

SPECIAL WORK
kinds in tin and sheet metal ordered here with full confidence that it will be satisfactory. No matter what it is, if it's tin or sheet metal, or anything in or on the house to be repaired, we are prepared to take the work at a reasonable price with a guarantee of satisfaction.

HENRY G. WINTER
8 North First Street
Phone 635

SAFETY
DRUG STORE

R OIL

certainly the most oil because of the proper nourishment

PEASE

essenger Depot
Park 144

Planting

her in the Spring
two main plant-one's mind as to er season has its er certain partic-ussions are given

short for the im-should not take far short of the Fall planting ad-

h if handled power handled in the
as successful as become somewhat many cases Fall handled in the days are limited.

D SHRUBS. An
right. Our own of thousands of ries will convince

RIES, Inc.
e Highland Park 36

Order
Your Christmas
Cards
Early
From
The Highland
Park
Press

FOR REAL ESTATE
Read the Classified Advertisements
in First Section

PART 3

Deerfield News Items

Deerfield Evangelical Bungalow Church
Rev. R. M. Williams, pastor.
9:45 a.m. Sunday school.
11:00 a.m. Morning worship.
7:00 p.m. Christian Endeavor.
8:00 p.m. Gospel service.
Monday, Nov. 8, a waffle supper will be served to the members of the orchestra at 6:30 p. m., and the rehearsal will follow.
Tuesday, Nov. 9, the Mission Band will meet at 4 o'clock for the monthly business meeting.
The Y. P. M. C. will meet on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9, at the home of Mr. E. B. Foxworthy for the regular business meeting. Come and help to make this meeting a success by your presence.
The Junior choir will meet for rehearsal Wednesday at 4 o'clock.
Wednesday evening the prayer and praise period will begin promptly at 7:45 and merge into the Teacher Training class at 8:30. Rev. Duffy is presenting the introductory Bible course as the first part of this course. Anyone interested in Bible study is cordially invited to attend this class and enroll if you so desire.
Friday evening at 8 o'clock the Adult choir will meet for rehearsal.
Sunday, Nov. 7, the pastor will speak at both services. The evening service will be of special interest as the junior choir of 25 voices will sing. There will be other musical numbers of interest.
The past week has been one of great blessing and helpfulness to so many, especially to those who have taken the most important step in life, that of accepting Christ as their Saviour, and we heartily welcome them into the fellowship of the church.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church
F. G. Piepenbrok, pastor.
9:15 a.m. Church school.
10:15 a.m. Service.
7:30 p.m. (Friday) Choir.
We had quite a treat at our service last Sunday. Madam Wagner of the Busch conservatory sang a solo, Miss Ida Knack accompanying the singer at the pipe organ.
Seven teachers from our Sunday school are attending the city-wide cooperative religious training school at Chicago. No doubt the Sunday school will receive much benefit through this training.
Next week Wednesday is the big chicken dinner, given by the young people of the church. Time of supper, 5:30 to 8:30; place, the Masonic hall. Tickets for the supper are being sold in advance. Should anyone, however, not be able to secure tickets in advance, a ticket may be obtained at the hall Wednesday evening.
The regular teachers' and officers' meeting of the Sunday school will be held Thursday, Nov. 11, at the home of Mr. George Meyer. Every teacher and officer should be present. The Christmas program will be given main consideration.

All Saints Episcopal Church
The Rev. George Sherman Keller of Highland Park will have charge of the services of All Saints Episcopal church, the temporary quarters of which are in the Masonic temple, every Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.
First Presbyterian Church
Sunday, Nov. 7—
Jubilee and homecoming Sunday celebrating the 50th anniversary of the beginning of Presbyterian work in Deerfield.
Church school at 9:30. Worship service in the main auditorium for all above the beginners department. Special message by Dr. Marion Humphreys.
Jubilee service at 1:45. Special music and address by Dr. Humphreys. Evening services at 7:30, addressed by Dr. Humphreys.
Dr. Humphreys is a member of the board of national missions and is in our midst to help us in our campaign which has been planned for Jubilee week. All should rally to all these special services.
Week-night prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:45.
The loyalty program is being carried out successfully. Nov. 14 is visitors' day. In the evening a special men's service. All men of Deerfield are invited to be present. The pastor will speak on "Questions Men Are Asking Concerning Religion."
"Loyalty lifts the load." Be loyal. Always a cordial welcome to all our services.

