Deerfield News Items

Deerfield Episcopal Church
The All Saints' Episcopal church of Deerfield will hold its next Sunday services at 7:30 p.m. at the Deerfield Masonic temple. The services will be conducted by the Rev. H. W. Prince, rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest. Everybody is welcome.

Miss Duffy Passes Away
Miss Annie Duffy, daughter of Mrs. Mary Duffy, passed away at her home on Deerfield avenue Tuesday night at 11 o'clock. For a lengthened period past Annie has been ill, in fact, has never regained her one-time vigor since last winter when she was seriously ill with pneumonia. She was born in Deerfield on February 25, 1877, where, with the exception of four or five years, spent in Albuquerque, N.M., with her brother, the late Will Duffy, Annie has always lived in Deerfield.

Four members of the Duffy family have preceded her in death within the past six years: William, Mayme, (Mrs. Walker) and Mr. Duffy, all of whom Annie faithfully nursed. Annie, who was always cheerful in spite of the many sorrows crowded within recent years, was always ready and willing to extend a helping hand.

She leaves to mourn her death, a mother, three brothers, Peter and Thomas and Jimmie, and a host of warm friends.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Holy Cross church. Burial will be in Mooney's cemetery.

Bungalow Church Notes
Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship at 11 a.m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p.m. Gospel service at 8 p.m. The program of the mid-week service has been somewhat changed and will make it more convenient for those who come to prayer meeting only. Members of the class will meet with Rev. Duffy promptly at 7:45 and merge into prayer meeting at 8:30 o'clock. Remember this is an invitation for you to attend either or both parts of this mid-week service.

The Y.P.M.C. will meet at the home of Mr. Chester Wessling Tuesday evening, Dec. 14, this monthly meeting will also be the time for an election of officers for the coming year.

Rev. J. G. Eller, the presiding elder, will be with us on Saturday evening, Dec. 18, for the quarterly business meeting, and on Sunday morning, the 19th, for the communion service and reception of new members.

As we near the Christmas time and realize the worshipful obligation it brings to everyone, we want to extend a hearty invitation to worship with us Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Rev. Williams will speak on "The Romance of Redemption."

Sunday evening service will be made of great interest by the presence of the junior choir.

The Christmas program will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 22n. The cantata will be rendered by the Robed Choir, speaking and singing by members of the primary department of the Sunday school.

Come and help make this an inspiring Christmas time. Suoifmsi

St. Paul's Evangelical Church
Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok, pastor. Church school at 9:15 a.m. English service at 10:15 a.m. German service, 11 a.m.

Teachers and officers of Sunday School met Thursday, 7:30 p.m., at the home of Miss Lillian Saltenberger, Osterman avenue. Instead of a regular choir rehearsal Friday evening, there will be a Christmas carol rehearsal in preparation for the caroling which the young people expect to do this coming Christmas season.

The superintendent of the beginner and primary departments of the Sunday school requests the parents to send their children to Sunday school as a part of the time on Sunday morning is used for Christmas program rehearsal.

Deerfield Presbyterian Church
Sunday, Dec. 12— Church school at 9:30. Adult class at 10. Morning service at 10:45; the celebration of Holy Communion. Evening service at 7:30.

Pastor's catechetical class, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Boys and girls of grade school age are invited to join this class.

Week-night service for Bible study and prayer every Wednesday at 7:45. Continuing studies in the Book of the Revelation.

Cradle Roll and beginners' Christmas party on Friday afternoon, Dec. 31st.

Christmas tableau, "The Story of the Birth of Christ," Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19, at 5 p.m.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet at the church on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 16. A missionary from Africa will be present and address the meeting with the aid of stereopticon slides. Always a cordial welcome to all our services.

Community Christmas Tree
Arrangements for a Community Christmas celebration around the community Christmas tree are progressing nicely. The tentative program is as follows:

Carol: "It came upon a midnight clear."

Invocation.

Quartet.

Carol: "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Address, Charles Kapschull, president Deerfield chamber of Commerce.

Carol: "Joy to the World."

Benediction.

Special announcement from the platform.
