Miss Eliza Rittenhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wayne Rittenhouse of Bourbon, Ind., became the bride of Robert H. Wienecke, son of Henry C. Wienecke of 680 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, on Thursday, June 23, at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. Douglas H. Cornell performed the ceremony, which was held in the Glencoe Union church. A reception followed, held at the North Shore hotel.

The bride's gown of white satin was made with long sleeves and bouffant skirt. Chantilly lace trimmed the gown and formed the high crown of the veil. The veil was made full length of tulle, and rose leaves and orange blossoms trimmed the cap. White sweet peas and valley lilies formed the bouquet.

Miss Mildred Anderson of Hammond was maid of honor. She wore peach organdie made in bouffant style over peach satin, and carried a showery bouquet of peach roses. Miss Anne Edwards of Chicago, Miss Lydia Sprenger of Kenilworth, Miss Verna Schefer of Bourbon, and Miss Ethel Arison of Evanston, attended the bride. Their organdie dresses were in rainbow colors, pink, blue, green, and orchid, made in the same bouffant style over white satin. They carried larkspur and pink roses.

Irwin P. Hagen, Jr., of Chicago, was Mr. Wienecke's best man, and the ushers were Dr. C. William Johnson and George K. Budd of Glencoe, Walter Siedel of Chicago, and Donald McFadden of Peoria. The bride has just received her degree at Northwestern university. Mr. Wienecke was prominent in football at the university, serving as captain in his senior year. The members of the bridal party all attended the university, the bridesmaids having been sorority sisters of the bride, who is a Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. Wienecke left on a motor trip through the west. They will be at home at 680 Vernon avenue on their return.

Miss Dorothy Minty Scharf became the bride of Benjamin Francis Runyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Runyon of LaGrange, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the Winnetka Congregational church, the Rev. James Austin Richards officiating. The bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McKenzie Scharf, held the wedding reception at their home, 509 Cherry street, immediately after the ceremony.

Winnetka chapter, P.E.O., entertained June 15, with a shower in honor of Miss Dorothy Scharf. The shower was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dean, 441 Willow road.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mitten of 562 Hill terrace, Winnetka, with their children, leave July 1 for Delavan, Wis., where they will visit Mrs. Mitten's mother, Mrs. C. B. Moore. They expect to be gone a month.

One of the prettiest of the June weddings was that Wednesday afternoon, June 22, of Miss Marcella Mettler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler of 1119 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, to Franklin Curtney Ellis of Rochester, N.Y., son of Dr. and Mrs. William T. Ellis of Swarthmore, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Dr. John R. Crosser of Chicago and the Rev. James Austin Richards in the garden of the bride's home at 5 o'clock. Only the immediate families and a few friends were present. Supper was served on the lawn after the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a white taffeta period dress, trimmed with silver roses. The sleeves of the gown were of rose point lace and were worn by the bride's mother when she was a bride. The tulle veil was trimmed with pearls and a bandeau of rose point lace worn by the bride's maternal grandmother. The bridal bouquet was a colonial one of white sweet peas, lilies of the valley and sweetheart roses. Miss Barbara Mettler who served her sister as maid of honor, wore flesh colored chiffon. The matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Straus of Chicago, formerly Nancy Porter of Winnetka. She also wore flesh chiffon. The bridesmaids wore georgette frocks of pastel shades and carried colonial bouquets of loose flowers. These were carried also by the maid and matron of honor.

Miss Elinor Woodward and Miss Carolyn Case of Winnetka were two of the bridesmaids. The others were Miss Margaret Amelia Ellis of Swarthmore, Pa., sister of the groom, Miss Elizabeth Dowdall of Washington, D.C., cousin of the bride, and three classmates of the bride in the class of '24 at Smith, the Misses Ellen Gammack of Fitchburg, Mass., Katherine Gauss of Princeton, N.J., and Phyllis Young of Altoona, Pa.

McKinnon Ellis was his brother's best man and the ushers were Michael Straus of Chicago, Charles Lewis and Ouis Lewis of Wheaton, Julian Woodward, John R. Montgomery Jr., and John Porter, all three of Winnetka, and two classmates of the groom at Princeton in the class of '23; David Kemp of New York and Malcolm MacLaren of Princeton, N.J.

After the wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis left for Rochester, N.Y., where they will make their home.