Royal Neighbor Convention
The fifth annual convention of the Lake County Royal Neighbors of American was held at the Masonic temple, Deerfield, Thursday, Oct. 28. About three hundred members attended. The program for the day was as follows:
Morning session, 10 o'clock.
Convention called to order by County President Charlotte Fredericks.
Song; devotions by County Chancellor Anna Vanderbloemen; roll call of county officers by Recorder Augusta Hag; minutes of last county convention; roll call and reports of camps; reading and disposing of bills; unfinished business; new business; selection of place for next convention; election of officers; installation of county officers; work in charge of District Deputies; receive report; adjournment.

Afternoon session, 1:30 o'clock.
Introduction of supreme officers; address of welcome, Oracle Charlotte Fredericks; response, Georgia Avery, Lake Villa; memorial service, Highland Park camp, No. 5126; flower drill, Libertyville camp, No. 397; school instruction, in charge of supreme officers; presentation of flag, Gurnee camp, No. 2042; collecting pass word, North Chicago camp, No. 497; balloting, Deerfield, No. 436; ritualistic work, Waukegan, Ill.; retiring drill, Grays Lake camp, No. 284; extinguishing camp fire, Lake Forest camp, No. 993.
Evening session, 7:30 o'clock.
Formal introduction of supreme officers by Deerfield camp, No. 6802; ritualistic work exemplified by Deerfield camp, No. 6802.
The county officers for 1925-26 are: president, Charlotte Fredericks, Deerfield, Ill.; past president, Georgia Avery, Lake Villa, Ill.; vice president, Mabel McCullough, Gurnee, Ill.; secretary-treasurer, Augusta Hag, Deerfield, Ill.; chancellor, Anna Vanderbloemen, Highland Park.

Deerfield Local and Personal
Mrs. Paul L. Hunter, of Eugene avenue, in the Ender estate, left for Detroit, Mich., Wednesday where she will spend a week at the home of her brother, before Thanksgiving.
Mrs. Edward K. Williams attended a Halloween party given by Mrs. Hart of Irving Park, Thursday afternoon.
Mrs. Howard Durham of Kenilworth, Mrs. Deming-Wolf, and Miss Julia Deming of Wilmette were the guests of Mrs. Reichelt Jr. Friday.
Among those who entertained at Halloween parties were Virginia Farmer of Farmdale, Bannockburn fields, who gave a costume party from seven to eleven o'clock Saturday evening. James and Philip Getty had a party for their neighbors on Central avenue, early Saturday evening. Shirley Clark entertained the Friendly Five on Saturday afternoon.
Miss Frances Ludlow of Chicago was a dinner guest of Mrs. Eugene Ender Sunday.
Miss Lulu Plagge of Chicago spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Stanger.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhle entertained twelve of their friends at a Halloween party at their home on Central avenue, Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Russell LaVelle of Edison Park were among the guests who attended.
Twenty members of the Deerfield American Legion auxiliary were entertained at a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Clarence Huhn on Springfield avenue last Monday evening. Mrs. George Harder and Mrs. Farmer were assistant hostesses. The rehabilitation chairman reported that the Deerfield unit had sent its quota of bedside bags to the hospital at Great Lakes. The next meeting, which is a business meeting, will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Steiner of Central avenue on Monday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to attend. The question of having one afternoon meeting each month instead of two (one in the afternoon and one in the evening) will be voted upon. The auxiliary will have charge of the refreshments at the dance and turkey raffle, which will be sponsored by the local post Saturday evening, Nov. 20, in the Masonic temple. Mrs. Farmer is chairman of the refreshment committee.
On Saturday, Mrs. Carl Anderson and Mrs. A. G. Klemp delivered the 330 favors to the Veterans hospital at Great Lakes which were used at the Halloween dinner Sunday.
Mrs. Eugene Ender entertained at a luncheon at her home on Eugene avenue Wednesday.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Harry Olendorf entertained "La Petite Societe" at her home on Hazel avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Krumm and Mr. Howard Krumm, who have been visiting at the C. Ender home, returned to their home in Columbus, O., Sunday evening.
The bridge club was entertained by Mrs. Glenn Bowman of Central avenue, Tuesday afternoon.
Miss Josephine Woodman has returned from Paw Paw Lake, Mich., where she has spent the past three weeks with her sister, Mrs. Bell Kist.
Mr. and Mrs. William Schinleber spent the week end at LaGrange, Ill.
Continued on page 4, part 3

