

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

(Continued from page 3)

Mrs. Ellen Clark of McGovern street has gone to Chicago to spend two or three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Campbell.

Mrs. Leslie Rankin of Vine avenue entertained a number of her friends at a Halloween party last week.

Anna Mae Curley of Prairie avenue spent Saturday and Sunday in south Milwaukee. While there she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. Caveney.

Mr. and Mrs. David Carlson of N. Green Bay road were hostesses at a party last week celebrating the birthday of Mr. Carlson.

Services of the perpetual novena to the Little Flower will be held Nov. 7, the first Sunday of November, at the Carmelite Sisters chapel, South Kenosha, three and one half miles southeast of Kenosha on the North Shore line. Trains leave Milwaukee at 2 o'clock, stop at South Kenosha and returning leave South Kenosha at 6:30 p. m. Chicago trains leave South Kenosha at 7 p. m. The novena will be conducted at 3 and 4 p. m. by a Chicago Carmelite father.

Miss Delia Fagan and Mr. Christian Elftret were married Thursday night at nine o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst, of S. Second street. Rev. Finkbeiner read the service. Mrs. T. J. Zabel attended her cousin as matron of honor and Mr. Zabel served Mr. Elftret as best man. The bride's uncle, Mr. Wm. Ernst, gave her away. A reception followed the ceremony. Only immediate families were present.

The Lake Shore temple at Highwood will give a chicken dinner and corn game this evening (Thursday), Nov. 4, at the K. P. hall at Highwood.

Miss Welthyan Harmon entertained her class of North Shore Country Day school at dinner at her home preceding the "hard times" dance at the Highland Park club on Friday evening.

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday, Oct. 30, at four o'clock in the afternoon, at the First Presbyterian church of Lake Forest, when Miss Irene M. Stevens, daughter of Mrs. Florence Stevens, was married to Mr. Frank T. Watt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watt of Lake Forest.

Dr. Roberts read the ceremony. Miss Marjorie Bowden acted as maid of honor, and Miss Martha Clendenen of Oak Park and Miss Florence Stevens of Shannon, Ill., were bride's maids. Mr. Watt was attended by his brother, Theodore, as best man while Mr. Charles Steels of Lake Forest and Mr. Garfield Proctor of this city served as ushers. A reception followed the services at the home of Irene's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Evans on First street to about sixty guests. After a two weeks honeymoon motoring through the south Mr. and Mrs. Watt will reside in Lake Forest.

The annual card party given for the benefit of the social service department of the North Shore Catholic Woman's League will be held at the Orrington hotel, Evanston, on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The social service meetings of the league are held every fourth Tuesday of each month, the next to take place at the home of Mrs. William Schneider, 911 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, on November 23, at one o'clock. There will also be a series of six book talks by Mrs. Anthony French Merrill. The second of the series will take place at the home of Mrs. David Hallman of 1050 Spruce street, Winnetka, on Thursday afternoon, November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Black entertained about thirty friends at a Harvest party on Saturday evening at their home on Dean street. The guests all came in costumes fit for a harvest party. All sorts of Halloween games were played and a very good time was had by all.

Mrs. Martin Insull entertained the committee of Trinity Church Service league at luncheon at Moraine hotel preceding the annual card party held there yesterday afternoon.

On Friday occurred the death of Mrs. Henry Rogers of Waukegan, mother of Mrs. Orville St. Peter. Mrs. Rogers died of old age. Funeral services were held at 10:30 o'clock at her home in Waukegan.

Mrs. Wayne Hise of Forest avenue entertained a few friends at luncheon on Friday afternoon for Miss Dorothy Brown of Evanston.

John Fealey who lives with the William Sweeneys at Fort Sheridan arrived home after spending his vacation in Los Angeles, Hollywood and other parts of interest in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Creigh of Prospect avenue have as their guest Mrs. Creigh's sister, Miss Lucia Connor, of Burlington, Ia.

Mr. J. B. Garnett who had his tonsils removed at the Highland Park hospital last week is able to be around again.

