

INTERVIEW SHOWS
COOLIDGE IS MAN
MANY TRIBUTES VOICED

His Talk With Barton Gives Fine
Insight Into Human Side of Nature of Silent Cal;
Tribute to Wife

Bruce Barton's recent interview with the President, which was sent throughout the country by the Associated Press, has been the outstanding topic of conversation at the National Capital since publication.

The editorial comment has been extraordinarily commendatory. The opinion is expressed again and again that we are all the better for this first-hand view of the likes and dislikes, hopes and aspirations of the chief executive.

Size of the Man
It has done more than anything else to reveal the size of the man who is President, and his absolute disassociation in his acts and words from any thoughts of either personal glorification or advantage.

What master of industry, for example, would be willing to publicly admit that when a small boy his greatest hope was that some day he might run a general store? The average man who has reached a position of importance feels obligated in reviewing his career, to convey the impression that even from the lisp stage he had a great ultimate goal in mind, the goal which he finally achieved, but this is not the Coolidge way.

Gracious Tribute
The tribute which Mr. Coolidge paid to Mrs. Coolidge, and through her to the women of America, is also one which will appeal to each and every one of us who has had the opportunity even though at a distance, to see that most gracious lady and helpmate.

One of the most striking tributes was printed in the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, "Journal." It runs as follows: "Today 'The Journal' prints an interview with the President of the United States. It contains not a word of government policy, not a syllable of party propaganda, not a letter of self-promotion. Yet that interview will live when Coolidge policies are forgotten. In it a man comes from behind a mask. Readers of that interview will know Calvin Coolidge as they never could hope to know 'Mr. President.'

Heartfelt Expression
"A man who has the companionship of a lovely and gracious woman enjoys the supreme blessing that life can give. And no citizen of the United States knows the truth of that statement better than I."

In these words Calvin Coolidge pays tribute to woman's aid in man's labors. But he does more. He shows that, beneath a frigid exterior, there beats a heart more warm than even his friends suspected.

Mr. Coolidge believes in the family as he believes in God, wholeheartedly. He believes that today opportunities are greater than ever before for men who are helped by family ties. And, in a moment of rare revelation, sitting with a friend, he has said so.

A laughing world, hushed at the glimpse of a soul, will be the better for it.

HIGHWAYS DAMAGED BY RECENT RAINS

Conditions Bad in Places in Many Northern States, Says Reports

Owing to the fact that heavy rains have continued during the past week throughout all the north central states, river bottoms are flooded, bridges have been washed out, and all highways are in doubtful condition, according to the latest bulletin on road conditions issued by the touring bureau of the Chicago Motor club.

State highway trucks have been placed along many state highways to aid motorists over bad stretches. Motorists, however, must make inquiry as to road conditions in this flooded area. Practically no rain reported throughout the southern states and main trails are generally in good travelable condition. Roads into Florida have been opened up for through travel. Only light rains through the eastern states. Main highways and trails remain in excellent condition. Considerable rainfall reported in Kansas, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Idaho, Arizona and California. Most trails west of Kansas in travelable condition: some sections, however, report roads impassable for a few days at a time. Motorists are advised to make local inquiry along the western routes.

All routes north and east out of Springfield have been reported closed excepting 110-10. The latter, route, however, is doubtful, on account of rising floodwater.

The Rand road is being paved from Des Plaines River road northwest to the Soo tracks, detour through Des Plaines is marked.

High water south of Lincoln has closed the highway (Ill-4). It will be a week or more before traffic can be resumed. Several county roads also under water.

It's a good bet that when one of these Scandinavians finally discovers the North Pole he'll find an American already there running a hot dog stand.

JEWISH WOMEN IN PALESTINE AWAKE

Have Secured Franchise; Now Want Improvement in Laws and Customs

Now that the franchise has been granted to Jewish women in Palestine, a strong campaign is in progress against the obsolete laws still governing matters concerning their personal status.

Dr. Rosa Welt-Strauss of Jerusalem was recently a delegate to the Congress of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance in Paris. Speaking on the question of women's rights in Palestine, Dr. Strauss said that in the country "where three continents meet, where three religions rule, where peace was preached and warfare continuously waged, the only thing on which all agreed was the oppression of women."

"With the coming of Western Jews and Jewesses things began to change. The Jewesses, coming from enfranchised countries in Europe and America, to the land of their forefathers, saw themselves deprived of all the rights to which they had been accustomed in other lands. So the fight for liberation began. The first thing was to secure the vote."

"I am speaking of the Jewish community only now. After a long and bitter struggle, we won the vote. Twenty-seven women were elected in 1925 to the Jewish National Assembly, 13 by the Labor organizations on mixed tickets, and 14 by the Palestine Jewish Women's Equal Rights association on a woman's ticket on the motto: Equal Citizenship.

"With the vote in their possession, the fight began for the improvement of the position of the women in Palestine. Our aim is equal citizenship, equal conditions of work, equal moral standard, equality in marriage, equality of opportunity, and equality in guardianship."

Leslie Grim, who has just returned from his first trip to Europe had his eye glasses cracked in an anti-American rush in Paris.

The doctors tell us of the bad effects of worry, but the business men say some folks should do a little more worrying about their bills.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE
Sergeant: "Button up your coat!"
Young Married Recruit: "Yes, my dear."

They can improve the auto—paint it up to look nice—get more miles per gallon—but they can't give it horse sense.

A little shine on daughter's nose now-a-days bothers her as much as dust on the furniture bothered her mother.

When a man is hit by an auto and not killed the doctors say merely that he is badly run-down.

When a girl elopes from her bedroom these days the Old Man generally goes out and holds the ladder for her.

A Mistaken Conception

Some people are prone to think of landscape gardening as an art applicable only to large estates, where tremendous vistas are to be developed.