TEACHERS GUESTS AT HOUSE WARMING
Many members of the faculty of Deerfield-Shields high school attended a "house warming" given for them by the Ravinia grammar school between four and five o'clock yesterday afternoon. A very delightful social time is reported.

DIES SUNDAY AFTER FEW MONTHS ILLNESS

WAS PROMINENT RESIDENT

Mrs. Carl Lange Passed Away at H. P. Hospital; Funeral Today; Interment at Deerfield

On Sunday, October 31, at 5:15 o'clock, at the Highland Park hospital, occurred the death of Mrs. Carl Lange (Annie Antes). Mrs. Lange was born April 3, 1874, at Northfield, Ill., where she spent her girlhood days. About twenty-five years ago her parents moved to Deerfield and lived in the house now occupied by the Henry Jurend family. She was baptized, received her religious training and was confirmed in St. Pauls Evangelical church and was married to Carl Lange March 28, 1912.
Mrs. Lange was taken ill about September 5, and was taken to the Highland Park hospital on Oct. 10, where she remained until October 24, when she appeared to be on the road to recovery and was taken home only to be taken back on Friday, Oct. 29, and underwent an operation Saturday following, which resulted in her death on Sunday. She had reached the age of 52 years, seven months and 28 days.
Mrs. Lange was a faithful member of St. Pauls church, an active member of the Ladies' Aid society and a teacher in the primary department of the Sunday school for the past nine years. Mrs. Lange was a woman of pleasing personality, a devoted mother and wife and her many friends are grieved to hear of her untimely and rather sudden death, and extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.
She leaves to mourn, a husband, daughter, Eva, 13 years old; two brothers, Jacob Antes, of Seattle, Wash., George Antes, of Deerfield; four sisters, Mrs. Rudolph Hilschof (Emma) of Rogers Park, Mrs. George Pfister (Mary), Mrs. F. D. Clavey (Sarah), of Highland Park, Mrs. William Lesser (Carrie) of Northfield.
Funeral services are being held this afternoon from the family residence at 1:30 and at St. Paul's Evangelical church at two o'clock, the Rev. Piepenbrok officiating. Interment at Deerfield cemetery.

DEERFIELD GRADS ON COLLEGE TEAMS

Wolf With Chicago and Olson at Purdue; Martin Is at Lake Forest

The Deerfield-Shields night school is much bigger and better than last year, according to statistics secured from Mr. Schneider. There are nearly twice as many teachers, many more classes, and over thirty more people enrolled.
Fourteen different subjects are offered. Anyone desiring to join may enroll any Monday or Wednesday night between seven-thirty and nine-thirty, at which time Mr. Schneider, who is in charge of the night school, is in the office. An enrollment fee of one dollar is charged, which is subject to refund if no nights are missed.
There is room for more students in all classes except the typewriting and mechanical drawing classes. A larger number are needed in stenography review and bookkeeping.
The night school will continue for sixteen weeks. It offers individual instructions in all subjects except those which have a fixed course of study. Those are stenography, typewriting, and bookkeeping.