Mrs. Thomas Creigh entertained at six tables of bridge on Monday afternoon in compliment to her sister, Miss Lucia Connor, of Burlington, Iowa, who is the house guest of the Creighs.

Mrs. Edward J. Therrien of 745 Ridgewood drive entertained the members of the Rebecca Sewing circle at her home on Wednesday afternoon. This club meets every two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knolls of Chicago were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mines of Deerfield avenue. Mrs. Knolls was formerly Miss Mabel Behrens of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller are leaving on Sunday for Los Angeles, California, where they expect to spend the winter.

Mrs. Alfred Schultz will entertain the members of her Bridge club on Friday afternoon at her home on Roger Williams avenue.

The next regular meeting of the Catholic Woman's league will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Winnetka Woman's club. All members are urged to be present.

A farewell Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berube on Saturday. Cards was the feature of the evening and of course all sorts of Halloween stunts were indulged in. The twelve couples present report a dandy time. Mrs. Berube left Monday for Alhambra, Calif., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. A. Frederickson.

The Fort Sheridan Friday Evening Bridge club will meet tomorrow at the Officer's club. The club meets every other Friday of the month.

Mrs. James P. Crawford, wife of the Major is entertaining at seven tables of bridge tomorrow afternoon.

The Boy Scout council will hold a meeting to consider council expansion, next Monday evening at the City hall at eight o'clock. All members of the council are urged to attend.

About thirty young people were entertained at a Halloween party Sunday evening, October 31, at the Sweeney residence on McGovern street.

Dr. Roy A. Crossman, formerly connected with the Highland Park hospital has just returned from his post graduate course at Miami, and his many friends will be glad to know he has decided to locate permanently in Highland Park and has purchased a new home from Walter W. Wilcox at 712 Yale lane, where he and Mrs. Crossman will be at home to their friends as soon as they can get settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. McPherson who have been in Detroit, Mich., for the past four weeks visiting their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. McPherson, will not return until next week as Mr. McPherson was taken ill while there.

I. O. L. V. have moved from their location in Highwood into the Masonic hall and will hold their first meeting in their new location Friday evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of Zion Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty o'clock with Mrs. Nels Johnson of Oak street.

The marriage of Miss Alice Kathryn Westcott, daughter of Dr. F. G. Westcott of LaSalle, Ill., and Edward S. Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Marks of this city will take place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the Grace M. E. church, the Rev. William E. Doble officiating. Miss Lillian Tucker, cousin of the bride will serve as maid of honor and Miss Grace Bloomfield of Chicago will be bride's maid. Charles Laegeler of Highwood will serve the groom as best man. Messrs. Alfred Marks and William Chalmers will act as ushers. A reception will follow in the church parlors. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Marks will make their home in Highland Park. Both young people are employees of the Highland Park State bank.

Muriel and Howard Mowers entertained a number of their young friends Saturday evening at a Halloween party.

Joybelle Fritsch entertained several of her friends at a Halloween party last Saturday evening.

The Johannah North Shore committee will hold its second meeting on November 11 at the home of Mrs. Alfred Flesham, 1380 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

The employees of the Aleyon and Pearl theaters enjoyed a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Gedee of North Chicago, who is the organist at Pearl theater. A most delightful evening was enjoyed.

All Alumni of Deerfield-Shields high school are urged to attend the Home-coming Saturday, November 13.

A delightful birthday surprise was given Mrs. William O. Oponheimer at the home of Mrs. George Du-hane, Friday. A purse containing $10 in gold was presented Mrs. Oponheimer together with numerous other beautiful gifts.

Miss Lillian Tucker entertained at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening in compliment to Miss Alice Westcott.

Virginia Jane Wilson, was hostess to twenty-five little girls Saturday afternoon, Oct. 30, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wilson, 354 Roger Williams avenue. The occasion was Virginia's tenth birthday, which was celebrated by a merry Halloween masque and costume party.

