SEVERAL CHANGES IN BUSINESS LOCATIONS

Several changes in business are reported this week. The Federal bakery is to occupy one of the rooms in the Lencioni building recently vacated by the Palace market, and the place is being fitted up for the bakery's use. The R. A. Brownell bakery has quit business and the stock and equipment has been disposed of. An Evanston candy concern is reported planning to occupy one of the store rooms in the McKillip building.

FALLS FROM A COW; BREAKS COLLAR BONE

Robert Moon, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moon, of Homewood avenue, broke his collar bone Tuesday evening, when he fell from a cow which he was riding home from pasture. Under Dr. Jack's care he is getting along nicely.

ASSESSOR'S FINAL NOTICE

"You Don't Get One Cent, but"

You don't pay one cent either. That's our end of the bargain.

If you accept our proposition, we will accept your liability up to a limit of $20,000 if you are involved in an automobile accident in which your car hits another car, for instance, and seriously injures the occupants.

May we call and explain just how urgently you need one of our Hartford Liability policies?