NEW OFFICERS OF NORTH SHORE LINE

J. F. Egoft General Manager and H. P. Savage, Assistant, Is Announcement

Appointment of John F. Egoft, as general manager, and Howard P. Savage, as assistant general manager, of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad company is officially announced by the North Shore line.
This follows the recent appointment of Jesse S. Hyatt, former general manager, as chief engineering assistant to Bernard J. Fallon, vice president in charge of operation of the four electrically operated railroads in the Chicago metropolitan area, and of Bert W. Arnold, former assistant general manager as assistant to Mr. Fallon with supervision over motor coach operations of the railroads.
Mr. Egoft, who is one of the best known electric railroad men in the country, began his career in 1902 as a conductor on the street railways in Columbus, Ohio.
Mr. Savage, who has been serving the Chicago Rapid Transit company as general superintendent maintenance of way, is an internationally known figure, having only a few days ago been elected National Commander of the American Legion at the national convention in Philadelphia.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM LAKE COUNTY

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS ABOUT THIS PART OF NORTH SHORE AND VICINITY; COUNTY SEAT DOINGS

Twenty-five funeral directors from Lake, Kenosha and Racine counties gathered in a banquet and meeting at the Elks club in Waukegan, last week, and it is reported one of the most successful meetings of its kind ever held in this section.
Sale of eighty acres of land located at Holbridge road and Lewis avenue, Waukegan, in the extreme northwest section of the city, by Ell Calvery to a Chicago syndicate at a price of $1,200 an acre, was announced today.
Henry Weertz, Jr., 214 South Sheridan road, Waukegan, died in the Victory Memorial hospital at 2:10 o'clock Thursday afternoon after a short illness. The deceased was 35 years of age.
Plans for the erection of a big tabernacle in Waukegan which will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000 and seat from 1,000 to 1,500 persons have been drafted by Lewis Jensen, builder, and Rev. F. A. Callahan, the Irish evangelist, representing the Full Gospel mission in Waukegan.
Last Thursday the jury in the case of Bernard Hamlin, police chief of Lake Villa, returned a verdict finding him guilty of malfeasance in office. The jury deliberated an hour. Attorneys for Hamlin immediately made a motion for a new trial. The penalty attached to the charge has been stated as a fine not to exceed $10,000 or removal from office or both.

In a confession to Deputy Carl Ahlstrom last week Lloyd Dowell, 30, of Wauconda, admitted breaking into the William Grasse garage at Wauconda last February taking tires and tools. With him, he said, according to deputies, was William Prast. Prast is now missing. His home is in Merrill, Wis., and authorities have been asked to look him up.
Capt. Waldo Evans, former commandant of the Great Lakes Naval Training station, last week was found not guilty of charges that he illegally refused Samuel S. Ripley the right to enter Samoa when the captain was naval governor there. Federal Judge Adam C. Chieffo instructed the jury to return the verdict after evidence of native Samoan chiefs and others had been heard. Ripley was suing for $50,000 damages.

PUBLIC SERVICE CO. PROMOTES OFFICIALS

Two District Managers and One Engineer in New Positions, Announcement

An executive order, transferring to other positions two district managers and the engineer in charge of electrical distribution construction, has been announced by Charles W. Bradley, vice president in charge of public relations and service, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois.
George S. Bartlett, district manager of Pontiac, Illinois, since May, 1925, has been promoted to the position of operating superintendent for the company's district "C" headquarters, which are in Evanston.
Ray Carr, district manager at Lacon, Illinois, since February, 1925, is designated in the order as the one who will replace Mr. Bartlett as district manager in Pontiac.
O. E. Sinclair, who since June, 1925, has been engineer of electrical distribution construction, attached to the general office in Chicago, will replace Mr. Carr as district manager at Lacon. In announcing these changes, Vice President Bradley attributed their necessity to the continued expansion in all departments of the company's business. The changes became effective November 1.

STUDENTS GIVEN DANCING CLASSES

High and Grammar School Pupils Are Members; Taught at Elm Place

Dancing classes in folk, rhythmic, and social dancing have been organized by Miss Keller for the grammar and high school students. The classes will meet Saturday mornings at Elm Place school. There will be one class for high school students.
These dancing classes, which have been organized because of the wishes of a number of mothers, are divided according to ages. Those children over eight meet from nine to ten o'clock, the high school class from ten to eleven, and a class of those under eight from eleven to twelve. In the high school class, which is for girls, ballet and clog dancing is taught. Both girls and boys attend the grammar school classes.

