Scout leaders of the north shore area, who are employed in the loop, often get together for lunch in Chicago. Last Monday noon they met with scout executive Walter McPeck, at the Central Y.M.C.A. dining room.

"Old Ironsides" will be saved, if the co-operation of scouts can save her. Scouts in many troops and thru the schools are helping in the sale of "Old Ironsides" pictures.

Many scouts of the north shore troops will attend Camp Chequamegon, one of the famous Owasippe camps in Michigan, during the north shore period, June 27 to July 9.

May 6 is the big day ahead on the boy scout calendar. New Trier dining room will be the scene of the spring council meeting at 6:30 p.m., to be followed by a public court of honor and inspection in the auditorium. The 8 o'clock meeting is open to all. The auditorium seats over a thousand. There is no admission charge.

Troop 35, winner of the March inter-troop efficiency contest in competing against all other troops of the area, has been selected to give a very short pantomime entitled the "boy scout pageant of progress." As music is played very softly, a reader tells the story of the heritage of scouting. As the music on the "Walters of Minnetonka" is played, an Indian is before us. Next to the tune of "Lead Kindly Light," a scout costumed as a Pilgrim, appears. He is followed by the music "Yankee Doodle" and the appearance of a Minute Man. Then comes the Pioneer to the tune of "Turkey in the Straw," the Boy of '61 to the tune of "The Girl I Left Behind Me," the Rough Rider accompanied by the music "Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," the Gob and Doughboy to the tune "Over There." The final scene, as the music of the national anthem is played, scouts a scout patrol in full uniform, the men of tomorrow. The program will open at 8 p.m. with the inspection of each troop by the committee on the court of honor and advancement.

Awards will be made to approximately 100 scouts who have earned an advancement in rank during the last month.

DONATES TOWARDS BEARDSTOWN LEVEE

Director Leslie Small of the department of purchases and construction of the state of Illinois, has announced that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad has pledged $41,000, its share toward the construction of a sea wall at Beardstown. With the $350,000 voted by the legislature and the $1,000 pledged by the Baltimore & Ohio line, enough money is available for the work, and bids will be asked at once, and work started on the sea wall as soon as the contracts are let. The work on the walls and levees will be done entirely as a state project. Changes in the city sewage system will be made necessary by the construction of the wall and the residents of Beardstown are ready to undertake that.
