LEGION PLANS FINE FOURTH CELEBRATION

The Fourth of July celebration under the auspices of the American Barackman, H. E. Legion post here promises to be one of the best Independence Day affairs ever staged in this section. It will start on Saturday evening, July 2, and will resume Monday, July 4, in the morning, and continue all day. A carnival and other attractions will be located on First street between Central and Elm place, and a feature will be the giving away of a fine Buick brougham. The Legion members are sparing no effort to make this celebration a success and to give Highland Park people worth-while entertainment on that holiday. Residents are urged to reserve the date for a real home celebration of the Fourth.

MacDOWELL SOCIETY ENDS SEASON TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyraud Guests of Honor; Elect New Officers

The last meeting of the North Shore MacDowell society of the present season was held last Tuesday night at the North Shore Montessori school in its charming new building on Cherry street in Winnetka, with Miss Dorothy. Sears the school president as hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Helen Sears.

for an art exhibition. There were guished. twenty-five canvases of all sizes from the brush of Mr. Peyraud and eleven portraits by Mrs. Peyraud. The subjects of Mr. Peyraud's pictures ranged from scenes from the Skokie and Ravinia to those from Switzerland, where the artist recently spent over a year painting near his former home tiful canvas "Sunset on the Alps" vivid autumn landscape from Ravinia. Mr. Peyraud is too well known for comment here except to quote from a well known New York critic Philadelphia Inquirer. who recently said that Peyraud is undoubtedly the greatest painter of sky effects America has ever produced. Mrs. Peyraud's portraits were done in her usual charming manner and represented portraiture in its modern phase especially in the home portraits of Mr. and Mrs. George Miles in the sunny breakfast room of their Ravinia home and that of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hess in their music room, Mr. Hess with his cello and Mrs. Hess at the piano. The portrait of Mr. and Mrs. Miles was featured at the Sesqui Centennial. Other interesting portraits of Mr. Peter Johanson, Miss Geraldine Kuehnsteadt and Mr. John Robertson were included in Mrs. Peyraud's share. During the evening Mrs. Peyraud spoke very informally on pictures and some French songs were delightfully sung by Miss Esther Wood with Mrs. Nina Fitch Bailey at the piano.
