made on the permanent social committee, and other committee groups, especially those for the Junior prom and the Senior hop.

Miss Comer's delightful presentation of "Contacts Through Drama Clubs and Plays," brought out the fact that the student is taught to forget his own importance. That he learns promptness, responsibility and to be democratic, also group importance and group training, and service. In planning plays use is made of the different departments in the school such as the band, glee clubs, orchestra, laboratory, library, gymnasium, art department, sewing classes, carpentry classes, and gymnasium.

Mr. Kendig in "Contacts Through Gymnasium and Athletics," said that boys learn to respect the right of others. The backward boy is given a chance to develop initiative, and cooperation with the different individuals involved.

Mrs. Tom R. Wyles, the vice-president, who presided in the absence of Mrs. Moses Eisenstaedt who is taking a sea voyage, appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Wilford C. Shipnes, Mrs. W. Holmes Oederdonk, Mrs. C. T. Gunn, and Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr. Women from Lake Forest were hostesses at the meeting.

The March meeting will be an evening one, when Dr. Horace J. Bridges of the Chicago Ethical society, will be the speaker.

At the April meeting the women of Deerfield will serve the refreshments.

Deerfield Public Library

Our magazine list for the library is only just completed. The following is a list of magazines that will be on hand at the library, starting with the February issue. The people of Deerfield are invited to come to the library and read these magazines. Harpers, Scribner's Better Homes and Gardens, Ladies Home Journal, Woman's Home Companion, Saturday Evening Post, Good Housekeeping, National Geographic, American Boy's Life, American Boy, Youths Companion, St. Nicolas and Girl's Word. After any of these magazines become one month old they then will be open for circulation. That is, anyone can take them home to read, the same as a book, but not until they are a month old. Before that they will have to be read in the library.

On Friday and Saturday evenings, February 25 and 26, the young people of St. Paul's Evangelical church will present a three act play in the Masonic temple. The story of the play runs as follows: The action takes place in the tiny village of Canton, in northern New York, the scene of action in the front "sitting room" of Aunt Deborah Underhill's farmhouse. Aunt Deborah is a blessed old Saint in Israel nearly seventy years old, the widow of a deacon and the mother of four boys and two girls. All of the children however have married and moved away from the old home with the exception of John and Charlie. John is the youngest and the idol of his mother's heart. He is led astray by evil companions and they find in him a weak and subservient tool for their misdeeds. The play opens with a rehearsal of the village choir with numerous interruptions from Jeremiah Gosling, a comical country boy always trying to swop something and from Miss Lowizy Custard, the romantic old maid, who is anxious to recite her original poetry. John breaks up the meeting by bringing home a poor exhausted tramp whom he had found sick and starving by the wayside. Aunt Deb cites the parable of the Good Samaritan and gives aid to the wanderer. The tramp tells the story of his life, ruined by drink and Aunt Deb gives him money to return to his home in Buffalo. John is much impressed by the tramp's story and takes a vow never to drink another drop of liquor while he lives. Charlie, the elder brother, brings his fiancée in for tea and the happy family is just about to begin the evening meal when an ominous knock is heard at the door, and the sheriff comes in. John is arrested, and despite his protestations of innocence, dragged away to jail. Three years pass and no word from John, although he had been proven innocent and released from jail. Charlie persuaded his mother to mortgage the old home and give him a start in the city. John comes home a starving tramp but does not allow his mother to see him. He is about to steal his mother's savings when the tramp, now a prosperous man, intercepted him. He gives John help and he starts for Oklahoma and a new life. In the third act, Aunt Deb is bound for the poor house but is saved from disgrace by John who is now a respected zinc miner. Miss Custard, the old maid, and Jerry Gosling, supply much merriment throughout the play. While Aunt Deb, John and Enoch Rone are three great dramatic parts.

On Sunday evening, Feb. 13, a union meeting in the interest of local Boy Scout work will be held in St. Paul's church at 7:30 p. m. Mr. G. B. Stevenson, scout executive of Chicago Area council will be the main speaker. The Boy Scouts of Deerfield ask for your whole hearted co-operation. The need for a greater interest in the boyhood of our community is apparent. The Boy Scout movement is one of the institutions to meet this need. The boy of today faces many more temptations than we men in our boyhood days. Boy Scout work gives the boy an opportunity to direct his surplus energy into the proper channels where it will benefit him and prepare him to be a real man. Does your boy belong to the Boy Scouts of America? If not, both parents and son are foregoing a rare privilege. Any boy having reached the age of twelve may join. The requirements for a scout to advance from tenderfoot to the second and first class are such as to make him a better citizen, devoted to God, his country and his parents. The scout motto is "Be Prepared" and means to be ready in mind and body to do the right thing at the right time. For the sake of our boys, come to the meeting Sunday evening.

Mr. Oscar Benz was host at a stag party at his home on Grand avenue, Saturday evening, Feb. 5. The guests included Messrs. George Meltzer, Carl Laur, Oberauch, Ed Happ, Kohel, Nelson, Otto Funke, Wesley Cookery of Northbrook, Dr. H. A. Benz and Albert Grandt of Wheeling, Earl Sheaben of Highland Park, Pete Ensch, Wm. Street, and Frank Ensch of Chicago. Eugene Cooksy, Vincent Silveri and Bob Cooksy of Deerfield.

The regular meeting of the Deerfield American Legion post No. 738 will be held Friday evening, Feb. 11, instead of Wednesday, Feb. 9, as was formally announced.

Mrs. Vincent Silveri, Mrs. Oscar Benz, Miss Helen Beck and Miss Arnes Kruger attended the theater Saturday evening.

Miss E. Beartschy was a dinner guest at the Oscar Benz home on Sunday.

Reservations must be made on or before February 16, 1927, by mail or phone with the following: G. R. Bowman, Alvin Meyer, and Clarence Huhn.

Mrs. Oscar Benz and Mrs. Cooksy spent Sunday with Mrs. Cooksy's brother, Mr. Jean Tronjo of Chicago.

Kindergarten to Be Opened

A kindergarten will be opened in the Deerfield grammar school in the near future, possibly March 1. The kindergarten was made possible by a petition among parents who have children of kindergarten age and the necessary signers were obtained and petition was presented to the school board who passed on it and agreed to furnish a room and a teacher. The board, however, feel that they can not afford to purchase the equipment necessary to carry on the work and the mothers have volunteered to raise the money. The equipment will include chairs, tables, song books, block and numerous other things.

A meeting of the mothers was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Olendorf on Monday evening and in order to raise this money in a systematic way, a temporary association was organized with Mrs. C. W. Boyle as president and Mrs. Harry Muhle secretary-treasurer.

The members voted to hold a card party in the school on the evening of February 19. Bridge, five hundred and bunco will be played and refreshments served.

Mmes. Steiner, Willen and Berg were appointed to serve on refreshment committee; Mmes. Olendorf and Muhle on prize committee.

Any parent wishing to contribute toward refreshments or donate a prize, communicate with the above committee.

On Monday evening, Feb. 21 there will be a meeting at the home of Mrs. Boyle and any mother who has a child of kindergarten age that is between four and six is cordially invited to attend.
