The interests and activities of the children in the DeForest school have been gradually centering in the spring and Easter festivals. With the date of Easter coming somewhat later in the month than usual, opportunities to observe and appreciate nature changes have been encouraged. Bulbs planted in the fall are being eagerly watched, sunny days are being counted, values of the elements, wind and rain are being listed, and the work in the open is steadily being fostered. Window boxes, seed planting and the concrete expression of victorious life is surely making the Easter festival for the children of the DeForest school a vital experience.

Bob Stappie, assistant to Stewart Gardner of Exmoor, wintering as pro at the Mt. Plymouth Golf course at Orlando, Fla., and Carl C. Dann, Jr., also of Mt. Plymouth, recently won the pro-amateur event in the Central Florida open with a score of 137 for 36 holes. Bob's 69 for the last 18 holes was the best individual score of the tournament.