Mrs. Frank M. Terry is leaving today (Nov. 4) for Florida, via motor to Baltimore. Mr. Terry went to Miami Beach this week following the hurricane and she will join him there. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Mulford will occupy the Terry residence.

On Friday of this week, November 5, Mrs. Charles Boehmer of 321 Bloom street, will entertain at a tea at her home. The tea is to be a miscellaneous shower of articles for the bazaar which is being held at Grace M. E. church, November 18 and 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Purdy left yesterday for Josephine, Ala., where they will join Mr. D. C. Purdy for a several weeks stay.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Steffen of 652 Michigan avenue, left Wednesday for Cedar Rapids, Ia., to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Foote. Mrs. M. Steffen a former residence of this city who has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past two months is returning with them.

Mr. John Feely of Old Elm road is spending his vacation in Los Angeles, Calif.

The Mother's club of the Y. W. C. A. met Tuesday, Nov. 2 in the headquarters on Laurel avenue, at eight o'clock. The program was given by Miss Quick of Elm Place school.

The American Legion auxiliaries of Highland Park and Deerfield assisted in plans for a Halloween party given for the boys at Veteran hospital at North Chicago. The local unit is planning to give a program Armistice day at 2:30 p. m. for boys of Great Lakes.

Mr. Edward Roache of Pleasant ave., Highwood, accompanied by his cousin, Mr. Hubert Ludden of St. Benedict's College, Atchinson, Kansas City, is leaving for New York City to visit his uncle, Mr. William Roache. Mr. Ludden will also visit his uncle, Dr. Ludden and his father, James Ludden. They will also visit Mr. Kilbain, a relative, at Cleveland.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society will meet Monday, Nov. 8, with Mrs. E. W. Sundell, 274 Central avenue. Miss Pollard, principal of the girls' academy at Korea, who is taking a post graduate course at Northwestern university, will be the speaker. There will be special music. An invitation is extended to all interested.

The next regular meeting of the Lady Elks Social club will be held Wednesday, Nov. 10, at the club rooms.

Mr. Ernest Volwiler of 623 Vine avenue, chief chemist of the Abbott Laboratories at North Chicago, delivered an address before a meeting of the American Chemical society in St. Louis Monday.

Mr. M. Warner will leave today for Venice, Fla., on a short-business trip.

Mrs. William J. Brown, worthy matron of Campbell Chapter, O.E.S., acted secretary at Wilmette Chapter, Monday evening. Tonight she will be Ada at Pentalpha Chapter, Evanston and tomorrow night she will serve as conductress at Libertyville chapter.

Campbell Chapter Guild will hold its annual bazaar Saturday, Nov. 20, in Strenger's plumbing shop, Sheridan road. Huge plans are being made and the members are working hard to make it a big success. A meeting of the guild will be held next Thursday afternoon at Masonic hall with Mrs. Bleimehl and Mrs. Howe as hostesses.

The Rev. J. G. Finkbeiner was called to Crediton, Ontario, Canada on account of the death of his brother, early this week.

Mrs. W. P. Johnson has returned to Highland Park from Philadelphia where she spent several months. She has resumed classes at the Elm Place school on Monday afternoons, for those who are deaf.

MANY ATTEND GAME DOWN STATE SATURDAY

Local Residents Among Those at Illinois-Penn Game; Not All Listed

Among those who attended the Illinois-Penn game at Champaign last Saturday were, the Rev. George S. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. George Childs and son, Bob, Mr. George J. McBride and son, Mr. Lyman McBride, Mr. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Watkins, Mrs. Irving Jordan, Mrs. W. G. Tennant, Mrs. X. Vicent, Mr. Oscar Lundgren, Mr. Joseph Nield, Dr. A. R. Svedlon, Mr. Jerry Leaming, Coach J. A. Peel, Mr. Ernest Volwiler, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. St. Peter, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sinclair and daughter Ruth, Mr. George Green, Mr. Ringdahl, and daughters, Anna and Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Udell and daughter, Cleona, Junior Cope, Edith Tucker, Fred Siljestrom, Mr. E. C. Sweitzer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quirk.

