Deerfield Grammar School Notes
Christmas Operetta
A Christmas Operetta, "The Capture of Santa Claus," will be given by children of the Deerfield grammar school at the Parent-Teacher association on December 10, at two-thirty
p. m.
The scene is the night before Christmas. The children hang up stockings and wait by the fire for the Santa Claus. They fall asleep, leaving the toys on the Christmas tree come to life and plan to capture Santa Claus and give him to the strays children.
The characters are the Christmas children, horns, balls, drums, blocks, pop-corn. The toys on the tree are the Christmas doll, teddy-bear, candles, bells, soldiers, jumpjacks, brownie-police, and socks.
Examinations covering the second weeks of school work were given

JAMES C. LINN DIES IN HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.
Former Winnetka Man Is Victim of Accident; Was Struck by Automobile
The sudden death of James Clapper Linn of Hollywood, Cal., formerly of Winnetka, occurred Saturday morning, November 20, the result of an accident which occurred on Friday.
While crossing the street on the way to his club Mr. Linn was struck by an automobile, the injuries he received resulting in his death the following day. The inquest was held Monday, and services were conducted Tuesday.
Mr. Linn lived in Winnetka six or more years at 286 Ridge avenue, and had many friends and acquaintances in the village. He is survived by his wife, and two sons, Howard Linn of Chicago, who has gone west to be with his mother, and Ross Linn, who is also with his mother in Hollywood.
Mr. Linn was interested in the real estate business in Winnetka, and continued that work in California.

and Mrs. Corsant are planning to spend the season at Cannes, followed by a trip to Seville, Spain.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PACKAGES EARLY

POSTMASTER GIVES RULES
Urges Patrons to Take Care to Wrapping and Addressing of Parcels; Other Regulations

Postmaster Hugo Schneider urges that the patrons of the local post office use every possible care in the preparation of packages for Christmas mailing and urges the public to shop now and mail early so as to be sure of timely delivery. He calls attention to the following directions issued by the postal department for the preparation and mailing of Christmas packages, cards, etc.:
All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed. Use strong paper and heavy twine.
Special Packing
Umbrellas, canes, golf sticks, should be reinforced their full length by strong strips of wood tightly wrapped and tied to withstand transportation.
Hats: Packed in strong corrugated or fiber boxes. Ordinary pasteboard hat boxes must be crated. Ladies' hats and stiff hats easily damaged should be marked "Fragile."
Shoes: Pack in strong boxes, preferably corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.
Cut flowers: Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin, or heavy, corrugated cardboard. Wrap with tissue to retain moisture.
Candles: Inclose in strong outside boxes or containers.
Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc.: Pack or wrap in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and then wrap and tie carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.
Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges fully guarded to prevent injury to clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Crate suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they can not cut through the wrapping.
Fragile Objects
Articles easily broken or crushed must be crated or securely wrapped. Use liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, in, around, and between the articles and the outside container.
Glassware, fragile toys, crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken in transit.
Cigars: Ordinary boxes of cigars wrapped in paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar. Wrap in corrugated pasteboard or similar material.
All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "Fragile."
Perishable Matter
Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery will not be accepted for mailing. Wrap or pack carefully, according to contents, and plainly mark all such parcels "Perishable." Use special-delivery stamps to expedite delivery.
Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, post office box or rural-route number, and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in the upper left corner of every piece of mail. If a tag is used, the address and return card should also be written on the wrapper for use if tag is lost, and a copy of the address should be inclosed inside the parcel.
Postage must be fully prepaid on all mail. Affix the required amount of postage in the upper right corner. Full information concerning postage rates can be obtained at the parcel-post or stamp window.
Weight and Size Limit
No parcel may be more than 84 inches in length and girth combined. For delivery locally and in the first, second, and third zones, 70 pounds is the maximum weight; in all other zones, 50 pounds.
Christmas gifts and cards addressed to points within one day's travel should be mailed not later than December 20; within two days' travel, not later than December 18; within three days' travel, not later than December 16; for more distant points, not later than December 14. Parcels and cards for local delivery should be mailed not later than December 22.
Parcels and envelopes may be inclosed "Please do not open until Christmas."

Mrs. Cyrus Daniels (Ada Boulter) of Appleton, Wis., was the matron of honor, Miss Elsie Kvarnstrom of Chicago, and Miss Myrtle Carlson of Winnetka attended. Miss Parson as bridesmaid. Little Edith Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, was the flower girl.

Walter Higgs of Monroe, Mich., acted as best man for Mr. Stenlund. The ushers were Oscar Lindholm of Chicago, and Harold Ericson of Highland Park. Cyrus Daniel of Appleton, Wis., played the wedding march. Rev. A. E. Rohrbach of the First Scandinavian Evangelical church of Winnetka performed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony, the seventy-five guests attended the reception given by the bride's parents, in the Neighborhood room. Mr. Stenlund and his bride plan to make their future home at 1038 Darrow street, Evanston.

