Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Larsen of Peoria will be here until after New Year's as the guest of Mrs. Larsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keith, 310 Warwick road, Kenilworth.

Miss Marian Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Montgomery of 15 Green Bay road, Glencoe, who has been taking graduate work at Columbia university, spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. John C. Crawley (Ellen Montgomery) of Riverside drive, New York City. In February, Miss Montgomery will complete her work at Columbia and return to her home in Wilmette.

Shingle parties for the bobbed hair girls are reported, and the old timers say a different kind of shingle parties should also be held in the woodshed.

It is remarked what an awful time people must have had in the days of the prehistoric monsters, but probably they were no worse than automobile speeders.

The earth is said to have been created for the use of man, but he does not find too much of it left in the closets after his wife has put her things on the hooks.

The Society for the Suppression of Useless Noises will find field for its activity in dealing with many of the orators who will address the legislative assemblies this winter.

The philosophers tell us about the value of Tranquillity, but it is so long since we saw that bird that most of us have forgotten how he looks.