North Shore News Items

The Charity ball Wednesday evening given by the Glencoe Center of the Infant Welfare society of Chicago, was a brilliant and fashionable event attracting a north shore following. The affair was held in the Evanston Country club. A group of prominent Glencoe women arranged for the ball which offers not only the pleasure of dancing to the strains of Dick Ede's orchestra, but the opportunity of playing cards to those who prefer this form of diversion to dancing. A delectable supper was served later in the evening.
Mrs. Francis Graham, chairman of the ticket committee, was assisted in her work by Mrs. Abel Davis, Mrs. Austin L. Wyman, Mrs. H. H. Belding, Mrs. J. H. Buechler, Mrs. Clarence Troup, Miss Marion Black, Miss Agnes Cornell, Mrs. S. Pirie Carson, Mrs. Lionel Frank, Mrs. Arthur Shiverick. In addition, the following committee chairman sold tickets: Mrs. W. Hamilton Walter, chairman of arrangements; Mrs. William T. Cressmer, chairman of publicity; Mrs. Henry L. Stout, chairman of cards; Mrs. Harold S. Elliott, chairman of the dance. Mrs. E. F. Wieboldt was general chairman of the entire affair.
Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. Henry H. Brigham, Mrs. Frank E. Compton, Mrs. William R. Dawes, Mrs. Harry C. Holloway, Mrs. H. Earl Hoover, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, Mrs. George Pope, Mrs. J. H. Roberts, Mrs. James M. Sheldon, Mrs. Henry T. Smith and Mrs. J. Milton Trainer, as well as the chairman and the sub-chairmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Case of Hubbard Woods, who will present their daughter, Miss Carolyn Frances Case, to society on December 11, from 3 until 6 o'clock, at their home, are planning to give a dance for young people, friends of their daughter, on December 22, at the Drake terrace.
Miss Elsie Larned Blatchford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wickes Blatchford of 605 Arbor Vitae road, Winnetka, became the bride of Ludlow Sebring Fowler, son of Mrs. Thomas Powell Fowler of New York, Thursday, October 21, at 4:30 o'clock. The ceremony took place in Christ church, the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. L. Blair Larned, brother of Mrs. Blatchford, who came on from New York with his wife and two daughters, Virginia and Betty, to attend the wedding. A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony.
Miss Blatchford was dressed in a white velvet gown with long sleeves, rather high neck, and wore a tulle veil which hung from a coronet of pearls.
Mrs. Albert G. Berry, Jr., (Marion Blatchford) attended her sister as matron of honor. She was gowned in rose and pink chiffon, with a pink felt hat trimmed with rose colored ribbons. The maid of honor, Miss Emily Scott, and the bridesmaids, Miss Edith Fairbanks, Mrs. William D. Pittman, Miss Elizabeth Jones, and Miss Pauline Rudolph also wore rose and pink chiffon and pink hats, and carried pink flowers of different varieties. Betty and Virginia Larned, cousins of the bride, were dressed in flesh colored chiffons, and as flower girls, carried dainty little baskets of flowers.
Powell Fowler, the groom's brother, acted as best man, while the list of ushers included Robert L. Crawford, III, of New York, Charles W. Donahoe of Seattle, Wash., John M. Denison, of New York, Townsend Martin of New York, Frank Blatchford, Jr., brother of the bride, and her brother-in-law, Albert G. Berry, Jr.
The groom's mother and his four sisters, Miss Fowler, Mrs. Frank Palmer, Mrs. Albert Meurisse, and Mrs. Dunleavy Millbank, with her husband, all of New York, came on for the wedding.
Following a wedding trip abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will make their home in New York.
The card party to be given by the North Shore Catholic women's league for the benefit of its social service department, will be held at the Orrington hotel, Saturday, November 6, at 2 o'clock. Tickets may be had from Mrs. William Snyder, telephone Glencoe 107.
Mrs. N. P. Anderson of Evanston is general chairman of the card party, the only benefit given during the year for the social service department of the league. Mrs. William Snyder of Glencoe and Mrs. John Janette of Kenilworth are also on the committee arranging for the party.