Miss Jeanette Weis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weis of Winnetka, became the bride of J. Lester Carroll of Winnetka Wednesday, June 22, at the M. E. church parish house at four-thirty.

The wedding dress was of taffeta shading from peach to orchid, and was made in bouffant style, with picture hat to match. Miss Margaret Weis, who acted as her sister's maid of honor, was dressed in yellow georgette, with hat to match. Both the bride and her maid of honor carried colonial bouquets of vari-colored flowers. Ralph Carrol served as his brother's best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carroll left on a northern motor trip. They will be at home after July 6, at 1819 Central street, Evanston.

Attended by bridesmaids attired in dresses of the Kate Greenaway period, Miss Florida Waples, gowned in the same manner, became the bride of David Radcliffe Lasier, son of Mrs. O. S. Lasier of 731 Lincoln avenue, Glencoe, on Wednesday, June 22. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William S. Waples of Downers Grove, and the ceremony was read in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Downers Grove, by the Rev. Hugh M. McWhorter of Ottawa, Ill., at 8:30 in the evening. A reception followed at the bride's home.

The bride's gown was made of white satin, with cap veil and court train. Her bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and valley lilies was made in colonial fashion.

Miss Ritchie of Chicago, as maid of honor, wore orchid organdie with a large velvet bow in a shade deeper and large orchid hat. Her colonial bouquet consisted of pink roses and orchid sweet peas. Miss Marion Chinn of Duluth, Minn., and Miss Cordelia Hancock Lyons of Wheaton, Ill., were bridesmaids, and wore green organdie with the large green velvet bows and carried bouquets of peach roses and pink sweet peas. They wore matching picture hats. The bride's attendants were her classmates at Rockford college.

John Lasier acted as his brother's best man, and R. Bruce MacLellan of Delavan, Wis., and George E. Waples of Lexington, Ky., were ushers. William A. Waples of Ashland, Ky., the bride's brother, gave her away.

Ruth Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Harris of Winnetka, was flower girl, wearing pink organdie trimmed in blue bows, and Billie Waples of Oak Park, flower boy, wore a white satin suit. They carried baskets of peony petals. Katherine Waples and James Harris, the ribbon stretchers, were dressed in the same manner.

These four attendants were nieces and nephews of the bride and groom. Mrs. Laura Grant Short, head of the music department of Rockford college, played the organ, giving a program before the ceremony. The church and the Waples home were decorated attractively with peonies all from the Waples garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Lasier are on a month's motor trip through the east, and on their return will make their home at the Lasier residence in Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Burrows of 216 Myrtle street, Winnetka, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Luella, to Alonzo Trezevant Folger, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Folger of Rogers Park. The announcement was made at a luncheon given Tuesday at the Cottage Tea room in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of Kenilworth with Phoebe and Marion, left Thursday for Leland, Mich., where they have a cottage for the rest of the summer. Virginia Hedrick is just returning from a trip to Duluth on one of the large freight boats which ply the lakes, as the guest of Julia Fleming of Evanston whose father owns the boat. Virginia will attend the summer school at Northwestern university this year.

In a lovely garden setting of blossoms, blue sky and sunshine, Miss Helen Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis of Hubbard Woods, became the bride of Henry E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Hubert Allen of Edgewood lane, on Saturday afternoon, June 18. The Rev. James Austin Richards read the ceremony at four o'clock.

The bride was gowned in white chiffon and old family rose point lace with conventional tulle veil to match, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and valley lilies.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. LeRoy Shelton, Mrs. Ralph Brown, Mrs. Arthur Davis of Evanston, and Mrs. William Davis, who wore cameo-colored chiffon, and carried arm bouquets of blue delphinium and gladioli.

Alice Drake of Boston, six-year old cousin of the bride, wearing a frock of pale green, and Jane and Suzanne Allen, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. Durand Allen, wearing yellow, were the flower girls, and carried small colonial baskets of old-fashioned flowers and petals which they strewed in the bridal path.

Waldo Allen served his brother as best man, with Cornelius Trowbridge, Sturvesant Butler, Durand Allen and William and Arthur Davis, brothers of the bride, as ushers, and Sherman Ewing of New York City, classmate of Mr. Allen at Yale, Mark L. Entorf of Chicago, Mont., and James C. Pirie of Baltimore, as groomsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen left immediately following the reception for a short lake trip. After Mr. Allen has received his degree in medicine at the University of Chicago next fall, they will cruise the Mediterranean on a belated honeymoon.