Miss Emily Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott of 175 Sheridan road, Glencoe, whose marriage to Langdon Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hubbard of Grosse Point, Mich., will take place Saturday, Dec. 4, is being feted by a large group of Chicago and North Shore friends.

Mrs. Carl Seibolt entertained at a luncheon and bridge Wednesday, November 17, in Miss Scott's honor. On Monday, November 29, Miss Mary Carroll of Chicago gave a bridge luncheon for her. Mrs. Donald Welles of Lake Forest, Miss Scott's cousin, also gave a luncheon and bridge Tuesday, Nov. 30.

Adding to the week's festivities, Miss Margaret Scott of Evanston will entertain at a luncheon and matinee party Wednesday, December 1. Miss Joan Stuart is giving a spinsters' dinner and theater party that same evening. During the same week, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott will give a dinner at the Saddle and Cycle club and a theater party in honor of their niece.

The day before the wedding, Miss Louise Tyler of Chicago, who is a member of the bridal party, is giving a luncheon just preceding the wedding rehearsal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott are giving the bridal dinner at the Casino Friday evening, December 3.

Mr. Hubbard is having his share of entertaining in Detroit, where the bachelor dinner will be given before he arrives here. His parents will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Scott during their visit here.

Mr. Hubbard and his bride will journey abroad on their honeymoon. After a week in Paris, they will visit St. Moritz, Switzerland, for the winter sports. When they return, they will occupy the home of Mr. Hubbard's parents for a time while they are in the west.

The marriage of Miss Francis Wright and Frank C. Amsbury took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gordon of 874 Lincoln avenue, Glencoe, Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. J. W. F. Davies performed the ceremony.

Miss Vivian Westcott of Winnetka attended Miss Wright as maid of honor, and Mr. Branch of Evanston acted as best man.

Miss Wright graduated from New Trier high school, and from the University of Illinois class of 1926. Mr. Amsbury is also a graduate of the University of Illinois. They will make their home for the winter in Champaign, Ill.

A candlelight ceremony marked the marriage of Miss Katehran Bowes daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bowes, Jr., of Evanston and Glencoe to the Rev. Egbert Bailey Clark, Jr., son of Mrs. Egbert Bailey Clark of Hermosa Beach, Cal., on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Evanston at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. Arthur Rogers officiated at the ceremony. The reception was given in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Frederick M. Bowes at 714 Ashland avenue, Winnetka.

The bride's gown was of white chiffon and bride's lace over flesh satin. The veil was pale flesh tulle embroidered with seed pearls and brilliants. Mrs. Sterling Maxwell of Hinsdale, as matron of honor wore flesh chiffon and silver lace. The bride's sister, Miss Mary Gertrude Bowes, who was maid of honor, wore pink chiffon and silver lace. Both dresses were trimmed with brilliants. Mrs. Hugh McCulloch of Evanston, and Mrs. Charles Stroule of Chicago, the bridesmaids, wore dresses of a deeper pink chiffon.

James W. Prindiville of Winnetka, brother-in-law of Mr. Clark, served as best man, and the bride's brothers, Lawrence and William K. Bowes of San Francisco, and Dwight and Frederick Cossitt of La Grange, acted as ushers. Pink candles furnished the light for the wedding, and large baskets of pink roses and chrysanthemums, together with greens, decorated the altar.

The Rev. and Mrs. Clark left on a motor trip to Hermosa Beach, Cal., where they will make their future home.

Last year a benefit was conceived and given and called a Home-coming dance because it heralded the return of all the boys and girls from schools and colleges. Its success was marked, financially and socially, so much so that it has been requested this year.

December 23 has been appointed as the day of another such affair when boys and girls of the north shore may gather for one evening to renew acquaintance with old friends and resume touch with north shore life which they may have lost while far distant.

"The party will mean fun. An entertainment is being arranged that will be a jolly, musical treat, up-to-the-minute in every respect," those in charge announce. "That means that the boys and girls will boost it. Although there will be a splendid orchestra, there will be several specialty numbers, so no one will have a chance to get over-tired, or bored. Remember the date, mothers; of the north shore, and arrange a dinner for the young people that night."

Mrs. Harry C. Holloway of 569 Sheridan road, Glencoe, entertained at luncheon Tuesday, Nov. 23, in honor of Miss Margaret Orde's bridal party. Miss Orde, whose marriage to Brownell Bradstreet took place Thanksgiving eve, is the daughter of the Markham Ordes of Glencoe.
