VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS IN THE CASPIAN SEA
Recent Disturbances Shake Up Islands and Cause Much Excitement
Volcanic eruptions and subterranean shocks on Kilmiano island in the Caspian sea have shaken the whole peninsula of Apseroh, causing panic in the city of Baku. The people, afraid that Baku was about to suffer an earthquake similar to that which recently caused enormous damage in Armenia, rushed to the beaches, where they watched flames 3000 feet high coming out of the crater of Kilmiano, 40 miles east of Baku. The island is not populated.

TREMENDOUS LOSSES BY FIRE IN YEAR
Exceeds Half-Million Dollars and Thousands of Lives; Farms Suffer
The fire waste for last year has been placed at $570,000,000, and it has been estimated that $150,000,000 represents the losses from fires on farms, says the United States Department of Agriculture. This tremendous fire loss took a toll of 16,000 lives and it is claimed that at least 3500 were residents of farming communities.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN A MODERN POWER LAUNDRY
Appliances have been made within recent years in the Power Laundry business. Demands for its services have brought about the investment of millions of dollars. Much new machinery has been invented and developed. The managements have left nothing undone to please the public.

Cheese, says a dietician, is one of the oldest of foods, and no archaeological expedition was needed to unearth that fact.
