OPERA PROGRAM FOR FINAL WEEK FINE

Notable Attractions Promised During Closing Weeks of The Season

The repertoire for the last two weeks of the Civic Opera at the Chieago Auditorium, which will bring the season to a glorious close, has been announced. Starting off with the long-promised American premiere of "Judith," which is the most eagerly awaited operatic novelty that America has been promised in many years, the fortnight will contain repetitions of "Don Giovanni" and other great successes of the earlier weeks, and single performances of "Madame Butterfly," "Faust,""Gianni Schicchi," "Hansel and Gretel," "Boris Godunoff." and "The Masked Ball."

The last few days of the tenth week hold much of interest. Tonight, (Thursday, Jan. 13) "Don Giovanni," which achieved a tremendous success at the gala New Year's eve performance, will be repeated.

Friday night, Jan. 14, there will be double bill-"Cavalleria Rusticana," with Claudia Muzio, Lorna · Doone lackson, Antonio Cortis, and Desire Defrere; Moranzoni conducting; followed by "I'Pagliacci," with Edith Mason, Charles Marshall, Cosare Formichi, and Jose Mojica; Weber con-
