GREAT YEARS IN THE NATION'S HISTORY

Interesting things have happened in 1926. Commander Byrd in a Fokker airplane, circled the North Pole. Photographs taken in Europe were transmitted on radio waves to America, and published in newspapers a few hours later. Gertrude Ederle, daughter of a New York butcher, swam the English Channel one hour faster than any of the five men who had swam it before her.

Is anything interesting going to happen in 1927?

The ride beggars tell us to have a heart, and then sometimes later they point a gun at that same heart and demand our money.

An Omaha man played the piano continuously for 105 hours. How would you like to have him for a next-door neighbor?

The new German army has been having sham warfare and doubtless found it cheaper and more profitable than the real thing.

The free trade idea of helping the farmer is to pull down the pillars of the temple so everybody will be smashed flat.

NOT ALL GOOD

We never tried to make anyone believe that all Used Cars were good cars. But we do insist that the Used Cars we sell are good cars. And the people who buy them know it.
