COURTS NOW READY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Tennis Space in New Athletic Field Complete Except for Markings, Etc.

Deerfield's new tennis courts, located within the limits of the new Athletic field on West Park avenue, will soon be ready for play.

The courts are completed now, except for the markings and the posts which hold the nets. Just as soon as these details are attended to and the weather becomes a little more suited to tennis, the courts will be open to students.

"The men are pushing the work rapidly," says Coach Peel, "and just as soon as it dries up, play will start. The weather permitting, play will start the end of this week."

SAM SMITH PLAYS IN COLLEGE BAND

Elected to Beat Drum at Northwestern University; Also on Paper

Sammy Smith of Deerfield-Shields class of 1926 was elected to play the bass drum in the Northwestern band at the first rehearsal held two weeks ago. As a member of the band Sammy will accompany the Northwestern football team to all the Big Ten games of the season.

Sammy has also made the business staff of the Daily Northwestern.

Speaking of debt settlements and so forth, it is well to bear in mind that those who came away from Versailles without a lot of new land were Germany and the U. S. A.—Detroit News.

Smith Hayes, Lake Forest. Hearing on claim of Cor Franks continued to October 11.

Gertrude Schar Wolf, minor, Highland Park. Letters of Guardianship issued to Frank Schar. Bond of $1,000. Inventory approved.

Stanley Anderson, Deerfield. Report of sale of chattel property approved and conveyance ordered.

Peter Henry Glestein, Libertyville. Order of Sept. 23 revoked. Decree entered for sale of real estate.