Most of those mentioned motored down, but several went on the train. All reported a very pleasant time. They reported seeing several mishaps including one sedan that completely burned up, but no accidents are reported to Highland Park people. They all agree that it was "some game."

"PRINCE AND PAUPER" COMING TO ELM PLACE

"One of the loveliest of all our plays writes Miss Winifred Ward, director of the Evanston's Children's theatre. We had capacity houses at both performances of this play, Saturday, Oct. 20." With such an announcement, who would want to miss the performance being given at the Elm Place school, Saturday, Nov. 20 at two-thirty o'clock when Mark Twain's dramatized story "The Prince and the Pauper" will be given.

"The Prince and the Pauper" is told in six scenes, the last two scenes are especially effective and the costuming very elaborate for the count scenes. In these six scenes some have to do with the adventures of the Prince and some show the life of the pauper.

The play is done with curtain settings that changes may be quickly made. The plan is to keep the atmosphere of the charming old tale with but one intermission to break the spell. Admission charges are twenty-five cents for children and fifty cents for adults.

CARD PARTY TOMORROW AT LINCOLN SCHOOL

A card party will be given at the Lincoln school auditorium tomorrow afternoon, November 5, at two o'clock, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association.

A prize will be awarded at each table. Tickets may be procured by calling Highland Park 11.

At the card party tomorrow an experienced kindergarten will care for pre-school age children.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our relatives and many friends and the various organizations for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our late bereavement.

Mrs. Margaret Dean and children 36pd

Big Sale For Fri. and Sat.

ON Fresh Fruits and Vegetables AT THE

BLUE GOOSE FRUIT SHOP

516 Central Avenue, Highland Park, Illinois NEXT DOOR TO THE CONSUMERS GROCERY Two Doors West of the Post Office

A carload of Apples—Greenings, Baldwins and Northern Spies, per bu.	$1.50
Jonathan Apples per box	$2.15
Sweet California Oranges per dozen	43c
Florida Oranges, full of juice per dozen	35c
Florida Grape Fruit, ripe and juicy 3 for	25c
California Grapes, red or blue large basket	49c
Green or Wax Beans, fresh and crisp lb. 15c; 2 lbs.	25c
Iceberg Head Lettuce, large, solid 2 for	23c
Hubbard Squash, whole or half the lb.	4c
Fresh Green Onions 3 large bunches	25c
Yellow Yam Sweet Potatoes, Dry Onions, Canadian Rutabagas, Purple Top Turnips, 6 lbs. for	25c

Buy from us and save money. The largest fruit and vegetable shops on the North Shore. Follow the crowds to our store.

Candy Lovers Know

that there is real guarantee of quality in the name especially when they call for

WHITMAN'S—RANFT'S PAGE & SHAW—AUNT MOLLY CANDY

at our drug store. Our stock is fresh and kept fresh by our rapid sales and frequent receipts from the factory. Let us send you a box—Telephone.

---

Special Candies for Parties

---

EARL W. GSELL & CO. PHARMACISTS

389 Central Ave. Phone 2600 389 Roger Williams Ave. Phone 2300

Calfskin appears on this New Silk Frock—$39.50

As Advertised in Vogue—November 15th

THE use of baby calfskin is one of the newest notes in the Autumn mode. This Golflex Frock—charmingly made from the exclusive "Kinwillo" silk crepe—employs mottled calfskin very effectively.

Where the Frock is chosen in black, black-and-white calfskin is used; where the Frock is selected in winter-leaf tan, lovely brown-and-white calfskin appears on the handsomely buckled belt.

Other colors, too—forest green, wine red—each belted harmonizingly!

This is just one of the beautifully made Golflex Dresses you will find here.

THE WINCANTON SHOP
160 Hazel Avenue Phone 226

THE Service rendered Our Policy Holders has made this the Agency of Insurance for this community.

When better insurance is written we will write it.

Central Insurance Service

Telephone 574 - 1046
Room 3, State Bank Bldg. Highland Park, Ill.