Grade Six: Samuel Daniels; honorable mention, Virginia Fariner.

Grade Seven: Grace Sherman, Mary Jane Galloway, Donald Clark.

Grade Eight: Olive Frantz, Ruth Frantz, Marion Taylor; honorable mention, Gertrude Johnson.

Edwin Wood has entered the fifth grade from the Portage Park school in Chicago.

Edwin Koebelin brought a dead male ovenbird which has been mounted and added to our bird collection.

The fifth grade wish to thank the P.T.A. for paying for the mounting of this bird. Mounted birds make our nature work more interesting and also increase our love for birds.

The sixth grade received the prize for the largest number of mothers present at our last P.T.A. meeting. The children have decided to add to the amount received and purchase a clock for the sixth grade room.

The children of the sixth grade planned a very nice Halloween party last Friday afternoon as a surprise to their teacher.

Mrs. Christy M. Knaak weighed and measured all the children in her room IIA and B) last week and sent the report home to the parents Friday. At intervals during the school year the children will be weighed and measured and a close record kept for the parents' information.

Friday, Mrs. Christy M. Knaak entertained the children of her room at a Halloween party. Dolls, little sisters, and brothers came. Every one had a happy time playing games and eating candy. Shirley Blaine, June Freidland, and Annie Tuma served.

The 2A's and 2B's made attractive language books and spelling books in Halloween design.

Mr. Taggart, a former principal of Deerfield grammar school, visited room 1, Miss Lidgerwood's and room II, Mrs. Knaak's, Thursday morning.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Bungalow church held a very successful Halloween box social in the church parlors on Tuesday evening. The young folks voted this one of the best social evenings of the season.

Burton Osterman of Oak Park is visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. H. Willman.

The Deerfield civic committee of the Highland Park Woman's club will have charge of the dance in the woman's club auditorium Saturday evening of this week. Mrs. Charles Timson is chairman of arrangements, Mrs. Blasier will have charge of the tickets, and Mrs. Gooder, Mrs. Russo and Miss Winifred Nichol will serve the refreshments. Other members of the committee who will assist at the dance are Mesdames E. B. Jordan, George L. Truitt, C. C. Brackett, Adolph Goeltz, Mark Monray, Bert C. Nichols, J. A. Reichelt, Jr., and James A. Robertson. The orchestra is an excellent one, the dancing floor is the best on the north shore. The young people of the community will enjoy dancing in such delightful surroundings.

Mrs. Charles Timson entertained at a Halloween party Saturday evening for her son, Eldred. Sixteen boys participated in stunts appropriate for the occasion.

Mrs. McArthur and Mrs. Hastings of the Wilmot school district were among the four delegates from their P.T.A. at the conference held in the Field museum last Thursday.

The postal officials of the present day can not be expected to read all the postal cards, as it will take all their time to practice shooting at bandits.

Congress will soon meet, and settle a lot of our problems by postponing them until the next Congress.

The American people are claimed to be the most talkative in the world but you never would know it by mingling with those who get beaten in the elections.

The winning candidates will not probably feel quite so jubilant after they have dealt for a few weeks with the procession of friends and supporters who are looking for jobs.
