the U. S. Bureau of Naturalization.

Last year the D. A. R. provided a teacher for those who could not read nor write in any language and a similar opportunity is offered this year.

Pupils may enroll at any time. The work is in charge of Mrs. Marc A. Law, 27 N. Linden avenue.

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY ST. JAMES PARISH HALL

OPENING MEETING IS LARGELY ATTENDED

High School P. T. A. Enjoy Program of Varied Interest; Teachers Speak

Down at the LaSalle-Peru Township high school, at LaSalle, Illinois, an interesting and constructive piece of work is being done.

Through a clinic, which is privately financed and is directed by a woman of superior personality and scientific training the individual needs of students are carefully studied and their emotional difficulties adjusted. Problems are referred to specialists, who come from the Illinois Institute of Juvenile Research, located in Chicago. For three years this work has quietly gone on and definite results, now visible, prove it invaluable.

At the October meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher association Thursday, Mr. Burwell described to a large audience his investigation of this work.

Dr. Rogers presented a scholarly explanation of the history of vaccines, including a description of the method of producing them, the theory of immunization and the development of the science so that now diphtheria, scarlet fever and small pox can be safely and definitely avoided.

Miss Parry, the new dean of girls, introduced herself, asking for co-operation with the parents, particularly that there be fewer automobiles used by students, no amusements on school nights and no parties after the high school parties.

Mr. Sandwick, after commenting favorably on the unusually large attendance at their first meeting of the P. T. A. explained the new schedule, which provides longer recitation periods. The ladies from the Lincoln school district served tea.

TWO FIRE ALARMS: NO DAMAGE IS DONE

The firemen responded to two calls this week. In one instance a steam nine had broken and emitted clouds of steam. In the other an oil burner was out of order. No damage was done in either instance.

Summary of Most Wanted Types of Tailored Woolen Frocks $22.50 $25. $29.50

The first cool, crisp days of September sounded the clarion for a general exploitation of tailored frocks of light wool, to which women all over the country have responded.

Jersey, Friska, Covert, Scotch Plaids

All are popular materials.

Two piece frocks leading the style.

Skirts with fullness, concentrated at front or side are best liked.

Convertible collars that may be worn link buttoned or open V necked after the Vionnet idea are all selling well.

Coat dresses are proving very popular with misses and women.

Cardigan jacket costumes of wool, crepe, jersey and checked velveteen are selling readily.

The popular $22.50 to $29.50 seems to be the psychological price just now.

Interest in these particular models is more pronounced than for the past several seasons.
