

NORTH SHORE NEWS

The marriage of Miss Madge Tarrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Tarrant of 944 Fig street, Winnetka, to Douglas Jack Headford of Englewood, took place Saturday evening, October 2, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Winnetka Congregational church. Rev. James A. Richards performed the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white satin, trimmed with imported lace. She wore a tight bodice, and full skirt trimmed with crinoline. Her veil, with a band of orange blossoms, was worn by her mother at her wedding. The bride carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Ray Kriete of Kenilworth, as maid of honor wore a yellow flowered taffeta gown, and carried red roses and white chrysanthemums. Miss Clemence Stephens of Oak Park, who attended the bride as bridesmaid, was gowned in yellow taffeta and carried lavender sweet peas and yellow roses. Little Virginia Nickel of 100 Bertling lane, carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Harold Richard Tarrant, brother of the bride, acted as best man, and Delos C. Whips and Adam Spear of Chicago were ushers. Mrs. Headford graduated from Northwestern university.

The church and house, where the reception followed the ceremony, were decorated in yellow and white gladioli.

After a motor trip through Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Headford will make their home with the bride's parents until their new home is ready at 475 Provident avenue.

The bride's grandfather, R. Stephens of London, England, came to Winnetka for the wedding, and plans to remain two or three weeks before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hinckley Smith, whose marriage took place last June, have returned from their wedding trip and are making their home at 2217 Ridge avenue, Evanston. Mrs. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Simmonds, Jr., 286 Sheridan road, Winnetka, was Miss Virginia Simmonds.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Pope, and Mr. Henry Pierce Pope of Glencoe were in Fort Worth, Texas, last Saturday to attend the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. George Pope's son, Henry Pope, to Clare Lee Bradley, daughter of Richard Bradley of Ft. Worth. Mr. Pope and his bride will reside in Columbus, Miss., on their return from the wedding trip.

Saturday afternoon, October 2, at 4:30 o'clock, the Winnetka Baptist church was the scene of another autumn wedding. Miss Grace Georgia Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Reid, and Raymond Durham Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stephens of Hubbard Woods, were united in marriage by the Rev. Francis C. Stifter. The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white georgette over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. Her cap veil of tulle, fastened to a band of real lace, was held in place with a cluster of orange blossoms.

The maid of honor, Miss Viola Reid, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaid, Miss Gladys Johnson of Chicago, her cousin, were similarly gowned in dresses of harmonizing shades of rose georgette and silk lace and wore gold kid slippers. They carried bouquets of pink roses with lace frills. Betty Gebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gebert, was the little flower girl. Her dainty dress was of pink georgette over white satin and she carried a gilt basket of pink roses.

George Harold Stephens served his brother as best man. Robert Stephens, Herbert W. Reid, Harvey N. Bowen were the ushers.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 921 Twelfth street, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephens left for Michigan, where they are spending their honeymoon. Upon their return they will be at the home of the groom's parents, 1433 Ashbury avenue, Hubbard Woods.

When Miss Emilie Hoyt, daughter of Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt of Chicago, formerly of Winnetka, and Dexter Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Mark Cummings of Lake Forest, were married Wednesday afternoon in St. Chrysostom's church, the bride was attired in white satin trimmed with rose point lace, and a coronet of lace held in place her long veil. She carried lilies-of-the-valley and orchids. The matron of honor, Mrs. T. Philip Swift, and the maid of honor, Miss Edith Cummings, wore gowns of pale green tulle with small high crowned velvet hats of the same shade trimmed with gold lace. The bridesmaids, Miss Florence Addington, Miss Dorothy Curtis, Miss Ruth Keeley, Mrs. Hugh R. Wilson, Mrs. Gardner Hammond, Mrs. Harry Clow, Jr., and Mrs. Allan S. Humphreys had frocks of yellow tulle with flounced skirts and wide colored velvet hats. They carried huge bouquets of yellow roses and delphinium.

Harry B. Clow, Jr., was best man, and ushering were Charles Dennehy, Jr., Hugh R. Wilson, Henry N. Rowley, Louis C. Sudler, and Herbert McLaughlin. A reception following the ceremony was held at the Casino club.