Mr. Edward L. Glaser of Lincoln avenue, Glencoe, left Wednesday, November 3, for New York to sail for Europe. Mr. Glaser will join his wife in Paris, and they will both leave for India.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Warner of 154 Church road, Winnetka, left Tuesday, October 26 for Washington, D. C. They are planning to spend a week at the convention of the "Four A's," as the American Association of Advertising Agents is called.

One of the interesting features of the week's program will be a formal dinner dance at the Mayflower hotel. President Coblidge is to be the guest of honor at this dance.
Mr. and Mrs. Warner's daughter, Miss Dorothy, is still in Redlands, Calif., where she expects to remain the entire summer.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Holloway, 589 Sheridan road, Glencoe, returned last week by motor from Puyingham, Miss., where they have been spending the summer. Mrs. Markham Orde, who had been visiting the Holloways for a few weeks, also returned with them. Mrs. J. Milton Trainer, who spent a week with the Holloways, is still in the east. Ruth Holloway is attending Bryn Mawr, George has gone back to Exeter, and John Holloway is taking a post graduate course at Harvard.

Mrs. Frank Neubacher, 792 Walden road, Winnetka, will entertain twenty guests at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Follett of New Orleans, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Patterson of 370 Walnut street.

Wilmette is to be the home of Arthur Serra, said to be the largest importer of pineapples in this country. Mr. Serra, it is said, owns thousands of acres of pineapple lands in the Isle of Pines and Cuba, from which he ships thousands of car loads of this product annually to New York and other sections of the country. His new home is the pretty Spanish residence at 611 Eighth street, which he purchased recently from Frank F. Ladd, through Paul Schroeder and company. The price, it is understood, was around $50,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson K. Dering returned Saturday, October 23, from their honeymoon abroad, and are making their home temporarily with Mrs. Dering's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Roehm of 835 Hill road, Winnetka.

Mrs. Halsey B. G. White of 780 Willow road, her son, Hugh, and her niece, Miss Gibson, are leaving Winnetka the first of November to pass the winter season at the Orrington hotel.

Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster of 816 Bluff street, Glencoe, entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. J. W. Kittermaster of Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, Thursday evening, October 28.

Mrs. Thomas King of 792 Glencoe road, Glencoe, is entertaining as her house guest, her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Hosteller of Decatur, Ill., who plans to remain about a week.

H. A. van Coenen of Trichiana, Netherlands consul general on the west coast, spent the past week with John Vennema of 849 Willow road, Winnetka.

Mrs. J. Endicott Bradstreet and daughter, Anne Dudley, 334 Ridge avenue, left Tuesday, October 26, for New York, where they will spend several weeks, with Mr. Bradstreet's sister, Mrs. Howard H. Hoyt, of Sound Beach, Conn., formerly of Winnetka.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AT HIGH SCHOOL SUCCESS

Nearly 250 Present and Most of Them in Costume; Fine Time Reported

Nearly every one of the two hundred and fifty who attended the very successful Halloween party at the high school last Saturday night was in costume. Some wore Indian dresses, many both boys and girls, were in western costume. Some of the girls decided to become little children again and donned rompers of checked gingham. There were girls who dressed as boys and boys who dressed as girls. Eleanor Keller, a sophomore, won the award for the most original costume, Arthur Gurley for the funniest.
Each student as he or she entered was given a ticket which entitled him one serving of the refreshments which consisted of doughnuts and cider. This was made possible by the student social fund which was provided by the board of education, the Parent-Teacher association, and one-half the proceeds of the production of the "Goose Hangs High" given last year.

STUDENTS OFFER FLORAL TRIBUTE

A spray of flowers completely covering the coffin of Lyman Dean, the North Shore bus driver who saved the lives of several students by sacrificing his own, was sent by the students of the high school. A box was placed on the councer table in the main hall in which students were asked to place their contributions. Thirty-three dollars and seventy cents was contributed.