Bethany Evangelical

C. F. Schriver, minister
Last Sunday was Children's day at Bethany church. Babies, children and flowers. A fine class was promoted from the Primary to the Junior department. We rejoice in the progress of the Sunday school work. A good offering for missions was another feature of the service.

Worship service for next Sunday as follows:

Sunday school at nine forty-five.

Preaching at eleven and eight o'clock. Messages by the pastor. The morning theme, "The Churches Evangelism." Special music at both services.

E. L. C. E. at seven-fifteen. A good service is promised.

Progress is more evident at the new building this week. The cinders are going in and the concrete floor should soon be in evidence. Watch this column for further information.

NEAR-SIGHTED BUSINESS

The short-sighted policy of urging upon a customer something he doesn't want is what puts many a business in the hands of receivers.—American Magazine.

The Soviets seem to be finding out that when it comes to subtle diplomacy the Chinese were doing business long before Communism was ever thought of.

The spring of the year used to be the time for the appearance of Bock beer and sassafras tea. Well, we still have the sassafras tea.

European nations call Uncle Sam imperialistic because they know just what they would do if they were in his place.

London is expecting 275,000 American tourists this summer. That ought to give them back most of the gold they have shipped over here on debt payments, and then some.

There is one thing about the Ford-Sapiro hearing that Senator Reed ought to appreciate. It will never have to be called off finally for lack of funds.

Corrected

Teacher: How much time have you spent on this lesson?

Student: Thirty minutes, railroad time.

Teacher: What do you mean, "railroad time"?

Student: Including stops and delays.

You never hear anything about farm relief for New England. The farmers in Vermont and New Hampshire have needed relief so long they wouldn't know what to do with it if they had it.

Apparently a lot of the people who used to make bread flour sifters for the home breadmakers, have now had to go to making tennis rackets.
